

Flat Rock, Scene Of Avett-Roberts Wedding

Miss Connie Paulette Roberts and Mr. James Ira Avett, III were united in marriage, Saturday at 4 p.m., in the Flat Rock Baptist Church. The Rev. Clegg Avett, uncle of the groom, and the Rev. Floyd Benfield, pastor of the bride, officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Roberts, Jr. of Youngville. The parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. James Avett, Jr. of Norwood, North Carolina.

The vows were said in a candlelight ceremony before an altar of palms trees, spiral candelabras and baskets of white glads, mums, and pom-poms.

A program of nuptial music was rendered by organist, Mrs. Clegg Avett of Rutherford College. Soloist, Mrs. Charles Pearce of Franklin, Virginia, sang "Whither Thou Goest", "Sweetest Story Ever Told", and "The Wedding Prayer".

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of imported silk organza over tafetta and re-embroidered Alencon lace. The empire bodice featured a scalloped neckline and short lace sleeves adorned in clusters of seed pearls. The empire line was adorned with a row of Alencon lace. The A-line skirt was entirely of imported silk organza over tafetta. The bride's chapel train attached at the shoulders under a row of Alencon lace. The bride's bouffant veil of white illusion was attached to petals of imported silk organza trimmed in seed pearls and Alencon lace.

Miss Debbie Roberts was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a floor length dress of yellow whipped cream which featured an empire waistline accented by lace and ribbon. She wore a yellow garden hat trimmed in daisies and carried a cascade bouquet of marguerite daisies with green ribbon streamers.

Bridesmaids were Miss Donna Dilday of Belhaven, North Carolina, Mrs. Benny Gay of Zebulon, Miss Jenny

MRS. JAMES IRA AVETT, III

Wiggins of Louisburg, and Miss Sandra Hill of Youngville. Miss Ellen Lee of Raleigh, niece of the groom, was junior bridesmaid. They wore dresses identical to the honor attendant.

Miss Lou Ann Cash of Raleigh was flower girl. Her dress was identical to the other attendants and she carried a white basket of daisies. Ring bearer was Tommy Cash of Raleigh, cousin of the bride.

Mr. James Avett, Jr., father of the groom, served as best man. The ushers were Mr. Jimmy Lee of Raleigh and Dr. William Bazemore of Chapel Hill, brothers-in-law of the groom, Mr. Jerry Roberts of Youngville, brother of the bride, Mr. Johnny Gibson of Boone, North Carolina, Mr. Jimmy Pate of Roland, North Carolina, and Mr. Chester Lowder of Norwood, North Carolina. Junior usher, was Anthony Cash of Wake Forest, cousin of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Roberts chose a mint green, sleeveless dress with matching lace coat and accessories. She wore a white orchid corsage.

The groom's mother wore a two piece pink dress with matching accessories and a white orchid corsage.

The bride is a graduate of Youngville High School. She is presently a student at Rex Hospital School of Nursing in Raleigh.

The groom is a graduate of South Stanly High School in Norwood, North Carolina, and is a senior at North Carolina State University.

After a wedding trip to Williamsburg, Virginia, the couple will reside in Raleigh, North Carolina.

Reception

Immediately following the wedding the bride's parents entertained at a reception in the fellowship room of the church. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cash, aunt and uncle of the bride, welcomed the guests and introduced them to the receiving line composed of the bridal couple, their parents and honor attendants.

Mrs. Bill Bazemore, sister of the groom, served the cake after the bride and groom had cut the first slice. Miss York Kiker invited the guest to the refreshment table where a four tiered wedding cake, ribbon sandwiches, ham biscuits and mints were served. Punch was poured by Mrs. Jimmie Lee, sister of the groom. The serving table was covered with a nylon lace tablecloth over antique satin. The arrangement in the center was a five branch silver candelabra with an epergne of yellow daisies, white pompons and yellow pompons. The corners of the table were caught up with yellow and white satin ribbon with a cluster of bells. The table also held clusters of lilies of the valley.

After Rehearsal Party

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Wiggins, and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Roberts entertained the honored couple, attendants and guests at a party in the Community House in Youngville Friday evening. A yellow and white color scheme was used in decorating.

Refreshments included pineapple sherbert punch, bridal cakes, mints and nuts.

His Choice

Visitor: "You don't mean to tell me that you have lived in the out-of-the-way place for over 30 years?"

Inhabitant: "I have."

Visitor: "But, really, I cannot see what you find to keep you busy."

Inhabitant: "Neither can I - that's why I like it!"

Garner, Chamblee Speak Vows

The marriage of Miss Belinda Kay Chamblee and Mr. William Percy Garner was solemnized Saturday, June 28 in the Emmanuel Baptist Church, Raleigh. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Edward Chamblee of 3315 Starmount Drive, Raleigh and the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Jeffreys, Sr. of Route 1, Louisburg, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Lee Garner of Selma.

The 7:30 o'clock double-ring ceremony was officiated by the Rev. L. D. Holt, pastor of the bride.

Prior to the ceremony, nuptial music was presented by Mrs. H. S. Yarborough of Raleigh. Mr. H. S. Yarborough sang "Because", "Entreat Me Not to Leave Thee" and for the benediction "The Wedding Prayer".

The wedding vows were said before an altar of a candelabra service, with two Trinity gracefully curve with flower design on them. Two precession, spiral candelabra with tree palms and spray palms and baskets flanked either side of the church. Candlelight and magnolia blossom decorated all church windows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white satin organza wedding ring neckline, lavished with pearls and encrusted Alencon lace, with extravagance extended to long fitted sleeves.

Her fingertip veil of imported silk illusion was attached to a crown of matching lace petals embellished with crystal leaves and crystal tear drops which were attached to the end of each lace petal. The illusion veil was edged with pearls and crystals. Her traditional bouquet was of miniature carnations, stephanotis and white hearts centered with two white orchids.
