

Johnson, Murphy Wed Friday

In a candlelight setting of simplicity and beauty Friday afternoon, July 4, at four o'clock Miss Betty Jean Murphy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Murphy of Route 3, Louisburg, and Sammy Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Johnson of Route 2, Louisburg, were united in marriage in Mount Zion Baptist Church. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, the Rev. Kenneth Huneycutt.

Music was rendered by Mrs. R. W. Gupton, organist, and Mr. Bruce Ayscue of Raleigh, vocalist. His selections included "Whither Thou Goest" by Singer and "Wedding Prayer" by Dunlay. "Bridal Chorus" from the opera "Lohengrin" by Wagner was used as a processional, and "Wedding March" from "A Midsummer Night's Dream" by Mendelssohn was used as the recessional.

MRS. SAMMY JOHNSON

Mrs. Linwood Murphy of Wendell, aunt of the bride, directed the wedding.

At the church altar a background for the wedding party was formed by floor standards of emerald fern, an arrangement of white gladioli, chrysanthemums, pompons and gypsophila, and candelabra holding burning cathedral candles. The family pews were marked by white satin bows.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her dress, designed by her mother, was street length having an empire bodice of lace featuring short lace sleeves. The skirt was of peau de soie. She wore a shoulder length veil of tulle. Her bridal bouquet was a cascade of white Frenched carnations and satin leaves in the center of which was a corsage of carnations. This was attached to a white Bible.

Attending as matron of honor was Mrs. Junious Harp of Shelby, sister of the bride. She wore a street length dress of pink linen and a matching headpiece of linen and tulle. She carried a single long-stemmed pink rose.

Serving as the groom's best man was Mr. Bert Dorsey. Ushers were Ronald Murphy and Donald Murphy of Raleigh, twin brothers of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a dress of pink silk linen with matching accessories. With this a pink cymbidium orchid corsage was worn.

Following the ceremony the bride's parents, the bride and groom, and the wedding party received in the vestibule of the church.

The couple will be at home on Route 3, Louisburg.

After Rehearsal Party

Mrs. P. G. Murphy, Sr., Miss Elizabeth Murphy and Mrs. F. E. Bowers entertained the honored couple, members of the bridal party and invited guests at a cake cutting at the Bowers home Thursday night.

Upon arrival the bride was pinned with a gardenia corsage.

The three tiered wedding cake, lime punch, nuts and mints were served from a dining table covered with a white hand-made cut work linen cloth. A flower arrangement of pink and white gladioli flanked by burning white tapers graced the table.

Backyard Barbeque Clean-Up

Love backyard barbecues but dread the messy clean-up afterwards? Cleaning the inside walls and the grill of your barbecue pit can be made less of a chore by using a few heavy duty products like those available from Amway of Ada.

Amway suggests a barbecue clean-up trio which includes stainless steel sponges, an all-purpose cleaning agent, and an invisible protective grill spray.

For best barbecuing results, be sure your barbecue pit is clean, and free of old, baked-on grease. A liquid organic cleaning concentrate makes quick work of this heavy cleaning job... with just a few drops and a cloth or sponge.

For those stubborn, baked-on stains, Amway suggests stainless steel sponges... ready to tackle hard-to-reach corners and crevices, especially on the grill.

And a grill spray with a dry coating, like that available from Amway is absolutely harmless in contact with foods. Spray on, wipe off—that's all there is to it... all for easy-clean happy barbecuing!

Marriage Announced

Miss Judy Kaye Horton will wed Claude Felton Cash, Jr. The engagement is announced by her mother, Mrs. Lillian Denton Horton of Louisburg. Mr. Cash is the son of Mr. Claude Felton Cash, Sr. of Louisburg and the late Mrs. Willie Mae Cash. An August 30 wedding is planned.

Easy Summer Casserole

Pert and bold are the California ripe olives that stand pointedly on the end of these stuffed frankfurters. Their meaty texture and dramatic dark accent add a unique emphasis to the rice and sour cream stuffing. For an informal supper, serve this frankfurter casserole with tomato salad and iced tea.

California ripe olives are the perfect warm weather food. As a quick snack, or as an ingredient in salads, sandwich fillings, sauces, or with meats and poultry, ripe olives add a delicious nut-like flavor. Good for calorie counters, too.

California Ripe Olive Frankfurter Casserole

1/2 cup canned pitted California ripe olives	1/4 teaspoon salt
1 1/2 cups cooked rice	2 teaspoons prepared mustard
1/3 cup commercial sour cream	12 frankfurters
2 teaspoons minced onion	6 slices processed American cheese

Preheat oven to 400° F. Cut ripe olives into chunks. Mix with next 5 ingredients. Split frankfurters lengthwise, cutting almost through. Arrange 6 frankfurters in shallow baking dish. Put about 1/3 cup ripe olive-rice mixture on each frankfurter. Top each with 1/2 slice of cheese. Cover with remaining frankfurters and cheese. Secure ends with toothpicks. Bake 10-15 minutes or until browned. Garnish with ripe olives. Makes 6 servings.

Engagement Announced

(Frk. B.W.) Mr. and Mrs. Julian Carr Pergerson, Sr. of Route 1, Franklinton, North Carolina, announce the engagement of their daughter, Dianne, to Mr. Junious Wilson House, son of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow House of Route 1, Franklinton, North Carolina. The wedding has been set for Saturday, August 23, 1969 at 6 o'clock at Popes Chapel United Church of Christ, Franklinton, North Carolina.

