Shower Honors Ruth Mercer Circles Meet Bride-elect

Miss Gracie Mae Bryant, bride-elect of James Truman Cooke, was honored at a China shower, Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Williams. The house was decorated with pink and yellow streamers hanging from the ceiling. Miss Bryant was presented china in her choice of pat-

Punch, cookies, chicken salad, nuts and potato chips were served. The guests consisted of the mother of the bride-elect, Mrs. Sylvester Bryant and mother of the groom-to-be, Mrs. Kenneth Cooke.

With so many beauty contests every year, it is getting to be hard to discover a likely looking young lady who has not been a beauty queen.

(FRK. B.W.) Ruth Mercer Circle of the Franklinton Methodist Church met at the Educational Building on Thursday evening. In the absence of the chairman, Mrs. Ormond Collins presided over the meeting. Minutes of the previous meeting were read by Mrs. C. H. Weston, A financial report Mrs. Phil Frankwas given by Mrs. Phil Frank-lin Whitfield. She announced that part of the yearly pledge should be paid by December first.

Flowers were assigned for the month of September for the church sanctuary.

Mrs. Woodrow Haskins, local Woman's Club president, announced that the Dis-trict Woman's Club meeting would be held at the local Methodist Church on October

24. She asked the group if they would be willing to serve the luncheon. The group voted to serve the luncheon with the provision that all the local Methodist Women be included. Mrs. Phil Whitfield was in charge of the program en-titled -"Profile of An Involved Woman." Mrs. E. A. Har-ris, Jr. assisted with the pres-entation of the program which was about the ex-periences of Mrs. John C. Bennett.

Besides being the wife of the president of Union Theological Seminary, Mrs. Bennett works to bring about peace, social justice and recognition of the unity of all persons. The activities of Mrs.

Bennett pointed out that she was creative, critical and courageous. She is a woman who responds to challenges, with issues and struggles keeps trying. The program was opened and closed with the singing of a hymn. The hostesses, Mrs. Ella Coulter and Mrs. Walter W. Cooke, served watermelon during the social hour.

Spring Hope

Mrs. Walter Cooke of Spring Hope spent a few days in Atlanta, Ga. with her family. She went especially at this time to see her new grandaughter born to Mr. and Mrs. William Parker. They have one other child, Lisa Lynn.

In Fashion

With fall weather just around the corner the shops are showing warm clothes for the college women and for all those women who plan their wardrobes ahead of the sea-

Two long pants suits shown are most attractive-one of suede with the long overblouse sporting a chain belt and the other of tweed with a sashed wrap-over coat. Boots are good with both of these suits.

Scarfs are very popular--they may be short or long enough to reach the hemline of the skirt. Colored wool scarfs or white silk go with appropriate costumes avored with nutritious peanuts and honey!

THE FRANKLIN TIMES Peanut Brownies

Golden Peanut Brownies have the sum toney! "bee" licious honey. Smooth, creamy peanut butter is blended in for extra protein. Chopped peanuts add crunchy texture. These brownies are easy to prepare and can be made by youngsters themselves on a day when summer rain brings play indoors indoors. They keep well - brownies are a perfect picnic and outdoor party food. They ship well, too, and both men in service and youngsters at summer camp welcome a package of baked goods from home

Each chewy bite of a Peanut Brownie is as healthy as it is flavorful with the nutritional Bonus of enriched flour. At no cost to you, three essential B-vitamins, thiamine, niacin and riboflavin and the mineral, iron, have been added during milling.

PEANUT BROWNIES

16 cookies 1 cup enriched flour* 1% teaspoons baking powder 1/2 teaspoon salt ¼ cup honey 2 eggs

¼ cup sugar

1 cup salted cocktail peanuts, chopped Combine flour, baking powder and salt. In a separate bowl, mix together sugar, peanut butter and honey until smooth. Beat in eggs, one at a time; gradually add flour mixture. Stir in peanuts. Spread in greased 9-inch square pan. Bake in preheated 350° oven 20 to 25 minutes, or until cookies begin to shrink from sides of pan. Cool 15 minutes. Cut into squares.

Cool completely before removing from pan.

*Spoon flour into dry measuring cup; level. Do not scoop. NOTE: If self-rising flour is used, omit baking powder and salt
