

James T. Johnson, Sue Everett Wed Saturday In Wilmington

In a ceremony, beautiful in its simplicity, Miss Mary Sue Everett and Mr. James Thomas Johnson were married on Saturday, December 6th, at four o'clock, at the home of the bride in Leland, N. C.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert William Everett of Leland; the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Johnson of Louisburg.

The vows were spoken at an improvised altar, flanked by floor stands of fern. An arrangement of white mums and greenery, flanked by lighted tapers, graced the antique piano. The Reverend James Spivey, pastor of New Hope Baptist Church, and pastor of the bride, officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street length wedding gown of white chiffon, embellished with pearls and sequins at the empire waistline. She wore a lace mantilla and her bridal bouquet was of white pompons centered with a white orchid.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Edward Dawson, her sister, and Mrs. Robert Everett, her sister-in-law. Flower girl was little Miss Paula Everett, niece of the bride.

The groom's father served as his best man. Mr. Edward Dawson greeted the guests.

Prior to the ceremony, Mrs. Jacque Clewis, pianist, rendered wedding music which included "Because" by Guy D'Hardelot, "O Promise Me" by Reginald De Koven and the traditional Wedding March by Mendelssohn.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Everett wore a light blue dacron knit dress with a carnation corsage; Mrs. Johnson, mother of the groom, chose a dress of pink polyester knit. She also wore a carnation corsage.

The bride is a graduate of Leland High School and attended New Hanover Technical Institute. She is employed by C.I.T. Corporation in Wilmington. Mr. Johnson is a graduate of Louisburg High School, a veteran of three years' service in the U. S. Army, a graduate of IBM School in Lexington, Ky., and a graduate of the N. C. State Highway Patrol School. He is presently stationed in New Hanover County with the State Highway Patrol. The couple will reside at 321 Hooker Road, Lot 58, Wilmington, N. C.

CAKE CUTTING

Immediately following the ceremony, the parents of the bride were hosts for a cake-cutting at their home.

The serving table was covered with a lace cloth and was centered with an arrangement of white snapdragons and fuji mums, flanked by white lighted candles. The three-tiered wedding cake was placed at one end of the table and the crystal punch bowl at the other.

After the traditional first slice of cake was cut by the bride and groom, the wedding cake was served by Mrs. Bob Mizelle and punch was poured by Mrs. Ruth Rivenbark of Keanville, aunt of the bride. Salted nuts and mints were also served.

REHEARSAL PARTY

Following the Johnson-Everett rehearsal on Friday night, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Thompson and Miss Beth Johnson entertained the wedding party, friends and relatives at a rehearsal party at the Holiday Inn in Wilmington.

The refreshment table was covered with a cutwork cloth and held a bridal arrangement featuring wedding bells, flanked by lighted tapers.

Mrs. Thompson presided at the punch bowl. Refreshments included strawberry punch, petit fours decorated with a wedding motif in pink, cheese straws, salted cashew nuts and pink and white miniature mint patties.

Among those attending the wedding and other festivities were Mr. and Mrs. James A. Johnson, Miss Beth Johnson, Mr. Wilbur Moore,

Lloyd, Wiggins Speak Vows At Flat Rock

Miss Jenny Vee Wiggins and Mr. George Thomas Lloyd, Jr. were united in marriage Saturday, December 6, at four o'clock in the Flat Rock Baptist Church. The Rev. Gattis Perry, uncle of the bride, and Rev. Floyd Benfield officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Haywood Wiggins of Louisburg. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Thomas Lloyd, also of Louisburg.

A program of nuptial music was presented by organist, Miss Kathy Perkins of Raleigh. Miss Joyce Martin of Raleigh sang "The Song of Ruth," "The Sweetest Story Ever Told," and "The Lord's Prayer."

The vows were spoken before an altar decorated with baskets of white poinsettias and palm trees. Spiral candelabra with burning white tapers completed the decorations.

