

Sunday Rites Unite Couple

The marriage of Miss Barbara Louise McArthur of Wakulla to Captain Wilson Ray of Franklinton and Bangkok, Thailand was solemnized on Sunday, July 27 at four o'clock. The vows were spoken in Trinity United Methodist church, Red Springs, to the Rev. Russell S. Harrison and the Rev. Allen C. Lee, also of Red Springs. Mr. J. H. Gwinn of Maxton was organist, and Miss Ellen Conolly of Raeford soloist. Selections included "Whither Thou Goest", "O Lord Most Holy", and "The Wedding Prayer."

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Patrick McArthur of Wakulla are parents of the bride, and Captain Ray is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Archie Ray of Franklinton. Mr. McArthur gave his daughter in marriage.

The bride wore a gown of white silk organza with pearl and sequin embroidered peau-d' Ange lace in empire design. The front was A-line with lace applique on the bodice, and with a jewel neckline and short teacup sleeves. The neckline dipped in back and held the all lace cage which extended to full chapel length. Her bouffant veil of illusion fell from a coron of organza fully embroidered with seed pearls. She carried a traditional cascade bouquet of stephanotis and carnations centered with a white orchid.

Honor attendants for the bride were her sisters, Miss Betty McArthur and Mrs. James K. Horne, both of Wakulla. They wore floor length A-line gowns in sweet pink of empire design, accented at the neckline, sleeves, and on the back panels with white Venice lace threaded with pink satin ribbon. They wore picture hats in matching color, and carried colonial style bouquets of mixed summer flowers tied with matching streamers.

Bridesmaids were Miss Patsy Ray of Franklinton, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Millie Lou Phillips of Santa Fe, New Mexico, Miss Mary Ann Padgett of Fayetteville, Miss Sylvia McArthur and Mrs. John H. McArthur, III of Wakulla, all cousins of the bride; and Miss Margaret Hamlet of Pittsboro, Mrs. John Kearns of Thomasville, Mrs. Eddie O'Brian of Fayetteville, Miss Pamela Overstreet of Red Springs, and Mrs. Peter J. Hauser of Raleigh. Their blue gowns and hats were styled identically like those of the honor attendants, and they carried spring-time baskets of summer flowers.

Best man was Harvey Bounds of Red Springs, uncle of the bridegroom. Ushers were Lawrence Bounds of Raeford, Howard Bounds of Marion, and Jack Bounds of Red Springs, all uncles of the bridegroom; and Jimmy McNeill of Fayetteville, Don Brown of St. Pauls, Wade Lindsay, Jr., Donald Hall, and C. P. Hyatt of Red Springs, cousins of the bridegroom; and James K. Horne and John H. McArthur III of Wakulla, and Tommy McSwain of Southern Pines.

MRS. WILSON RAY

Little Miss Angela Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hall of Red Springs was the flower girl and carried a white lace basket filled with rose petals. Ring bearer was Master Chris Buie, cousin of the bride, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Buie of Greensboro.

The ceremony took place in a formal setting before a brass arch holding fifteen candles and a sunburst of gladioli and chrysanthemums. Spiral candelabra stood at each side, and two nine branch candelabra held flowers. Pedestal bouquets were used on either side of the church.

The mother of the bride wore a street length dress of mint lace and on it a white orchid corsage. Captain Ray's mother wore blue, and also wore a white orchid.

Captain and Mrs. Ray left Sunday night for Nassau.

Miss Roberts Is Married

The marriage vows of Miss Iris Jane Roberts and James Washington Pegram, were solemnized in a candlelight wedding ceremony Sunday, July 27, 1969 in North Street Baptist Church, Raleigh, N. C. The double-ring ceremony was conducted by the Rev. Parks Harris.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Kathy Perkins, organist and Toby Druin, Soloist, both of Raleigh, N. C. Mr. Druin sang "I Love Thee", "Whither Thy Goest", and Dunlap's "Wedding Prayer". The traditional marches were used.

The altar was decorated with two seven ranch candelabra and one large basket of white gladioli, against a background of palms, with a kneeling bench.

Mrs. John W. Holder, Jr. of Raleigh directed the wedding.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Lee Roberts, Jr., of Franklinton, N. C. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Israel W. Pegram of Wilmington, N. C.

Given in marriage by her father, Julius L. Roberts, Jr. of Franklinton, N. C., the bride wore a gown of bouquet taffeta accented with alencon lace. It was fashioned with a portrait neckline, bell shape skirt and wateau back with a detachable train. Her veil was attached to a double crown of alencon lace, trimmed with pearls and crystals. She wore cultured pearl earrings, gift of the bridegroom. Her bouquet was of white mums with sprays of baby breath dotted throughout - centered with a white hybrid orchid with streamers of lilies of valleys.

Miss Pamela Rose Radford of Franklinton was maid of honor. She was attired in a floor length gown of blue taffeta with empire waist line with attached train from the back of the shoulders. She carried a bouquet of yellow mums.

Miss Susan Frey, Miss Frankie Everett of Raleigh were bridesmaids. They were gowned identical fashion of the maid of honor.

Best man was Israel W. Pegram, father of the groom,

MRS. JAMES W. PEGRAM

from Wilmington, N. C.

Bill Vaughan of Raleigh, Bill Hight of Louisburg were ushers.

Mrs. Roberts wore for her daughter's wedding a dress of blue knit with matching accessories, with a white carnation corsage.

The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of light blue lace with matching accessories and a white carnation corsage.

For travel the bride changed to a pink linen dress with matching accessories and lifted the orchid from her bouquet.

After a wedding trip the couple will reside at 809 Glenwood Avenue, Raleigh, N. C.

The bride is a graduate of Franklinton High School. She is employed by Dr. K. L. Johnson and the bridegroom is employed by the Raleigh Police Department.

CAKE CUTTING

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Holder, Jr. entertained the bride and groom at their home July 26 for their cake cutting after rehearsal. Members of the wedding party were present.

The decorations - a silver candelabra was used for the table's centerpiece. It consisted of white gladioli and mums with green lace ferns. The three tiered wedding cake was at one end and the punch bowl at the opposite.

The mantel was banked in ivory and the traditional bride and groom was in the
