Assistants Attend FLBA Institute

Delores W. Woodard and Jo Ann Harris, Office Assistants of the Federal Land Bank Association of Henderson, have just returned from Columbia, South Carolina where they attended a management development institute, according to Gerald S. White, manager of the association.

"The institute was conducted to keep Land Bank association personnel abreast of the latest developments and techniques in modern management," Mr. White said.

The institute was conducted by The Federal Land Bank of Columbia, S. C. in cooperation with Gus W. Campbell Associates of New York, a management consultant firm. Instructors were Gus W. Campbell; Frank L. Barton, vice president and secretary; W. M. Harding, vice president; James E. Wilson, vice president.

"The Federal Land Bank of Columbia makes long-term agricultural loans through farmer-owned Federal Land Bank associations serving every county in the two Carolinas, Georgia and Florida," Mr. White said. "The Bank has loans outstanding to our 40,000 farmers, growers and ranchers in the amount of over $574 million through the 46 Land Bank associations in the four-state district."

The Federal Land Bank Association of Henderson serves the long-term credit needs of 617 farmers, growers and ranchers in Franklin, Vance, Warren, Granville, Person, Durham, and Orange Counties with more than $6,000,000 in long-term credit.

For parents with sons in Vietnam these are especially trying times.

Why must practically all television stations schedule news at the same hour?

Rolls-Royce Recalled

London - The British Rolls-Royce and Bentley automobiles manufactured in the last four years have been recalled for the correction of a potential defect in the steering system. Letters were sent to an estimated 5,000 to 8,000 owners. Of these, 1,350 are in the United States.

Shocking Kiss

Wembley, England - Mr. Tom Bradley was nearly knocked down by a charge of static electricity when he kissed his wife who was still in bed. The couple were sleeping on nylon sheets and the company advised Mr. Bradley to wear rubber-soled shoes the next time he kissed his wife while she was still in bed.
