As Mr. Gales has thought proper in his

LINCOIN REPUBLICAN.

The Subscribe having assumed the control of the Lincoln Roublican, deems it but due to the Public, in issuing his Prospectus, to state as concisely as possible, the views and principles by which he will be guided and governed. He will advocate the Republican doctrines of '98 and '99-State Rights, and a strict construction of the Tederal Constitution : and he will be found to be on the side of the People, whenever their interest may come in collision with that of incorpor ated wealth. He will give his best energies to the advancement of the Independent Treasury system; munication appeared in the "Register," and will always oppose the establishment of a United States Bank. After making the above statements, it is almost unnecessary to mention that he will support Mr. Van Burea for the Presicency, and the candidate selected by the Republican Party for Vice President, in opposition to the Harrisburg Nominees.

What was said by the former Editor, in his Prospectus, iz believed to be not inappropriate to to the present times; and is, therefore, again presented to the consideration of the public :

"It is believed that the present is a time of dcep interest, and that it is the duty of ALL in whose hands the elective franchise has been placed, to obtain a clear and extended view of the aspect which the politics of the day are now assuming. For the aid of such as wish to enquire, and decide understandingly, the columns of this paper are offered. "It is well known, that while in the Western part of the State, the many organs of the Opposition are busy in advancing the cause of their several aspirants, and still more so, in heaping abuse and calumpy on their opponents ; the Republican is the only medium, in this district, through which the friends of those thus reviled, can assert their that they are now carrying on their busi- clauns, or refute the falschoods with which they are assailed."

Though the Republican will maintain a character strictly political, yet the other topics of Literature, the Arts and Sciences, Religion and Morals, logether with the News of the day, will not be neglected. No pains will be spared to make it acceptable, as well to the general reader as to the politician.

TEditors with whom we exchange, will con-fer a favor by giving the above a few insertions This, sir, is no Communication, nor is in the article, which appeared when Mr. which will be gladly reciprocated. one is just as responsible as the other. Would you believe sir, that this editorial of Mr. Gales', is in substance the same, as the Memorial of the Manumission Society, which he is now branding Judge SAUNness with being (not "fainted" but a real bona fide) an Abolitionist for presenting (not endorsing) to the House of Representatives, on the 31th of December, 1824sixteen years ago, and which was six years and four months before the appearance of Mr. Gales' editorial? That "iruth is stranger than fiction" is traly verified in the profound forgetfulness of Mr. Gales in this instance. Here are extracts containing the strongest language of the Memorial and Mr. Gales' editorial, which I place side by side for his special gratification.

vernment in its liberality add to those the unappropriated public lands, which must he brought immediately into market, &c." "And when the General Government is in possession of a surplus fund let their munificence throw that also into the RE-DEMPTION FUND."

This is Gen. HARRISON's doctrine preisely: hear him :-- "Should 1 be asked if there is no way by which the General Government can aid the CAUSE OF EMANCIPA-TION, I answer that it has long been an object near my heart, to see the whole or ITS SURPLUS REVENUE APPROPRIATED TO THAT OBJECT." This may, in part account for the warmth with which Mr. Gales espouses his cause.

But I will now proceed with the remarks of the "Register," on the Communication of the Correspondent :

The Editor says :- "He who addresses the public on a subject in which they are equally concerned is certain of securing their attention if he cannot carry conviction to their minds, and though his proselytes be few his audience will be large. The well written appeal therefore, which we publish to-day, which has for its object the creation of a fund whereby the gradual abolition of slavery may be effected, will doubtless be read with attention whatever may be the conclusions arrived at with regard to the feasibility. We are aware that the considerations which propositions of this character involve are exceedingly difficult and very delicate, and should be discusssed with great caution; yet we see Pnothing in the Communication alluded to Ento which the most fastidious can. object, "whether the plan here proposed if adopted would accomplish the expected result we are not prepared to say ; but it is only by a comparison of the propositions which may be submitted to the public that the most proper one can be selected."

And now, may I ask, if Mr. Gales was absent at both periods ? If some "Ebony and Topaz" "whig" neighbor did make remarks during the editor's absence, did Mr. Gales disavous the matter or import, on his return ?

Mr. Gales says that a Communication appeared in the "Register," "some dozen years before" the hand-bill of 1838. The Communication and Editorial remarks appeared in Oct. 1831-about six years and a half before the hand-bill. Profound forgetfulness, after all, is a "mighty fine thing" on certain occasions ; though if Mr. Gales desire truth, as he professes, he will thank me for jogging his memory, or shaking him out of a political nap. There is no great sin in a slip of the tongue or a mistake in times and seasons-the error lies in preserveingly contending for the wrong. 1 dare say, therefore, Mr. Gales will put all right in his next paper. I intend no personal disrespect to Mr.

Gales. But the subject has been introduced by himself, and I feel bound to state the facts to the people.

I remain. Your's very respectfully, February 1st, 1840. RALEIGH.

More conclusive proofs of the extraordi-nary efficacy of Dr. WM. EVANS' celebrated camomile and apertent ANTIBIL-OUS PILLS in a levinting afflicted mankind .- Mr. Robert Cameron, 101 Bowery, Disease Chronic Dysentery, or Bloody Flux. Symptoms : unusual flatulency in the bowels, severe griping, frequent indication to go to stool, tenesmus, loss of appetite, nausea, vomiting, frequency of pulse, and a frequent discharge of a peculiarly fortid matter mixed with blood, great debility, sense of burning heat, with an intolerable bearing down of the parts. Mr. Cameron in enjoying perfect health, and returns his sincere thanks for the extraordinary benefit he had received.

PARALYTIC RHEUMATISM.

A perfect cure effected by the treatment of Dr. W. EVANS .- Mr. John Gibson, of North Fourth st. Williamsburg, afflicted with the above complaint for three years and nine months; during which time he had to use crutches. His chief symptoms were excruciating pain in all his joints, but especially in the hip, shoulder, knees and ankles, an aggravation of the pains towards night; and for the most part all the time from external heat, an obvious thickening of the fascia and ligaments, with a complete loss of muscular power. For the benefit of those afflicted in a similar manner, Mr. Gibson conceives it meet to say that the pains have entirely ceased, and that his joints have completely recovered their natural tone, and he feels able to resume his ordinary business

The above valuable medicine is for sale at H. P. Williams' store, Charlotte, N. C., at Geo, W. Brown's store, Salisbury, N. C., at the store of P. Summey & Co. and at the Transcript office.

If history does not expose this daring assumption, posterity will be puzzled at the strange anomaly-at the high-

Is there a gray headed man left these days who would not spurn from his presence those who would rob him of that fair fame, so hardly won ! The descendant of those among whom the term Whig originated in England, stand in wonder at the assumption by the Federal party here, of a term which outrages all sense of propriety in the application they give it. The term is there applied in its true sense still-the anti-monoply party is the Whig party, in contradistinction to the term Tory, which is its antipodes. The Federal party is, in every sense, in all its views, policy, movements, and designs, diametrically opposite to the good old wholesome doctrines of the fathers of the Revolition, and, were they in power, would lead to entirely different results-for Alexander Hamilton said :-- "Nothing but a permanent body [of life legislators] can check the impudence of Democracy"-"the people are tyrbulent and changing; they seldom judge or determine right;" and this was the modern Whig policy.
