

Snyder, Bailey Pledge Vows

Miss Alma Lee Bailey and Mr. Francis Norwood Snyder, Jr. exchanged marriage vows Saturday, May 24, at 7 o'clock in the Woodland Baptist Church in Wake County. The Rev. Felton Cox officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bailey of Rt. 1, Wake Forest. The groom is the son of Mrs. Richard Lee of Route 1, Wake Forest and the late Mr. Snyder.

Nuptial music was rendered by Miss Agnes Bailey, organist, and Mr. James Keith, soloist.

The vows were said before an altar decorated with baskets of white flowers and candelabra holding white tapers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of rayon organza with a fitted bodice and wide bateau neckline. Schiffl embroidered Venice lace cascaded from the shoulder to the hemline and edged the bell shaped sleeves. Motifs of the same lace were applied on the bodice and the front of the A-line skirt. The full length train fell in softly draped folds from a large organza bow at the back. An elbow length sheer illusion veil was held in place by a headpiece of matching Venice lace flowers and tiny organza roses. She carried a bouquet of white roses, stephenotis and valley lilies centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Jean Fuller of Wake Forest, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and Miss Phyllis Marshall also of Wake Forest was maid of honor. They wore floor length gowns of yellow chiffon with empire waistline, elbow length sleeves with white Venice lace edging the neckline and sleeves. A satin sash with lace trim divided the bodice and skirt. Their headpieces were of matching lace and silk illusion. Mrs. Danny Bradley, Mrs. Ronald Mitchell, Mrs. Owen White and Mrs. Ralph Smith were bridesmaids. Their dresses were identical to the honor attendants and they carried nosegays of mixed daisies, mums and rainbow ribbons.

Miss Julia Lee was flower girl and she was attired in a floor length gown of lime green trimmed in lace.

Tony Lee Collins of Louisville served as ring bearer.

Mr. Robert Snyder served as his brother's best man. Ushers were Phillip Cooper, Larry and David Fuller, and Lynn and Allen Snyder.

The bride's mother wore a costume suit of turquoise organza and schiffl embroidery with matching accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

The groom's mother wore a yellow crepe skimmer with matching accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Following a wedding trip the couple will reside at Route 2, Wake Forest.

For traveling the bride changed to an ensemble of powder blue with accessories and the orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of Wake Forest High School and is presently employed at Tre-

Jay Mfg. in Youngville, N. C.

The groom is also a graduate of Wake Forest High School and is presently attending W. W. Holding.

Reception

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church given by the parents of the bride.

The receiving line was composed of the bridal couple, wedding party and parents of the bride and groom.

The serving table was covered with an antique satin cloth covered with net and draped at each corner with white satin bows and valley lilies. The centerpiece was an arrangement of white glads, white carnations and snapdragons. After the bride and groom had cut the first slice
