

Mrs. Perry Included In 1970 Outstanding Young Women

Mrs. Carl Joy Harris Perry of Durham, N. C. has been selected as Outstanding Young Woman of America for 1969 and will appear in the annual biographical compilation, OUTSTANDING YOUNG WOMEN OF AMERICA.

Mrs. Perry is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Harris of Route 1, Louisburg and is married to the Reverend Gattis Perry.

Outstanding Young Women of America is a program designed to recognize the abilities of young women between the ages of 21 and 35 throughout the country.

This annual program recognizes those young women who unselfishly contribute to the betterment of their communities, professions, and country. Serving on the program's Board of Advisors are the National Presidents of women's clubs, headed by Mrs. Dexter Otis Arnold, Honorary President of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

Each year over 5,000 young women are nominated as Outstanding Young Women of America by leading women's organizations and college alumnae associations across the country. These young women's complete biographical sketches are featured in the annual compilation, OUTSTANDING YOUNG WOMEN OF AMERICA.

From among the young women included in Outstanding Young Women of America, fifty are selected each year—one from each state—for their state's Outstanding Young Woman of the Year Award.

Katharine Elkus White, former U. S. Ambassador to Denmark, said of the women honored in the 1968 edition, "You should be complimented upon your achievements, because you must constantly strive to reach your goals, and along the way you are forced to overcome many obstacles. You have not lost the pioneer spirit, the urge to succeed that forged our country, and made our Nation a World Leader."

Outstanding Young Women of America was conceived by the leaders of the nation's women's clubs. They felt that young women who give their time for community projects should be recognized. The recognition of these outstanding young women can serve to inspire others to give their time to

Franklinton PTA Hears Of Teenage Problems

(Frk. B.W.) The Franklinton High School Parent Teachers Association met in the school auditorium Tuesday evening with the president, Mr. Howard Boling, presiding.

The devotionals were given by the Rev. Earl Richardson, pastor of the local United Methodist Church.

Mrs. Julia Carr directed an eighth grade drill group and a ninth grade drill group in an impressive march.

Special music was rendered by Bruce Honeycutt, Jr., soloist, and Mrs. Jane Wilder, soloist. Mrs. Bruce Honeycutt accompanied both soloists. Charlie McKnight accompanied himself as he sang a solo.

The program for the evening was a panel discussion of three problems facing teenagers. Mrs. Barbara Jones discussed early marriages. She pointed out the disadvantages of early marriages such as neglect of education, inability to assume the responsibilities as parents and immaturity.

Mr. W. P. Pearce, Jr. discussed petty crimes. He pointed out that there was no organized crime as such in the community and no concrete cases of drugs being used in the local high school. He did state that drugs were being "pushed" in the larger communities.

Mrs. Richard Whitfield spoke about drugs and narcotics. She announced that Attorney General Robert Morgan said that drugs are being peddled around schools by "pushers" who, in most cases, are getting their supply of narcotics from out-of-state sources. SBI Director Charles Dunn was quoted as saying, additional civic responsibilities.

Guidelines for selection include unselfish service to others, charitable activities, community service, professional excellence, business advancement and civic and professional recognition.

"Without greater public concern and action, there is little hope of substantially curbing the illegal drug flow in the near future."

Mrs. Whitfield related the effects of the drugs and also the dangers. The need for adequate laws and enforcement of these laws as well as greater concern and action at home, in the church, school and community were emphasized.

Mrs. Whitfield closed the program with this remark made by Governor Bob Scott: "All children are potential delinquents; which way they go depends on us."

During the business session, Mrs. Lena Daniels read the minutes. A financial report was given by Mrs. George Kearney.

Mr. Bowling appointed the following nominating committee: Miss Edith Jackson, Mrs. Margaret Pruette, Mrs. Rolline Collins and Mrs. Kermit Merritt.

Miss Peggy Lassiter's room won first place; Mr. Walter Yarborough and Mrs. Jane Wilder tied for second place in the attendance count.

Well Countered

Joan went to a summer resort and met the young man with whom she had quarreled the year before.

"Sorry," she murmured sweetly, "I didn't quite get your name."

"I know you didn't," he said cheerfully. "But you tried hard enough."

Brenda Sanders Is Miss Phantom 1970

Youngsville -- In an assembly in the Youngsville High School auditorium Wednesday afternoon, November 26, Miss Brenda Sanders was crowned "Miss Phantom 1970" by Miss Debbie Roberts, last year's queen. The new "Miss Phantom" was also presented a bouquet of flowers by the outgoing queen, Phil Wiggins was Miss Sanders escort and Miss Roberts was escorted by Rommie Catlett, a former president of the Student Council.

