An old foe comes to town Friday night in the Norlina Blue Waves and the Louisburg Bulldogs, flushed with a 40-0 win last week are standing at the ready. Norlina dropped its opener 32-12, according to reports. The Waves scored once in the first period and once in the fourth.

The Waves and the locals have been meeting since 1958—one year after Louisburg started football. Norlina holds a winning edge, having won six of the eleven. The Waves hit the Bulldogs hardest in 1959 at Fox Park when they took a 46-0 rout. Louisburg gained some measure of revenge in 1962 by taking a 37-0 victory.

Last year, at Norlina, Louisburg perhaps gained their most satisfying win. In a nailbiter, the locals grabbed a 13-12 win on an extra point pass. But in gaining the win, Louisburg lost All East Thomas Finch for most of the season.

Veteran Norlina Coach Bob Price has said his charges "are very inexperienced this year." "We are hoping that we will have a few surprises. The boys are looking forward to the season and are working hard."

Price has 14 lettermen back—but only three regulars. These are back Mike Seaman and linemen John Rooker and Jerry Stallings.

Last season Norlina won three games and lost seven. The Waves tied with Murfreesboro, 13-13 in the season finale. Norlina defeated Davie, Littleton and Franklinton last season.

The Bulldogs are healthy and will be tapering off their drills tonight. Game time Friday is 8 P.M.

Louis Wheless Wins Henderson Golf Tourney

From the Henderson Daily Dispatch

Although down by five strokes after 27 holes of the scheduled 36, iron-nerved Louis Wheless, Jr., of Louisburg, was unshaken and went on to turn back the stiff challenge from Henderson's Ronnie Hobgood for the championship in the fourth annual Kerr Lake Country Club Invitational Golf Tournament Sunday.

Wheless, the Louisburg insurance man who has grabbed a lion's share of trophies in Henderson links action during the past two years, finished with a 148 in the two-day medal play tournament. Hobgood, a Henderson high school senior who made a quick weekend switch from football to golf attire, earned runner-up laurels with a 152. Before taking to the golf course Saturday, and Sunday, Hobgood was a key figure at the quarterback post in Henderson high's season-opening football victory over Smithfield-Selma Friday night.

Jimmy Brummitt of Henderson grabbed third place in the tournament, two strokes behind Hobgood with a 154.

Wheless, Hobgood and Brummitt in that order also were first-day leaders in Saturday's opening round and continued out front yesterday in the field of some 80 golfers.

The Louisburg contender in last year's Kerr Lake Invitational was co-champion with C. G. Williams, Jr. of Henderson, when darkness prevented completion of a playoff for the crown. However, Wheless in effect settled the issue by returning this year to wrap up sole ownership of the 1969 title. Williams took sixth place in the championship flight yesterday with a 159.

Wheless was forced to stage an uphill comeback to overcome Hobgood's challenge. The champ posted a one-over-par 73 for the first 18 holes Saturday, while Hobgood scored a 74, followed by Brummitt with 75.

On the front nine of the finals Sunday, Hobgood fired a sizzling 34, two under par and the best nine-hole tally of the tournament. Wheless had a 40 and Hobgood spurted into a five-stroke lead at the three-quarter mark.

However, with ice in his veins Wheless settled down to a one-below par 35 on the back nine, which saw Hobgood soar to 44.

Coming in, both leaders parred No. 10 and Wheless picked up one stroke of his deficit on No. 11 when Hobgood had a bogey five. Both got par on No. 12. On the next hole, the champ bagged a birdie four and Hobgood again bogeyed, cutting his margin by two more.

After both bogeyed No. 14, Wheless steadied for a par four on No. 15 and regained the lead for keeps when Hobgood broke for a triple bogey seven. On the 17th hole, Wheless locked up the title when he scored a birdie two, placing his tee shot inside the circle and then sinking an eight-foot putt. His challenger double-bogeyed the 199-yard hole. Both golfers equaled par on No. 16 and 18.

His win Sunday gave Wheless another crown to go with his co-championship at Kerr Lake last year and the championship he earned in the Henderson Country Club Invitational Tournament, also in 1968. He likewise was among leaders in the 1969 Henderson Country Club event.

Rams Host Garner B's

The Franklinton Rams play one of these hang-if-you-do and hang-if-you-don't games Friday night. The Rams meet the Garner High School "B" Team. The "B" is oftentimes misleading. Garner is a 3-A school and their "B" squad is equivalent to a 2-A or certainly a strong 1-A team. That's why should the Rams win, the victory will seem less impressive and should they lose, the loss will seem greater.

Nevertheless, it is expected that the Rams will be wanting to come back from their defeat at the hand of Oxford Orphanage Red Devils last week and will be ready for the Garner squad.

Oxford topped Franklinton in a Franklin Area Conference contest, 28-0 last week at Oxford. The Rams won handily over the Gaston Rebels in their opener two weeks ago, 12-6.

Game time at Franklinton's field is 8 P.M. Friday night.

SPORTS In Our Opinion

By CLINT FULLER

The Louisburg Junior Varsity has been preparing all week for tonight's opening against Millbrook. Johnny King, Tony Tharrington, Bill Beckham—all freshmen—and many others will see action today. This is the stuff of which good football programs are made. These youngsters will be varsity players before you know it.

This year's varsity is loaded with sophomores who were members of a strong seventh-eighth grade JV squad two years ago. The Louisburg program is looking up.

New bleachers have been installed for Friday's home opener against Norlina. A new fence is due to be ready by game time and so are two concrete ramps—one for the players and one for the public—are also due to be ready. The public address system and the electric scoreboard have already been checked out and the grass has been trimmed. Louisburg has one of the best fields in Class A football.

Keeping up with the score at Elm City wasn't easy. The Vikings have no scoreboard. The Elm City reporter for the Wilson Daily Times reported the Bulldogs won by a score of 42-0. Actually the score was 40-0, but it isn't easy to keep up with it without a scoreboard.

Louisburg's sophomore quarterback Larry Fuller has been chosen Back of the Week by the Raleigh Times. He is in fast company with two other backs from 4-A schools and a third from 2-A Wake Forest. Quarterback Ronnie Austin of Garner, running back Willie Burden of Raleigh Enloe and quarterback Harrison Hickman of Wake Forest are the others. Six linemen were also chosen.

The popular Prep Clipboard feature in the News and Observer, called All East Checklist, is being discontinued this year. Grady Elmore, who edits same, says the reasons include "manpower limitations, increasing demand for sports page space and lack of cooperation from schools not reporting home games results, much less standout players". Such a pity. The Checklist was very popular among preps and it is going to be missed.

The Ayden Tornados—State 1-A Champions—made a surprising comeback against Greene Central Friday night. Trailing 13-12 with 1:50 left in the game, Ayden—which comes here on October 24—took possession on the fifty-yard line. The Tornados drove to the winning touchdown in six plays. Quarterback Allen Wilson scored on a keeper to give the champs an 18-13 win. Such is the mark of champions who have now won 54 of their last 56 ball games.

Remember Coach Friday—that cute chick that adorned Channel 5 each afternoon with sports reports? Well, she's now doing much the same for Miami sports fans. One of the most knowledgeable sports reporters around—to say nothing of being the prettiest—Mrs. Jane (Roger) Chastian in real life, Friday is a little disturbed these days that Miami Dolphin Coach George Wilson remains the only sports figure to ever deny her an interview. Obviously George doesn't own a TV set.
