Covered Dish Supper Honors Pastors Family

Rev. James R. Luck, Sr. and his wife and two sons, Jim, 3, and Philip, 3 months, moved into the parsonage, which has been newly painted and repaired on Tuesday, September 30th.

The ladies of the W.M.U. sponsored a covered dish supper at the church to welcome them into our church family and the community.

Rev. Luck assumed his duties as pastor on Sunday A.M. October 5th. He has been pastor in Elbron, Va. and is now a student at Southeastern Seminary. The Lord's Supper was observed.

On Sunday evening at 7:30 a special worship and fellowship hour was held to officially welcome the new pastor and his family. At the close of the service Rev. and Mrs. Luck were asked to lead the way to the back of the church where they found a table laden with gifts of food and other useful things which had been brought by the church members. Rev. Luck expressed their appreciation and stated that as much as the gifts were appreciated that the spirit behind them and the presence of those there meant even more.

In Fashion

Men and boys seem to be wearing short coats this season. Some are double breasted and others have a single row of buttons. Some are beltless and others have belts with buckles but the length is that of some inches above the knee.

One designer goes in for very long coats over pants suits for women—they fall just a few inches above the floor.