Miss Sanders has been a member of the Glee Club, Library Club, a class officer and was chairman of the junior-senior committee. She has served on the school newspaper staff for four years and this year is Editor-in-Chief of the yearbook. She is also a member of the F.T.A. and Vice-President of the F.H.A. Miss Sanders served as Student Council Representative for two years and was a Governor's School nominee. She was elected the Senior Superlative-Most Likely to Succeed. A member of the Youngsville Baptist Church, Miss Sanders sings in the adult choir and takes part in other activities.

The "Miss Phantom Court" consisted of the following senior girls and their escorts: Miss Barbara Bailey - Phil Hart; Miss Jackie Bridges - Mike Hall; Miss Carol Mitchell - Gordon Lye; and Miss Linda Paschall - Tony Bailey. Each contestant carried a single long-stemmed red rose.

Glenn Evans, President of the Student Council, served as Master of Ceremonies. He announced the winner chosen by the high school faculty and explained the requirements and five-point judging system. This included points for personality, co-operation, appearance, academic scores, and involvement in school activities. Miss Rhonda Strickland, junior Student Council Representative, and Miss Harriett Pearce, Vice-President of the Council, assisted with the ceremony by serving as crown bearers.

To Attend Indiana 4-H Meeting

DOROTHY WOOD

Dorothy Wood, a 4-H club member of Seven Paths Northside Busy Bee 4-H Club and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Wood, will attend the National Junior Horticulture Association convention on December 7-11 in Indianapolis, Indiana. Dorothy, a senior at Edward Best High School, will present her state winning Vegetable Use demonstration and will be in competition with boys and girls from throughout the nation during the convention.

The program agenda includes two days of educational tours that will include the Hills Greenhouse Co., in Richmond, the Eli Lilly Laboratories, the Indiana Farm Bureau Cooperative, the Wegehoffs Greenhouses, the Indianapolis 500 Speedway, the Powerama, plus points of historical interest in and around the host city.

Other activities that will be carried out during the convention will be the 35th annual vegetable judging contest, information and vegetable identification contest, the Careers in Horticulture Luncheon and workshops dealing with Horticulture. She will also attend the awards and recognition luncheon.

The world situation, judging from our present tax structure, is not isolated.

At Art Gallery Louisburg College

An exhibition of polaroid pictures by Marie Cosindas, nationally known photographer, will be on display in the Louisburg College Art Gallery through December 17.

Miss Cosindas, who had a 5 page spread of pictures in Life magazines in November, will be in the gallery at 10:30 Friday morning for interviews.

The public is invited to see this exhibit free from 10 to 5 Monday thru Friday.

NO DISHES

The smart hostess, looking for a way to save on dishwashing, could take a tip from members of a Johnston County Extension Homemakers Club.

Following a demonstration on seafood, the hostess served fish'n chips. But she did it English-style; in cones made of newspaper.

No muss, no fuss, Mrs. Dorothy Johnson, Associate home economics Extension agent, points out.

GIFT THAT KEEPS GIVING

Give bulbs as gifts, Mrs. Sandra C. Brown, home economics Extension agent, Washington County, advises. If you do, a child can take pride in watching a bulb that he planted bloom.

Or newlyweds can landscape their yard with the bulbs you gave them.

Next time you're invited to a golden wedding anniversary celebration, Mrs. Brown suggests you tie up 50 golden daffodils in gold paper and attach a gold painted bulb digger. Bulbs are a gift that keep on giving, she points out.

NEVER BE HUNGRY

There's nothing like having a variety of food in one's freezer, believes Mrs. Sam Sherrill, a member of Rowan County's Extension food committee.

So in her freezer she has the usual foods grown in the family garden, plus game bagged by her husband, whose hobby is hunting.

Currently Mrs. Sherrill is looking for a recipe for ground hog, Mrs. Louise P. Slade, home economics Extension agent, reports. The ground hog was Sam's latest contribution to the family larder.

Mrs. Sherrill admits she never knows what Sam will bring in after his hunting expeditions. She agrees that Sam is living up to expectations. On her wedding day, his uncle told Mrs. Sherrill, "Sam will never let you be hungry so long as you're married to him."

IT TAKES TIME

Education can be a slow process, but eventually what is taught is put into practice.

About six years ago, Mrs. Sarah T. Jones, home economics Extension agent, Wayne County, did a tailoring workshop. She stressed the importance of preshrinking all zippers.

One homemaker recently told the agent, "It took me four years to put what you said into practice, but now I wouldn't think of putting a zipper into a garment without preshrinking it."

Several other ladies admitted it took them a long time to follow the advice, too, but now they're glad they did.

People acquire wealth when they restrain the urge to buy what they can't afford.
