

Courtesy on the highways, by those driving automobiles, will reduce the death rate more than traffic regulations.

The end of life will find most of us with a lot of business that should have been attended to several years earlier.

People who plan for their future usually succeed better than those who do not, but there is no law which requires you to make such plans.

Pruette Speaks To Louisburg High FBLA

On Wednesday afternoon, December 3rd, at 4:00, the Louisburg High School F.B.L.A. had their monthly meeting. Mr. C. Ray Pruette, Science Professor at Louisburg College, was guest speaker. Mr. Pruette spoke to approximately fifteen members on some of the important things to do when starting a new job and getting out on your own.

Following Mr. Pruette's speech, President Cade Beasley conducted the business meeting. Minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary, Lou Roberson, and Brenda Neal and Debra Burnett gave a report on the trip to Hardbarger Business College and Raleigh School of Data Processing. The members then enjoyed refreshments, and when the meeting was adjourned they picked up their Tom-Watt orders for distribution.

Mrs. Leonard Represents N.C. Home Ec.

Mrs. Marjorie G. Leonard, vocational home economics teachers at Louisburg High School, is one of four vocational home economics teachers who will be representing the North Carolina Vocational Association at the 63rd annual American Vocational Association convention in Boston, Massachusetts, December 5-10th. Mrs. Leonard is the Vice-President of the Home Ec. Division of the North Carolina Vocational Association.

Most of the people who are in a hurry have nothing else to do.
