

Louisburg Woman's Club Meets In Rocky Mount

Twelve members attended the Louisburg Woman's Club meeting Wednesday night at Buck Overton's in Rocky Mount, N. C.

Following a delicious dinner, the business session was held. The President, Mrs. Wayne Alston, congratulated the members on their hard work on the Christmas float and displayed the first prize award won by this project.

Mrs. Wallace Tippet reported that a meeting for planning a Clothing Closet was held Monday, December 15. The public is encouraged to save all good used clothing, especially for children. These clothes should be in good repair and clean if possible. The members are very enthusiastic about opening this service very soon. It is the hope of many concerned citizens throughout the county that these clothes will help keep children in school and meet many needs.

Mrs. James Johnson, membership chairman, submitted ten new members for approval. They will be installed at the January meeting.

The club members voted to change club year to January through December. The following officers will begin two year terms in January:

President—Mrs. Wayne Alston; 1st Vice—Mrs. Wilson Clay; 2nd Vice—Mrs. Jerry Frazier; Recording Secretary—Mrs. Graham Burnette; Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. Ned Lloyd; Treasurer—Mrs. James R. Hill; Parliamentarian—Mrs. Earl Carter; Chaplain—Mrs. Charlie Tharrington.

The club members will visit Brentwood Rest Home on Christmas Eve.

The members presented a beautiful silver tray to the President, Mrs. Alston, in appreciation for her dedicated service the past few months. Gay gifts were exchanged by the members with much merrymaking.

Teams Have Party

Youngsville -- A Christmas Party was held in the school cafeteria Friday night, December 19, for members of the girls and boys' basketball teams, their coaches, cheerleaders, managers, local officials and high school teachers. The party was held after the Vance County ball game.

Hosts and hostesses for the party were Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Epp Catlett, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Wiggins, and Mr. and Mrs. Rayford Rogers.

Yuletide decorations, music, dancing, candlelight and holiday refreshments, plus the big win over the Vance County team, all combined to make for an unusually gala party and celebration.

Co-Captains Vickie Rogers and Harriett Pearce, on behalf of the girls' team, presented Coach Kay Phillips with a Christmas gift. Boy's team co-captains, Rodney Roberts and Morris Catlett, gave Coach Larry Lindsey a gift from the team.

A red tablecloth on the serving table featured silver candelabra having red tapers, entwined with holly. A holly tree flanked with red tapers in silver holders were a center of interest on another table. All tables held lighted tapers.

Tray Favors Ready To Go

Youngsville -- Youngsville Woman's Club Crafts Chairman Mrs. N. A. Brown and Club President Mrs. Ben Hudson are shown leaving the Community House to take tray favors to a rest home. The Santa Claus and Snowmen favors were made by club members and Junior Girl Scouts.

Justice 4-H Club Is The Most Outstanding

Justice 4-H Club was declared the most outstanding 4-H Club in Franklin County during 1969. An attractive plaque was presented to the club during county council meeting on Tuesday night. Mr. C. T. Dean, Jr., County Extension Chairman, made the presentation. Mrs. George Kelly Harris and Mrs. Jane Langley are the 4-H Leaders of the club.

They won the award by having the largest number of their club members participating in county, district and state activities during 1969. A total of 57 record books were completed, 6 participated on the County and District Activity Day program capturing two scholarships to North Carolina 4-H Congress.

Because of her outstanding long time record in Home Management, Myra Harris, in addition to a scholarship to North Carolina 4-H Congress, was given a free trip to High Point, North Carolina, to tour and observe developments in furniture designs. Sandra Harris, also a member of Justice Club, modeled her attractive dress in the State Dress Revue during North Carolina 4-H Congress.

The club also erected welcome signs on their community boundary lines. Several tours and other activities were participated in during the year.

Wrong Guess

"How come you left your girl's house so early last night?"

"Well, we're sitting on the sofa, side by side, talking of this and that, when all of a sudden she reaches over and turns off the lights. Well I guess I can take a hint."

Episcopal S.S. Has Christmas Program

Members of St. Paul's Episcopal Sunday School, their parents, teachers, and friends assembled Sunday afternoon at 4:30 in the church for the Christmas program.

Supt. W. J. Shearin welcomed everyone, called attention to the tree decorated with Christmas made by the children and made announcements of the events of the program.

A film on the birth of Jesus was shown by Mr. Fred Johnson.

To the parish house then they went and were led in the singing of Christmas carols by Josephine Medlin, Becky Medlin and Betty Sue Radford, accompanied by Mrs. Herbert Scoggin at the piano.

Supt. Shearin distributed gifts of Bible story books and church note paper along with bags of confectioneries to members of the Sunday School.

A table covered with a Christmas cloth was laden with white gifts which the members had brought to present to a needy family.

The refreshment table, covered with a white cloth, was centered with a silver Christmas tree bearing tiny colored balls and placed on a silver tray filled with Christmas balls. Red lighted tapers flanked the tree. Miss Adelaide Johnson presided at the punch bowl placed at one end of the table. Trays of cookies, pizza wheels, potato chips and mints completed the table decorations.

Mrs. Collin McKinne, Mrs. C. Wilhe Strother, Miss Elizabeth Johnson, all Sunday School teachers, Supt. Shearin and Rev. Frank E. Pulley were in charge of the celebration.

In Fashion

The 1970 look will be a combination of the mini dress with the midi or maxi coat. Most designers show costumes ranging from five inches above the knee to floor length.

Costumes for day and sport will be mostly straight, simple, fairly loose yet showing the body. For daytime wear the popular shirtwaist, shirt and simple suit are classic.

Fabrics will play an important part in men's fashions. The no-iron, weather and crease-proof finishes, as well as vinyls will be seen in male fashions.

Joy to the World

For you who loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.
