

Mr. Roberts, Miss Rollins Wed

Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary Chapel was the setting Saturday, the thirty-first day of May for the afternoon wedding of Miss Linda Dawn Rollins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Linwood Kimmon Stephenson of Wake Forest and Neil L. Rollins of Garland, Texas to William Young Roberts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Waller Roberts, Jr. of Raleigh.

The Rev. Felton Cox and Dr. J. Carroll Trotter officiated at the double-ring ceremony. Nuptial music was presented by Miss Betty Boal of Wake Forest, organist. The wedding was directed by Mrs. J. Carroll Trotter.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of white satin with an alencon lace yoke and sleeves and a high mandarin collar. Accenting the neckline were appliques of re-embroidered tiny seed pearls. The A-line skirt featured lace appliques re-embroidered with crystals and seed pearls as were the three-quarter bell lace sleeves. Her chapel-length train cascaded from the lace back yoke with a border of lace appliques re-embroidered with crystals and seed pearls. The finger tip veil of silk illusion was attached to a crown of matching lace petals embellished with crystals and seed pearls and pearl teardrops which dangled from petals of seed pearls. The veil and dress were designed and made by the mother of the bride and Mrs. J. Ennis Davis, aunt of the bride.

The bride carried a bouquet of miniature white carnations and stephanotis, centered with a white orchid and white streamers.

The maid of honor was Miss Donna Gail Rollins of Raleigh, sister of the bride. She wore a formal gown of aqua chiffon featuring puffed chiffon long sleeves, empire waistline and an aqua lace collar. Tiny covered matching buttons fell from the lace collar to the waistline. She wore a matching headpiece of aqua net tulle which fell from a gathered valvet bow. She carried a May basket of mixed flowers topped with a yellow satin bow.

The bridesmaids were Miss Betty Ann Trotter, Miss Emily Jo Holding, both of Wake Forest; Miss Linda Carol Hopkins of Elizabeth City, Miss Gwendolyn Dean Strickland of Raleigh; Miss Stephanie Chase Standafer of Charlotte, and Miss Janet Susan Moore of Springfield, Virginia. The bridesmaids' dresses were like that of the maid of honor and they carried May baskets also. Honorary bridesmaids were sisters of the bride's sorority, Alpha Delta Pi. They were led down the aisle by Miss Pamela Hill Nelson of Durham. She carried a nosegay of purple violets. Mr. Clifton Waller Roberts, Jr. was his son's best man. Ushers were John Walter Anderson, Randolph A. Harris, Ira Brantly Newton, William L. Hamilton, all of Raleigh; Robert Bruce Dodd of Fayetteville, and Roy Pender of Louisville, Kentucky.

wore an aqua dress of silk peau de soie with a rolled collar of pearls, sequins and crystals that formed a V-shaped yoke. She wore a matching veil and shoes. The mother of the groom wore a mint green dress of silk linen with a matching full length coat. The pointed collar was embroidered with matching crystals and sequins. She wore a matching pill box hat and shoes.

The bride attends East Carolina University School of Nursing where she is a member of Alpha Delta Pi and the Student Nurses Association. The groom also attends East Carolina University. Following the wedding trip the couple will be at home at 311 Lewis Street Apartments, Greenville, N. C.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was given in the Bethea Room on the Seminary Campus by Mr. and Mrs. Linwood Kimmon Stephenson. Guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Cecyl Stephenson and directed to the receiving line composed of the bridal couple and members of the wedding party. Goodbyes were said by Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Thomas of Raleigh.

The refreshment table was covered with a white satin cloth with an overlay of lace. At the four corners a yellow satin bow was tied with streamers to the floor. The centerpiece was a two-tiered floral arrangement of white daisies, mums and rose buds, with yellow ribbon. White and yellow burning tapers were used throughout.

Presiding at the punch bowl was Mrs. J. Ennis Davis and Mrs. Edwin Davis. The three-tiered wedding cake decorated with yellow rose buds and topped with a bride and groom was served by Mrs. Herbert Hall and Mrs. W. W. Holding, III. Of special interest was the carriage and horses with a bride and groom being ushered in by miniature cupids. White columns separated each tier.

Assisting in serving were: Mrs. Howard Mangum, Mrs. Rodney Bright, Mrs. Walter Keigh, Mrs. Horace Perry, Mrs. Leroy Ray, Mrs. Pressley Bailey, Mrs. Easley Forbes, Mrs. J. C. Fuller, Mrs. Ivor Critcher, Mrs. Everette Mangum, and Mrs. Harold Washington.

Presiding at the guest register was Mrs. Eddie Allen of Rocky Mount. Mrs. Bill

Glover presided in the gift room at the home of the bride.