Immediately following the vows, the couple participated in "The Lighting of the Candles" ceremony which symbolized the "uniting into one"

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of imported silk orjanza over bridal satin. The gown was made along empire lines, featuring a Chantilly lace bodice, ruffled neckline and lace sleeves ruffled at the wrist. Appliques of matching lace and seed pearls adorned the skirt. Her chapel length train cascaded from the lace back yoke with appliques of lace and seed pearls. Her full length mantilla was edged in Chantilly lace. She carried a white Bible presented to her by the Y.W.A.'s centered with a white orchid and feathered carnations.

Miss Jo Anne Frazier, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a floor length dress of ruby red velvet, designed with scoop neckline, short puffed sleeves, empire waistline and a column skirt. She wore a white fur headband and carried a white fur muff centered with a red poinsettia and white streamers.

Bridesmaids were Miss Janet Lloyd, sister of the groom, Miss Vickie Wheeler, both of Louisburg, Miss Marilyn Mangum of Wake Forest and Mrs. James Dunn of Wilson, all cousins of the bride. They wore dresses identical to the honor attendant.

Honorary bridesmaids were Miss Kay Snipes, and Mrs. James Avett, III, both of Raleigh, Miss Teresa Davis of Bailey and Miss Janice Pearce of Youngville. They wore floor length dresses of moss green rayon linen. The empire bodice featured a square neckline, bell sleeves trimmed with candlelight Venice lace and darker green velvet ribbon. The A-line skirt formed a sweep train. They carried a long stemmed white poinsettia with streamers.

Miss Lisa Perry, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. Her dress was identical to the honor attendants. She carried a white basket of assorted petals.

Ring bearer was Billy Rogers of Louisburg, cousin of the groom.

Mr. George Thomas Lloyd, father of the groom, served as best man. Ushers were Ricky Wiggins, brother of the bride, Ronnie Johnson, Mike White, Vic Rogers all of Louisburg, William Rogers and Dwight Green, both of Raleigh.

The mother of the bride wore an ensemble of aqua crepe sheath dress with a lace top, matching accessories and a white orchid.

The groom's mother wore a moss-green long sleeve double-knit dress with matching accessories and a white orchid.

The bride is a graduate of Youngville High School and is presently employed with the Department of Administration in Raleigh.

The groom is also a graduate of Youngville High School and is presently employed with the Raleigh City Police Department. For going away the bride chose an ensemble of pink silk and wool with navy accessories, and the orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet.

After a wedding trip to Gatlinburg, Tenn., the couple will reside at 209 Randlewood Drive, Raleigh, N. C.

RECEPTION

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the home of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Millard Perry greeted guests and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Mangum, Sr. introduced them to the receiving line.

The guests were then directed into the dining room by Mrs. Richard Layton and Mrs. Perry Frazier where Mrs. Gattis Perry served wedding cake. Mrs. Mamie Hill, Mrs. H. B. Perry and Mrs. Wallace Perry, poured punch. Other refreshments included ham and biscuits, assorted nuts and mints.

The serving table was covered with a white tablecloth edged in lace, centered with an arrangement of white pompons and carnations.

Other decorations throughout the home were white wedding bells, and floral arrangements.

Presiding at the bridal register were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Foster. On the table was the bride's bouquet, and a burning white taper. The portrait was displayed on an antique easel. The guests were greeted at the gift room by Mr. and Mrs. Riddie Wheeler.

Others assisting with the serving were Mesdames C. H. Roberts, E. L. Johnson, Fred Wheeler, S. H. Perry, Claude Frazier, Brooks Young and Misses Sandra Wheeler and Judy Hill.

Goodbyes were said by Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Wiggins.

After Rehearsal Party

Immediately following the wedding rehearsal Friday evening, the parents of the groom entertained the wedding party and friends of the bridal couple in the church fellowship hall.

The fellowship hall was decorated with floral arrangements of green and white. The serving table was covered with a white cutwork tablecloth centered with an arrangement of green and white flowers and a silver candelabrum with burning white tapers.

The guests were served assorted cookies, nuts, and mints. Punch was served by Mrs. Drew Carroll, cousin of the groom.

Following the serving the parents of the groom presented the bridal couple with a gift of crystal in their chosen pattern.

He'll Fine Out

A neighbor tried to comfort the deserted husband.

"It was a terrific shock to hear that Smithers ran away with your wife. I'd always thought he was your friend."

"He is," replied the husband with a happy smile, "only he doesn't know it yet."
