Bunn Fined $50, Must Forfeit Game

Bunn played seven basketball games during the month of November—one more than allowed by the North Carolina High School Athletic Association—and has been ordered to pay a fine of $50 and to forfeit one of its games.

The action came last Thursday by the Board of Control and Bunn will forfeit the Oxford Orphanage contests slated for February 19. Originally, the requirement was that Bunn forfeit its next home game which would have been the Wakelon contest slated Friday night. This was changed this week on appeal from Franklin officials.

Bunn officials say it was a mistake—an oversight on their part. Nevertheless, the school was not allowed an appearance before the Board of Control and the fine was levied without a hearing on the part of Bunn.

Nor has it been explained why the seventh—and only illegal game—was not ordered forfeited to Epsom, the victim.

Several other schools were slapped for violations, most of which stemmed from racial disturbances during or following games.

Girls Win First Of Season

Bulldogs Take FAC Pair

The Louisburg Bulldogs won their fourth straight conference game Monday night as they walloped Edward Best, 80-43. The locals downed the Epsom Tigers 77-43 Friday night, leaving only a single loss to Cardinal Gibbons to mar their young season.

The Bulldog scoring punch continues to come from the Edgerton boys—Benny and Melvin with able assists from Robby McDonald and Mike Dement.

Against Epsom Benny Edgerton dumped in 22 points and Melvin gained 20. At Edward Best Benny shot 25 and Melvin accounted for 29. McDonald dunked 16 against the Tigers and 11 against the Eagles. Dement, a sophomore, hit 6 and 4.

The Louisburg girls won their first game of the season—their first win since January 24—as they downed Epsom, 35-15 Friday night. Monday night, the locals stayed in the game until the final period, falling to Edward Best, 37-31.

Pergerson, Seidel, Williams Named 1-A All East

Fuller, Pernel, Kearney, Beckham, Simmons Get Honorable Mention

Louisburg's outstanding offensive guard and defensive line backer Edward (Bob-Boo) Pergerson was named to the News and Observer's 1-A All-East first team Monday and Bulldog running back Randy Seidel and Franklinton's star end/fullback Cliff Williams were selected for the second team.

Louisburg's sophomore quarterback Larry Fuller and defensive standout Johnny Pernel gained honorable mention along with Franklinton's chief ground-gainer Bobby Kearney, Donnie Beckham and quarterback Jerry Simmons. Also on the list was a Steve Beckham of Franklinton, but this is believed in error since there is no such player on the Ram roster.

The News and Observer quotes Louisburg Tommy Twitty on Pergerson: "Pergerson (5'9", 170) just wouldn't be taken out. He must have been in on about 75 percent of the tackles and he graded high as a blocker. He came off the ball so fast it looked like he was offside..."

Louisburg's Larry Fuller and Oxford's Tim Jones were included among seven honorable mentions for the following comment: "There were a profusion of other stars on the honorable mention list. (They) all flashed impressive statistics."

Pergerson is the second Louisburg player ever to make the coveted list. Thomas Finch (class of '69) was named first team as a junior and as a senior. Seidel is the third Louisburg player to make the second team. Halfbacks Charlie Ford in 1961 and William Rowe in 1962 were named to the second team.

Howard Stallings, Jr. and Buddy Stewart made Honorable Mention in 1965 to break first ice for the Bulldogs and Doug Estep gained honorable mention in 1967. Last year the Bulldogs placed Johnny Pernel, Edward Pergerson, Bill Taylor and Neil McDonald on the list.

The Rams placed Freddie Coats on honorable mention in 1967 and Cliff Williams in 1968. Williams is the first

The Gold Sand boys and the Edward Best girls won games Friday night at Gold Sand. The meeting of the two rivals was a non-conference tilt.

High scoring Sweeney Wright led the Blue Devils to the 55-39 win over the Eagles with 28 points. Tommy May paced the losers with 11 points.

Joyce Alston led the winning Edward Best girls with 11 points and Miriam Ragland paced the losers with six points.

Ram to make the first two squads.

Kenneth Bass of Oxford Orphanage is the only other EAC player to make the first two squads, placing on the second team. Tim Jones, James Earp and Danny Narvon of Oxford; Jim Alford and Dwain Johnson of Wake-lon are the only other FAC gridders to make honorable mention.

There are 21 honorable mentions chosen from teams played by the Bulldogs this past season, giving some indication of the strong schedule faced by the locals. Bobby Johnson of Weldon and Leon Edmunds of Warrenton made the first team and Williams and Bass made the second string—all tough foes in their games against Louisburg. McCain Brown of Warrenton and Kenneth Clark of Weldon also placed on the second squad.

Canes Off To Fast Start

The 1969-1970 Louisburg College Hurricanes are off to a fast start, having won nine of their first ten games. They are atop the Cavalier-Tarheel Conference with a 4-0 conference mark.

The 'Canes won the conference and tournament championships last year and this year are off and winging toward what seems to be brewing as another clash with Ferrum's Panthers for conference honors. The Panthers are 3-0 in the conference; 5-0 overall, and are scoring at a 105 clip while holding the opponents to 68.2 points per game. Louisburg averages 87.7 points per game while the opponents are scoring 69.6 points per game.

Louisburg is led by 5'9" guard Larry Paschall with a 18.7 scoring average. Able assistance in the scoring department comes from Terry Davis - 15.6, Ricky Richardson - 13.8, George Bowden - 12.5, and Mark Wilson, 10.1. Richardson is the only freshman in the starting lineup.

Davis, 6'4" forward, is leading the rebounding with 13.2 recoveries per game and Richardson at 6'5" has 7.8 recoveries per game despite the fact that he played in two games when he was not up to par physically. Wilson, 6'3" forward, and George Bowden, 6'1" guard, add strength to the rebounding picture with 5.6 and 4.8 recoveries per game.

The 'Canes are strong defensively, using pressure tactics in most of their games.

By Special Correspondent

Paschall, Bowden, and Wilson have led the defensive play while Davis and Richardson have made the 'Canes' defense tough inside.

Sandy Frazier, 6'3", Bill Moran, 6'4"; Billy Spence, 5'11"; Wes Webb, 5'11"; and Butch English, 6'3", have been the leading reserves thus far for the Hurricanes. Frazier, the only sophomore in this group, is averaging 4.1 points per game as is Spence. Moran has scored 2.1 points per game, and Webb has 2.0 points per game. English has scored 3.1 points per game and owns the best shooting percentage on the team, hitting on 11 of 22 attempts. Webb has missed five games due to illness but Coach Drake believes that the South Edgecombe product will add considerably to the 'Canes cause before the season ends.

Louisburg plays again tomorrow night when they travel to play North Carolina State Freshmen. This is the first of eight games away from home for the 'Canes. They play in the Blue Ridge Christmas tournament at Spruce Pine, N. C. on December 19 and 20. After the Christmas holidays they take to the road again for games at North Greenville, January 8, two nights at Brevard - January 9 and 10, and then play in the Mt. Olive Pickle Classic on January 16 and 17.

Oxford Falls To Rams

Franklinton's Red Rams coasted to an easy 67-46 victory Friday night over the winless Red Devils of Oxford Orphanage in a Franklin Area Conference match.

Raymond Perry dropped in 22 points to pace the Rams, now 2-2 in all games, while Randy Langston's 13 markers topped the visitors' scoring.

Calvin Williamson totaled 12 points for Franklinton, while Danny Naron and John Thompson added 11 and 10 points, respectively, for Oxford Orphanage, 0-4 in the league.

The Rams led by seven at the half, 28-21, then broke