Out of town guests included Mrs. L. F. Rollins of Fuquay-Varina, grandmother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Roberts, Sr. of Durham, and Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Warlick of Macon, Georgia, grandparents of the groom. Also present were Mrs. T. C. Young of Richmond, Virginia, Miss Dianne Holland of Sumpter, S. C. and Rev. and Mrs. Kenneth L. Holyfield of Charlotte, and Miss Suzanne Wheelous of Charlotte, Miss Martha Almon of Hiedleberg, Germany, Mrs. Sue Rollins of Orlando, Fla.; Dr. and Mrs. Benjamin Lawrence of Paer, Va., Mr. and Mrs. Freeman H. Warlick of Macon, Ga.

Rehearsal Dinner

The rehearsal dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Waller Roberts, Jr., parents of the groom. It was held at the Plantation Inn in Raleigh. Special guests were members of the wedding party and families of the bridal couple.

After-Rehearsal Party

An after-rehearsal party was held at the Wake Forest Community House. Hosts were Mr. and Mrs. J. Ennis Davis, aunt and uncle of the bride. Invited guests were members of the wedding party, intimate friends and the families of the bridal couple.

Vows Spoken In Rolesville

The marriage of Miss Sandra Gail Brown of Rolesville to Mr. Freddie Lee Wood of Louisburg, was solemnized Sunday, June 1st, at four o'clock in the afternoon at the Rolesville Baptist Church. Officiating at the double-ring ceremony was The Rev. C. Earl Haynes, pastor.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kenneth Brown of Rolesville and the groom is the son of Mrs. Ennis Lee Wood of Louisburg and the late Mr. Wood.

A program of nuptial music was rendered by organist Barry Pearce and soloist Mrs. Ben Bartlette, who sang, "Hawaiian Wedding Song," "Whither Thou Goest," "The Lord's Prayer" and "The Wedding Prayer." Mrs. H. E. Perry directed the wedding.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full-length formal bridal gown of peau de soie. The empire-styled gown featured a boat neckline which was applied with alencon lace and re-embroidered with seed pearls and iridescent beads. Placed about on the skirt and sleeves which ended in calla points over the wrists were also applied lace and seed pearls. Her shoulder-length veil of French illusion fell from a headpiece of lace which was adorned with flowerettes of seed pearls and iridescent beads. Her bridal bouquet was a white orchid surrounded by Baby's Breath, feathered carnations and satin streamers.

The Matron of Honor was Mrs. Tommy Murray of Youngville and Larry Boone of Raleigh. The bride's mother was attired in a blue lace dress with matching accessories. The groom's mother wore a light pink crepe dress with matching accessories. Each wore a white cymbidium orchid.

Following the ceremony, the couple received guests in the vestibule of the church along with members of the wedding party.

The bride chose a yellow linen suit with matching accessories for traveling.

After a wedding trip, the couple will be at home in the Brown Subdivision in Rolesville.

The bride is a graduate of Rolesville High School, where she was a member of the Beta Club and Peace Junior College where she received the Associate of Science Degree. She is now with the Nationwide Insurance Company in Raleigh.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Edward Best High School and has served four years in the United States Air Force. He is now with C. K. Brown, General Contractor, in Rolesville.

Cake Cutting

On Saturday night, May 31st, following the rehearsal, members of the Brown-Wood wedding party were entertained by the bride's parents at a Cake Cutting in the Fellowship Hall of the church. Others attending included their husbands and wives.

The Fellowship Hall was decorated in a bridal motif using white candles, on the piano and mantle along with magnolia leaves and an open bible on the mantle.

The table was covered in a white lace cloth and on it was a silver epergne filled with white and yellow flowers flanked by burning white tapers in silver pyramid candelabra entwined with ivy. The three-tiered wedding cake was topped with the miniature bride and groom. After the bridal couple-elect had cut the traditional first slice, the cake was served to the guests by Mrs. Mary Bett Merritt and Mrs. Elbertia Brown, aunts of the bride. Lime punch was served from a footed silver bowl by Mrs. L. P. Hicks, aunt of the bride. Other refreshments served were ham biscuits, cheese swirls, nuts and mints. Presiding at the bride's $101 less than last year's Impala with comparable equipment.

Impala Custom Coupe

Match that, anybody.

We give you an honest increase in car at an honest decrease in price. Take the '69 Impala above. We improved the ride. Made it quieter inside. Added an anti-theft locking device. Put steel guard rails in the doors. Still, this Impala with a 300-hp V8, Turbo Hydra-matic, advanced-design power disc brakes, head restraints, whitewalls and wheel covers is priced $101* less than in 1968. The 300-hp V8 is priced $40 less than last year's 275-hp. Turbo Hydra-matic costs less. Power disc brakes about half as much. Whitewalls a little less. Wheel covers about the same. And head restraints are now standard. Upping value and dropping price. That's the way Chevrolet operates.

Putting you first, keeps us first.
