

Edwards, Norwood Wed Sunday

The marriage of Miss Linda Faye Norwood to Mr. Henry Frederick Edwards was solemnized Sunday at four o'clock in the Warrenton Baptist Church. The Rev. Emmanuel Pegram, brother-in-law of the bride, and the Rev. Elwin Melton, pastor of the bride, officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

A program of nuptial music was rendered by Mrs. Monroe Gardner, organist, and Mr. Robert M. Davis, soloist, both of Warrenton. Mr. Davis sang "O Perfect Love" and "Entreat Me Not To Leave Thee". The congregation prayed in unison "The Lord's Prayer" after which the "Wedding Prayer" was sung.

The chancel of the church bore decorations of gladioli, mums, ferns, and white tapers.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie L. Norwood of Warrenton. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. Edwards of Gold Sand.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white bridal peau de soie designed with an A-line skirt, featuring a jewel neckline and detachable train. The gown was covered in embroidered organza. Framing her face was a four-tiered veil of illusion attached to a crown of lace and pearls. She carried a white Bible centered with an orchid.

The bride's dress was fashioned and designed by Mrs. H. T. Edwards, mother of the groom. The bride wore a necklace of cultured pearls, a gift of the groom.

Mrs. Emmanuel Pegram, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a full-length gown of orchid dotted-swiss with a nebru collar, empire waistline and cuff-ed organza sleeves. She wore a white garden hat and carried a nosegay of yellow summer daisies.

Bridesmaids were Miss Cindy Riley of Rocky Mount, Miss Betsy May of Louisburg, cousin of the groom, Miss Nancy Lyles and Miss Linda Shearin, both of Raleigh and Miss Kitty Norwood, sister of the bride. Their dresses were of lilac dotted-swiss with identical lines of the honor attendant. They also carried yellow summer daisies.

Little Miss Gail Ayscue of Warrenton was flower girl. Her dress was of lilac dotted swiss and she carried a basket of daisies. She wore a bonnet of matching fabric. Master Scott Hunt of Louisburg was ring bearer.

Mr. Ricky Edwards of Louisburg, brother of the groom, served as best man. Ushers were Jerry Lancaster of Raleigh, Bill Hight, Ricky Rayner, and Tommy Speed, all of Louisburg, and Willie Norwood, Jr., brother of the bride.

The bride's mother chose a mint green crepe dress with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a pink brocade dress with matching accessories. Both mothers wore a white orchid corsage. Mrs. Ernest Ayscue, grandmother of the bride, wore a pink lace dress over satin with a corsage of white carnations.

For traveling the bride chose a brown and white jersey dress. Matching accessories completed her costume. She wore the orchid lifted from her Bible.

The bride is a graduate of John Graham High School and Wayne Community College. The bride has accepted a position with Dr. Sam Massey of Warrenton. The bridegroom is a graduate of Gold Sand High School and a senior at North Carolina State University.

Reception

Immediately following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Willie L. Norwood, parents of the bride, entertained at a reception in the church fellowship hall.