Health And Beauty

No undergarment in the world can create a lovely figure from a too-heavy body. Not only is it important to stay slim for appearance's sake, but also for the sake of your health.

Doctors have gone on record as saying that a person is far better off being a little underweight than overweight. Unless there is a real physical reason for excess weight, there is no excuse for allowing oneself to become fat.

Some individuals have a mental complex which causes them to overeat. This complex can be controlled once it is understood. A sensible diet, coupled with the right amount of exercise, can well be called the basis of good health and good looks.

Unfortunately, there are endless fad diets in circulation. Don't try any of these. When you have made up your mind that it is time for you to lose some weight, go to your family doctor. He will give you an examination and prescribe the kind of diet you need, and one that will be good for you.

Follow your doctor's advice as to the amount of weight to lose. It is safe for young children to be on a diet under a doctor's direction. However, a child should never be put on a diet unless a doctor has examined him and prescribed the diet list.

Births

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Moody of 403 Tanglewood Drive announce the birth of a daughter, Rachel Patricia, June 28th at Franklin Memorial Hospital. Mrs. Moody is the former Susan Treihart of Roxboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Green, Jr. of Raleigh announce the birth of a son, Peter Hobart, on July 4th, 1969.

Mrs. Green is the former Katherine Krieger of Wayne, Pa.

Just in Case

"Sorry to put you to the trouble of fetching water specially for me," said an English tourist who ordered whiskey in a Highland inn.

"Nae trouble at all," replied the host. "I always keep a drop on the premises in case of fire."

1969 Debutante

ELIZABETH ANNE GREEN

Miss Elizabeth Anne Green will make her formal bow to society at the 43rd annual North Carolina Debutante Ball, sponsored by the Terpsichorean Club, at the Memorial Auditorium in Raleigh on September 5th.

Miss Green is the daughter of Mrs. Baker B. Harrison of 905 North Main Street and the late Charles P. Green. She will be escorted by her brother, Charles P. Green, Jr. of Raleigh as chief marshal and Jonah C. Taylor, Jr., marshal.

A 1968 graduate of the high school department of St. Mary's College in Raleigh, Miss Green is a rising sophomore at Hollins College, Virginia.

green, shiny, three-leafed plant which usually doesn't grow more than a foot high. The milky, oily poison is exuded in far more formidable than the name suggests.

A good way to soothe the effects of poison ivy is to use a preparation that provides cooling relief. One such anti-histaminic drug, which also combats insect bites and mild sunburn, gives quick relief when applied to skin surfaces. Called Rhuilhist, it also acts as a local anesthetic to alleviate itching and burning sensations.

Motel-hopping in search of rooms is a real holiday dampener. Be sure to reserve rooms ahead of time—especially when you're traveling during the busy season. Most places reserve space by telephone, but will hold a room only until 5 or 6 p.m. unless you specify "late arrival". When you call, explain what kind of accommodations you want, how much you want to pay, and when you plan to arrive. If your plans change, make another call.

5. Be kind to your budget. Few things can ruin a trip as much as a shortage of cash. A picnic by the side of the road will cut your food costs. And in many states, picnic areas come equipped with outdoor grills. Cafeterias are less expensive than most restaurants and no tipping is required. A plug-in coffee maker with its own cups is a great convenience. If you pick up some fruit or canned juice and some rolls or doughnuts the night before, you can breakfast in your room.

Avoid These Five Vacation Spoilers

New York (NAPS) -- This is what you've been waiting for: your vacation! Now at last you can get away from work and begin to enjoy much-deserved leisure time. But hazards threaten even the best-planned holidays. And you may need another vacation immediately after you've had one, unless you take steps to protect your family and yourself. Here are five ways to prevent a trip from becoming a trap.

1. One of the worst spoilers is car trouble. It can be expensive, time-consuming, and dangerous. Have your car checked thoroughly before you leave home. Some points often overlooked are:

BRAKES - Are they too "soft"? Do they pull to the left or right?

STEERING WHEEL - Is there too much play?

WHEELS - Are they in balance? Are the tires in good condition?

WINDSHIELD WIPERS - Will they suddenly give you trouble on a rain-swept parkway?

RADIATOR - A mixture of water and a good rust inhibitor is the best coolant in hot weather.

FAN BELT - It's a good idea to carry a spare.

Carry sweets for a pep-up snack between meals, but don't try to guzzle even a soft drink behind the wheel.

2. You won't enjoy your vacation if you're worried about whether you turned off the gas. Take a few minutes to make a list of items to be turned off and services to be stopped before you go. Place valuables in a safe deposit box while you're gone. Let the police know you are leaving for a while and give a key to a friend or relative (but be sure to tell the police that he has a key). One thing which will tip off an experienced burglar that "hobdody's home" is a neglected lawn. If you plan to be gone for more than a week, make arrangements to have your lawn cut. Then you'll be ready to enjoy carefree holiday fun and relaxation.

3. Be prepared for and never underestimate the dangers of poison ivy. Nobody can be sure of being immune to its effects, which include stinging and itching blisters, and can mean disaster for vacationers. It is a dark,
