Sour Cream's The Clue!

Can't make head or tail of fish cookery? Here's a hint from the Borden Kitchen. Stuff a generous-size whitefish with bread cubes sparkled to high flavor by sour cream and spices.

Sour Cream Stuffed Fish

(Makes 6 servings)

- | | |
|---------------------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| 1 (3-lb.) whitefish, dressed | 2 cups (1 pint) Borden sour cream |
| Salt and pepper | 3 tablespoons diced, peeled lemon |
| 5 tablespoons Danish Flavor Margarine | 1-1/4 teaspoons grated lemon rind |
| 1/2 cup chopped celery | 1 teaspoon salt |
| 1/3 cup chopped onion | 3/4 teaspoon paprika |
| 3 cups toasted bread cubes | 2 egg yolks |

Wash, dry and season fish. Melt 2 tablespoons margarine; saute celery and onion. Mix lightly with bread cubes, 1/2 cup sour cream, diced lemon, 1 teaspoon grated lemon rind, 3/4 teaspoon salt and paprika. Stuff fish; close cavity with skewers and string. In a well-buttered (13-1/2 x 9 x 2-inch) baking dish, place remaining stuffing; add fish. Brush fish with 2 tablespoons melted margarine. Bake in moderate (350°F.) oven 30-40 minutes. Baste 2 or 3 times until fish flakes when fork-tested. In double-boiler top, over hot water, heat 1-1/2 cups sour cream. In small mixing bowl, lightly beat egg yolks; beat in a little hot sour cream. Pour into sour cream in double-boiler. Cook 6 to 8 minutes; stir constantly until thickened. Add 1/4 teaspoon each salt and lemon rind. Remove fish to serving platter; remove skewers. Serve with cream sauce.

Curry Flavor With Chicken

Leftovers needn't be lackluster... a new twist, a creative touch and abracadabra they're better than their first time round the family dinner table. Here curried chicken or turkey is delicately sauced with plain Swiss-style yogurt, deliciously cupped in big red apples. For a light lunch, the Borden Kitchen suggests ten big flaky biscuits as serve-alongs.

Apples Stuffed With Curried Chicken Salad

(Makes 6 servings)

- | | |
|---|---|
| 6 red delicious apples | 1 teaspoon curry powder |
| 1/4 cup reconstituted lemon juice | 1 cup (8-oz. container) Borden Swiss style plain yogurt |
| 2-1/2 cups diced cooked chicken or turkey | 1/2 cup heavy cream, whipped |
| 1 cup diced celery | Salt and pepper to taste |
| 1 tablespoon chopped fresh dill | |

Cut a thin slice off the blossom end of each apple so it will stand upright; dip in lemon juice to prevent discoloration. With a sharp knife, cut around near the stem end of each apple saw-tooth fashion. Scoop and cut out apple centers, dipping each in lemon juice. Reserve cut out fruit for salad; discard cores. Chill in refrigerator. Dice reserved apple; place in large bowl. Sprinkle with lemon juice. Add chicken or turkey, celery and dill; mix well. In a small bowl, combine curry powder and yogurt; blend well. Fold in whipped cream. Gently pour dressing into the apple-chicken mixture. Toss lightly. Season with salt and pepper to taste. Chill thoroughly in refrigerator. Spoon salad-mixture into apple cups. If desired, garnish with fresh dill.

Fiat Rock

Mrs. Elizabeth Guzzelli, formerly of the Flat Rock Community, has returned home from a hospital in South Bound Brook, N. J.

In Fashion

A prominent designer is trying to lengthen skirts this season. Many of his new creations are several inches below the knee. However, some of these long skirts are split up the front or sides which show more of the leg. This same designer also has a number of short skirts in his showing.

The length of the skirt should rest with the individual according to age and shape of the woman. The lovely Ginger Rogers wears her skirt just below the knee.

With longer skirts, heels to shoes will become higher.

Crocheted hats and caps will be the vogue this fall. Tight little caps reminiscent of the nineteen twenties are back in style.

Colorful slacks and cardigans of wool are companion pieces. Plaid slacks or skirts with solid color, sleeveless jackets are worn with blouses of still another color.

If one prefers a large hat there are a number of styles to select from. Wide brims slightly turned up on the back and sides are smart.

The Lesser Evil

A little boy running down the street turned a corner suddenly and bumped into a man.

"My goodness," said the man, "where are you running so fast?"

"Home," replied the lad, "and I'm in a hurry because my mother is going to spank me."

"In a hurry because your mother is going to spank you?" said the startled man. "Are you so anxious to get a spanking, that you run home for it?"

"No," was the logical reply, "but if I don't get home before my father gets there, he'll do it!"

