

House, Pergerson Speak Vows

(FRK. B.W.) Miss Dianne Pergerson became the bride of Junious Wilson House Saturday, August 23, at six o'clock in Popes Chapel United Church of Christ. The Reverend T. N. Daughtry, pastor of the bride, officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julian Carr Pergerson of Franklinton. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Wilson House, also of Franklinton.

Nuptial music was rendered by Mrs. Bobby Winstead, organist, of Franklinton, and Mrs. Richard Holmes, soloist, of Louisburg. Mrs. Holmes sang, "The Sweetest Story Ever Told", "The Hawaiian Wedding Song", and "The Wedding Prayer."

MRS. JUNIOUS WILSON HOUSE

The vows were spoken underneath an arch with a background of emerald palms. Arch candelabra with burning white tapers were used on either side of the Arch. A basket of white gladiolus, chrysanthemums, and greenery was used in front of each candelabra. Small clusters of white flowers and white satin streamers marked the pews.

Given in marriage by her father, Mr. Julian Pergerson, the bride wore a formal gown of lace featuring a natural waistline and long sleeves coming to a point over the hands. The full skirt was formed by tiers of lace and falling to a chapel length train in the back. Both the scalloped neckline and the tiers of the skirt were accented with sequins. Her elbow length bouffant veil of illusion was attached to a head piece of lace trimmed with seed pearls and accented by a white satin bow. She carried a bouquet of pompon chrysanthemums with white streamers and centered with a white hybrid orchid.

Following the reception, the couple left for a wedding trip to unannounced points, after which they will make their home at 821 Olive Place, Cary.

For her going away outfit, the bride chose a light blue and white knit dress with navy accessories. She wore the white orchid lifted from her bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of Franklinton High School and Louisburg College where she was a member of the Glee Club and Phi Beta Lambda Business Fraternity. She is employed as a secretary with IBM Corporation at the Research Triangle Park.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Franklinton High School and Hardbarger's Business College. He is employed with the State of North Carolina in Raleigh.
