On Arms Race

Brussels - Diplomats report West European member nations of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization are all for Moscow and Washington trying to halt the arms race, but they fear the United States may trade away their security.

Space And Oceanography

Seattle - Two scientists of the Naval Oceanographic Office said that ventures into space have revealed oceanic features on a huge scale not previously imagined by man. Improved satellites will be launched with even finer instruments expected to reveal more secrets beneath the oceans.

Indian Ruins Found

Charleston, S. C. - Dr. Stanly South, an archaeologist working for the state Tricentennial Commission, has uncovered what he believes are the remains of a 17th Century Indian village on the banks of the Ashley River. So far, he has found pieces of pottery, a grave site, bones and a wall line.

Wild Tank Ride

Mainz, Germany - A U. S. Army private took a tank from his Rhineside base recently and drove through the streets and demolished eight parked cars and the tank. The motive of the New York private has not been revealed.