Pants Looks For Fall

STYLISH—Pinwale cotton corduroy in a giant plaid turns up in fall's newest look: the bush jacket over cuffed pants. By Ardee of California, it comes in black and white or brown, mustard, and black plaid.

"SUNRISE-TO-SUNSET WOOLS" MARK WEST-DRESSED FASHION FUTURE have been tested and approved by the Wool Bureau as "the world's best... pure wool."

Pattern and texture play heroic parts in the forthcoming coat-suit-and-dress picture. Coats sport magnified blanket plaids, stained-glass effects, window-pane checks or hyper-herringbone patterns, and are frequently contrast-bordered or fringe-detailed.

Single and double-knit styles out of the west are cantering into every fashion-conscious corner of Woolmark quality men's and women's wear, including coats, suits, jumpsuits, dresses, Machine-Washable sweaters, Machine-Washable slacks, sportswear and evening clothes. In addition, there are new innovations in a fast-growing group of "weather-or-not" wardrobes designed cover-all-style as rainsuits, Midcoast-plus-dress, or cape-plus-pants ensembles—and all propelled by a fresh fashion impulse to project the trend-setting power of pure wool knitwear far beyond the immediate future.

And fashion's future is secure—at all points on the compass—as seen in the latest collections of "Sunrise-to-Sunset Wools" imaginatively guided into high gear for at-home wear or transonic travel.

NEW YORK (ED) — Fashion soars toward the Seventies in a refreshingly candid, clearly stated, "Adult Western" style heralding the arrival of Fall/Winter '69 Woolmark Collections by leading west coast designers.

Trend-jetting silhouettes are launched in a new group of "Sunrise-to-Sunset Wools" artfully programmed to capture a contemporary, time-tunnel view of the Twenties' cheerful "Charleston" days—or project a sleek, futuristic flair—in architecturally mitered abstract prints, spirited plaids parlayed with subtle checks, or masterfully woven monochrome pure wool fabrics that offer designers an opportunity to create fashion effects never before possible.

A vast and versatile range of weights, textures, patterns and constructions in woollens and worsteds—from soft, sinuous 3-ounce jersey and light-truck "Naked Wool" challis, to heavier, double-face fleeces or triple-woven gabardine—provides the media fashion designers from coast-to-coast find most receptive to color, drape-ability or interpretive styling, and most consistently retentive in top-quality performance.

In constant command of quality—the Woolmark, an internationally recognized quality control emblem, is a consumer's assurance that fashions bearing the sewn-in Woolmark label

Distaff Deeds

Never Be Discouraged

A good motto for Extension home economists might be "never be discouraged," observes Jessie Ann Wingo, home economics Extension agent, Cleveland County.

Two years ago Miss Wingo helped a homemaker select drapery fabric for her son's room. This week the homemaker finally got around to buying the lining fabric and selecting her drapery rods.

"It looks as though the draperies might be hung by the end of the summer," the agent says.

Summer Coolers

When your children come home thirsty for a cool refresher, you can serve them nutritious snacks right from your freezer, Mrs. Mary J. Whitmore, assistant home economics Extension agent, Durham County, points out.

Instead of spending extra money on ready-prepared refreshments, mothers can easily freeze fruit juices into popcicles and delicious frozen desserts, the agent asserts.

A favorite with many youngsters is the frozen "ice drink" that can be made at home by freezing a fruit juice to a semi-solid state and blending to a very fine consistency, Mrs. Whitmore says.

Right Canning Methods

"My green beans have been processed in a pressure canner so you know they are safe to eat," Mrs. Forrest Greene, Chadboron, told Extension home economics agent, Mrs. Elaine Blake.

After hearing a discussion of proper canning methods at a meeting and after reading a news article on the same topic, Mrs. Greene decided to heed the advice.

She took her canner out of storage and used it for beans

If you owe local merchants small items make a point to pay them up and keep your credit on a worthwhile basis.

for the first time in several years, the agent noted.

The pressure canner is used when canning low-acid foods such as green beans to be sure of killing bacteria that cause dangerous spoilage, the agent adds.

Home Worth Sacrifice

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Jones of the Pleasant Grove community, Alamance County, are convinced that a family can have a new house with modern conveniences if they are willing to sacrifice and work toward this goal.

That's how they got their new six-room brick house, Mrs. Ozetta P. Guye, home economics Extension agent, notes.

The Jones family raised a garden and conserved their food supply. They froze hogs, chickens and beef. Mrs. Jones made and remodeled garments for family members and the family saved what they could from the sale of their tobacco crop. Their savings, plus a FHA loan, made the goal of a new house a reality, the agents point out.
