

Brewer, Stallings Wed At Cedar Rock

Miss Phyllis Gay Stallings and Mr. Macy Gill Brewer, Jr., pledged their wedding vows Sunday, April 27, at 4 o'clock at the Cedar Rock Baptist Church. Rev. Burke E. Holland, Jr., the bride's pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Hillard Stallings, Jr. of Route 4, Louisburg, and the groom, the son of Mrs. Macy G. Brewer, of Route 2, Louisburg, and the late Mr. Brewer.

Mrs. Edward F. Yarborough, organist, rendered a program of nuptial music. Mrs. Walter McDonald, soloist, sang "O Lord Most Holy," "I Love Thee," and "The Lord's Prayer."

The altar was flanked by jade palms and baskets holding massive arrangements of white fugi mums, gladioli, snapdragons, poms, and gypsophila interspersed among a centered thirty-three branched candle tree and two nine-branch candelabras.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of white silk organza and luxurious re-embroidered alencon lace. The empire bodice, which was entirely of lace, featured a scalloped stand-up neckline and short lace sleeves. Re-embroidered alencon lace appliques adorned the A-line skirt. Also the hemline of the skirt was scalloped and edged with matching lace. Her flowing chapel train was entirely of silk organza with a scalloped lace edging. The brides chapel mantilla was imported English net adorned with alencon lace appliques. She carried a nosegay of white roses, Lilly of the Valley, stephanotis with pearls, and white orchids. She wore a single strand of pearls, a gift from the groom.

Miss Kitty Arnold of Louisburg, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Elaine Brewer of Raleigh, and Mrs. Junior Jones of Louisburg, sisters of the groom, Miss Phyllis Davis of Raleigh, and Miss Pam Fisher, also of Raleigh. They wore formal gowns of white linen and chantilly lace. The bodice featured rows of chantilly lace and pink flowers. Highlighting the back of the dress were tiny pink satin-covered buttons, and flowing streamers from a pink satin bow. The bouffant veils were attached to a pink satin bow. They carried nosegays of pink and white roses and mums.

Mr. Gerald Brewer served as his brother's best man. Ushers were John Gilbert Stallings of Alexandria, Virginia, Gerald Lee Macon, Bobby Howard, and William Rogers, all of Raleigh.

The bride's mother chose for her daughter's wedding a blue silk shantung dress with white accessories and a white orchid. The groom's mother wore a pink linen dress with patent accessories and a pink orchid.

Mrs. John C. Pernell directed the wedding. The bridal register was presided over by Mrs. Joseph Hart of Chapel Hill.

Following the ceremony, the bride and groom received in the vestibule of the church.

For going away, the bride chose a three-piece pale yellow suit. Her accessories were black patent. She wore an orchid lifted from her bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of Louisburg College and is now employed by Gregory Poole Equipment Company in Raleigh. The groom is a graduate of Gold Sand High School, and is employed by the Southern Bell Telephone & Telegraph Co., Raleigh, N. C.

Following a wedding trip the couple will reside at 531 N. Blount Street, Raleigh, N. C.

CAKE CUTTING

Immediately following the rehearsal Saturday evening, the Brewer - Stallings wedding party and members of the families were entertained at a cake cutting in the home of the bride-elect's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Stallings. Co-hostesses were their daughters, Mrs. George Clark, Mrs. William Popajohn and Mrs. Gilbert Stallings.

Guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. Stallings. The bridal table was covered with a white linen and lace cloth festooned with bows of pink satin ribbon and wedding bells. The table was centered with a beautiful silver candelabra holding an arrangement of summer flowers, and burning tapers, carrying out a color scheme of pink and white.

Mrs. Billy Stallings, mother of the bride-elect, served punch from a crystal service at one end of the table. After the couple cut the three tiered wedding cake which was topped with a miniature bride and groom, it was then served by Mrs. Nona Brewer, mother of the groom-elect.

Entertains Bridge Club

(Frk. B.W.) Mrs. T. J. McGhee entertained her bridge club Tuesday evening. Her home was decorated with arrangements of iris, lilac and spirea.

Mrs. Farris Kannon received high score prize for club while second high went to Mrs. Woodrow Haskins.

Mrs. John Gonella was the recipient of guest high.

Assisted by Mrs. Charlie Hight and Mrs. Raymond Harris, the hostess served chocolate tarts topped with whipped cream along with mixed nuts, mints and coffee.

Special guests were Mrs. Gonella, Mrs. Harris and Mrs. Lamar Greene.

Six Locals Initiated In College PTK

Eleven Louisburg College students were initiated into Gamma Upsilon Chapter of Phi Theta Kappa Honor Fraternity Wednesday evening in an impressive candlelight ceremony in the Faculty Lounge. Six are from Louisburg and Franklin County.

Reading left to right in the picture, they are: Seated, Betty Sue Radford, Louisburg (initiate) and Lucy Vester, Rocky Mount; first row standing - Swannelle Ethernott of Bunn; Phyllis Shearin of Louisburg, George Ann F. Edwards of Louisburg, Deborah Roberts of Warrenton, (initiates), Margaret Weston of Franklinton who is Gamma Upsilon Chapter president, Angela Arnold of Bunn, Linda Ayscue of Epsom, Barbara Brown of Raleigh.

Second row - Edith Dudley of Fairfield, N. C., Vel Freeman of Louisburg (initiates), Karen Arnold of Louisburg; Betty Jean Hyman of Fayetteville (initiate), Michael Barnette of Henderson, Harry J. Harles, Jr. of Rocky Mount, Ross Shuping of Louisburg (initiates).

Margaret Weston conducted the initiation ceremony assisted by the other members.

Mr. David Daniel, who attended the Phi Theta Kappa breakfast at the recent meeting of the American Association of Junior Colleges in Atlanta as guest of the local chapter, spoke of the program present there by the PTK national officers. Their panel discussion concerning current student unrest and involvement on college campuses across the nation gave a positive note centered around constructive and creative involvement in all phases of campus life by the "serious-minded student."

"Most impressive," said Mr. Daniel, "was the appearance and demeanor of national Phi Theta Kappa members, not unlike those who represent that fine organization on our own Louisburg College campus."

Lucy Vester and Barbara Brown presided at the refreshment table where an iced fruit punch, cookies and nuts were served.

College Faculty members, Miss Rachel Modlin and Miss Zella Coor, who were Phi Theta Kappa members, and Miss Elizabeth Johnson, Sponsor, were present.

Thanks

The family of Watson H. Massey wishes to thank Dr. Perry, Dr. Medders, the nurses, and the staff of Franklin Memorial Hospital for their devoted attention to him and for the many courtesies extended to us during his illness and at his death.

Also to the many friends whose visits, prayers, cards and flowers meant so much to him, we are very grateful. God bless you all
