Government In Black

Figures released recently by the Treasury Department and Bureau of the Budget showed the federal government had a $3.1 billion budget surplus for the fiscal year ending June 30th. It was the first surplus registered since 1960.

Simply Wonderful Bean Stuffings

Start with a can of beans and a can of tomato sauce. Add your favorite "stuffable" and have a steaming hot, gourmet dinner waiting for your fisherman when he comes wading out of the stream. If he's had a good day, the catch goes simply wonderfully with your "stuffed with beans" menu. If the big ones got away your bean course is hearty enough to serve as an entree. Of course, you don't need a rod and reel or a rushing river to try stuffed zucchini, eggplant or apple. The backyard barbecue serves just as well, or, if a sudden summer shower looms, just move stuffings and stuffs back into the house. Hot, hot Kona or Colombian coffee goes well with these.

EGGPLANT WITH GARBANZO BEAN STUFFING

- 1 medium sized eggplant
  - 1 Tbsp. butter
  - 1/4 lb. ground lamb
  - 1 egg yolk, lightly beaten with fork
  - 2 Tbsp. heavy cream
  - 1 15 1/2 oz. can (approx. 1 1/4 cups) S&W Garbanzo Beans, drained, reserve 1/4 cup liquid
  - 2 Tbsp. dried parsley
  - 1/4 tsp. dried mint
  - Salt and Pepper, to taste
- SLICE eggplant in half lengthwise and scoop out center. Save center and cut into pieces.
- SAUTE lamb in butter until lightly browned. Add eggplant pieces and cook until eggplant is slightly transparent, then add beans.
- MIX egg yolk and cream; add liquid from beans. Pour over bean mixture.
- SEASON with parsley, mint, salt and pepper. (Simmer and stir 3 minutes.)
- SPOON mixture into cavity of eggplant.
- WRAP each eggplant half in aluminum foil. Place on barbecue grill and cook until eggplant is soft.
- SPRINKLE with paprika.

Also in photo: avocado stuffed with chili beans, apple stuffed with baked beans, pepper stuffed with barbecue beans, zucchini stuffed with red kidney beans.

Job Corps Gives Local Youth New Opportunity

Joe, dressed neatly in a blue shirt and dark pants, spoke softly about his family, his ambitions and his reasons for dropping out of school.

Across the desk from him sat Mrs. Salam F. Tompkins, listening intently to the youth's words. Occasionally she would stop the youth, probe the question at hand, and take some notes.

Joe was applying for Job Corps training, and Mrs. Tompkins was helping to recruit him. Her title is Job Corps Counselor, and she works for the State Department of Social Services.

Joe is a typical case that Mrs. Tompkins and the ten other Job Corps Counselors that cover the State come in contact with daily. He is only one of the approximately 40 per cent of students that drop out of North Carolina's public schools yearly.

During the fiscal year ending June 30, 1969, 2,511 North Carolina male youths between 16 and 21 years of age applied for enrollment in Job Corps, North Carolina maintained the national enrollment rate.

Reports from the State Department of Social Services show 23 male youths from Franklin County were enrolled in Job Corps Centers as of July 1, 1969. During the past 48 months 93 male youths from this county reported to Job Corps Centers. Of that number 19 resigned before 90 days, 29 after 90 days but did not graduate, and 22 graduated.

Mrs. Tompkins assists applicants in filling out their application and administers a verbal matching test and a short written test to determine whether the applicant would go to a conservation camp or an urban camp.

Applicants face a maximum of 3 weeks waiting period while forms are processed in the Regional Office. After they are officially accepted into the program, Mrs. Tompkins will receive trans-to dress neatly and speak clearly. He will be given instruction on how to approach an employer and seek a job. A new self-confidence will be built in him, making him a valuable asset to the community and to himself.

He will be at the center until he completes his job training and graduates from the program. He will then either enter an on-the-job training program in industry or take a position in his field of training.

While he is at the center, he will earn $30 a month for spending money, and $50 a month will be saved for him toward the time he graduates.

The Job Corps is open to young men and women between the ages of 16 and 21, who are out of school, unable to find an adequate job, and in need of a change of environment to become useful and productive citizens.

Mrs. Tompkins can be contacted at 2427 Wycliff Road, Raleigh, N. C. 27609, or Franklin County Department of Social Services, Louisburg, N. C.

Mrs. Tompkins is not responsible for recruiting female Job Corps applicants, but she can provide interested persons with information on where to apply.

portation tickets for them to the center where they are assigned.

Once at the center, an applicant's life will take on a rapid pace, molding him for a future with business opportunities. He will take part in a physical fitness program to strengthen his body, he will work toward a high school diploma, he will take part in recreational programs with boys his own age and he will enter a job-training program.

At the center he will learn

It has gotten to the point nowadays that unless you took your own horn no one else toots it.

EXPO '70

JAPAN WORLD EXPOSITION OSAKA 1970

Furukawa Exhibition

A seven-story pagoda, a modern replica of an ancient Buddhist pagoda, standing 282 feet in height, will be the exhibition site for 32 Japanese companies at EXPO '70, Osaka, Japan. Their exhibition will be entitled the Furukawa exhibition.

The theme of the exhibition will be "Dreams of ancient and modern Japan: The Seven-Story Pagoda of the Todaiji Temple and Computopia."

The pagoda itself will be a reproduction of the one which once dominated the compound of the Todaiji Temple, noted for its Great Buddha, in Nara. It was originally built in the 8th century but later destroyed. Its modern replica hence symbolizes the dreams of antiquity.

Beneath it there will be an exhibition hall, the Computopia exhibition hall, where the most up-to-date electronic equipment will be displayed. In contrast to the dreams of antiquity, the Computopia exhibit will embody the dreams of modern Japan with its emphasis on the computer which has revolutionized modern society and opened new vistas.

The remote past and the ultra-modern, this theme will highlight the Furukawa exhibition of 32 Japanese companies.

WHAT ABOUT THE CHILDREN WHEN YOU MOVE?

• CHILDREN'S ATTITUDE TOWARD A MOVE REFLECTS THAT OF THE PARENTS. A PROPER APPROACH BY MOTHER AND FATHER WILL EMPHASIZE THE HAPPY OUTLOOK FOR THE NEW HOME, EXCITING ASPECTS OF THE MOVE ITSELF.

• HOWEVER, DON'T LET THE KIDS GET UNDERFOOT ON MOVING DAY. IT IS IN YOUR INTEREST -- AND THAT OF YOUR POCKETBOOK -- TO LET THE MOVING CREW GO ABOUT THEIR JOB FREELY AND UNIMPEDED.

• MANY PSYCHOLOGISTS POINT TO BENEFITS OF MOVING DURING THE SCHOOL YEAR. IT SPEEDS MAKING OF FRIENDS AND IT HELPS ADJUSTMENT BY LETTING THE CHILD MOVE INTO AN ACTIVE, BUSY ENVIRONMENT.
