After all that is said and done, there is no irous like that of Old John Robinson. Always a favorite in the South, the show this season has lost none of its admirers, and none of its admirable qualities. Therefore, when it came to us once again yesterday, it was small wonder that thousands turned out, and that the canvas was filled at both performances. Those who wen bad a real treat in the per-formance. The collection of animals was, as it has always been, excellent, there being shown a rhinosceros, bear, Egyptian croca-dile, sacred buil of China, sacred cow of India, nine camels, sea lions, a zebra, ibex, liama, tapir, and yak of Tartary. In the way of birds the display was good, among them being the odd looking pellcan. Unfortunately the ant-bear died a few days ago. In the ring everything was characterized by excellence. The subtle flavor of the famous Lowlow's wit pervaded the atmosphere and the lovers of real wit and humor laughed till they cried. Our people like Lowlow, and he will always have a hearty welcome here. The principal features of the performance are the wonderful Ashton Brothers, whose feats as eapers and acrobats have never been equaled e, and won for them much applause; the three performing elephants, who are managed by young John Robinson and Mr. King, and the den of performing lions.

The bareback riding by the lady rider is superb, but the feats of Mr. George Holland have never been equaled here, not even by Watson, of Coup's show. Particularly noticeable, as a feat, are his sumersaults. Joll John Lowlow finds a mate in the person o William Ashe, and the latter's "lone deberman" is one of the very funnies things in the performance. Miss Rosalie Stickney, who is a daughter of old John, does some bareback riding and manages four horses in a superh style. Of course the acrobats are the best of their kind and Mr. and Mrs. Paul's trapeze acts are at once daring and wonderfully attractive.
The trained dogs are another marked feature of this circus and are admirable. The entire to be desired, but wins words of praise from everyone. It was no wonder that the tent was packed at both performances, nor that everybody who went carried away merry thoughts and kind remembrances of John Robinson's circus.

Wake County Republican Convention. To the number of some two hundred the Republicans of the county assembled in convention at Metropolitan Hall yesterday. By far the greater part of those present were colored, and from the very start the assemblage was seen to be rather a disorderly one and difficult to control. Capt. W. W. White called the convention to order, John C. Gor man acting as temporary secretary. After a twenty minutes-wrangle Maj. R. C. Badger was chosen chairman, and after another contest, in which some bad feeling was shown, H. M. Miller, Albert Pettiford and W. R. Harris were made secretaries.

This much accomplished, the nomination of candidates for the Legislature was taken up. For the Senate, R. W. Wynne was nominated by acclamation.

Stewart Ellison and H. C. Jones, colored. were then placed in nomination for the House. Young, a delegate from the second ward, assailed Ellision, saying that his nomination would be injudicious, and that two hundred young men, to whom he had made himself bnoxious, would vote against him at the polls. Stewart, of Oak Grove, Fleming of Forestville, and James H. Harris supported Ellison and denounced his enemies. Ellison was finally nominated, but it was evident that there was a strong sentiment against him, which is likely to develop into an opposition. The fight upon him is by his own race. W. R. Perry, of House's Creek, and Eston Bledsoe were nominated for the third and clamation. There being one other place to fil, the nomination of J. J. Ferrell, M. V'B. Gilbert and N. Bunting were placed in nomination. Albert Magnin's name was also offered, but he withdrew it with the statement that it was an insult to ask him to go upon the ticket with men who, two years ago, when he was a nominee, stabbed him in the back and effected his defeat. He declared that he was not defeated by Democrats, but by unprincipled and treacherous Republicans. Magoin pitched in to Ferrell, and accused him of acting in concert with Bunting to secure his defeat. Ferrell gave Magnin the lie, the latter reiterated the charge, and, bot words ensued. Fi-nally, seeing that the current was against him, Ferrell backed down, withdrawing his name and quitting the convention. One Way to Play 'Possum.

[From the New Orleans Picayune.] Nothing is more savory to a Southern ne gro's-palate than a rossted fat opossum. One old negro hunter captured a fine specimen the other day, and feeling hungry stopped to cook it in the woods. He built a fire and spitted his meat; but, being very tired as well as hungry, he fell asleep while the 'possum was roasting. As he slept, a 'low trash' negro came upon the scene, doubtless attracted by the fire and the smell of roasting meat. The new-comer approached cautiously with one eye on the 'possum and the other on Uncle Eph, who slumbered. First, he shook the old man, who turned to an easier position, but would not wake. The stranger took in the situation, and then proceeded to take in the 'possum. He, too, was a possum-eater, and he made short work of the dainty roast. He ate and ate till but the bones were left. Uncle Eph was still sieeping, and it occurred to the vandal that he would make Eph think that he had been to supper, so that when he awoke he would not suspect the theft. Then the "low-trash" negro proceeded to 'possum grease Eph' hands and face and mouth, and to pile in the old man's lap the gnawed bones.

Nights have mornings, and sleeping must have its waking. Uncle Eph awoke and immediately thought of his 'possum. It was not on the fire; it was not anywhere to be seen; but there in his lap were the bones that had been gnawed. On his hands, lips and beard was grease and the smell of possum. He was self convicted. He concluded that he had eaten the 'possum, yet he could not remember the pleasure the eating had given him. Weighing all circumstantial evidence carefully, the old man slowly pronounced indement

Dat's a fac'. I'se been eatin' dat 'possum se been eatin' it in my sleep." But then his stomach; why did it not stand out as a witness in the case? It felt empty, and yet it should be full. "It's certain sho'r I've done eat up that possum. Must have done it when I'se sleep.

But," and the old man placed his hand sadly over his really empty stomach, "but it interferes less'n any 'possum I ebber did eat." Wicked for Clergymen.

"I believe it to be all wrong and even wicked for clergymen and other public men to be led into giving testimonials to quack doctors or vile stuffs called medicines, but when a really meritorious ar-ticle, made of valuable remedies, known to all, that all physicians use and trust in daily, we should freely commend it. I, therefore, cheerfully and heartily commend Hop Bitters for the good they have done me and my friends, firmly believing they have no equal for family use. I will not be without them."

According to the National Zeitung the new Prussian gun is a repealing gun, capable of firing twelve shots per twenty-four seconds, after which it may be used like any ordinary gun of one shot. This result has been ob tained by a store chamber holding cartridges made of sheet-iron, weighing 350 grammes and with a capacity of eleven cartridges. This store chamber can be removed or in-serted at will, and it acts automatically when the store-chamber is opened or even when it is shut, no special movement being necessary In opening the store-chamber a cartridge comes in; in closing another cartridge come forward, so that it will fall into place when the store-chamber is again opened. This store chamber can be sdapted to any gun loading at the breech, if the latter be provided with a cylindrical closing; and thus repeating guns are obtained. It requires but fifteen seconds to refill the store chamber, when it may be carried separately or at once inserted in the gun. In the latter case it is applied to the cartridge chamber, the weight coming, favorably, upon the centre of gravity of the gun. The gun does not lose any of its quali-ties of rapid d scharge by this addition. By means of this invention one can be loading while firing. It is a curious fact that the author of this murderous improvement is M. Loewe, a member of the Progressionist party of Prussis, and attached as such to the "League of Peace !"

DR. BUCHANANI ARRESTED.

The Begus Medical Diploma Man Captured near Detroit,

PHILADELPHIA, September 10 - After enjoying a three weeks' vacation in Canada, the notorious Dr. John Buchanan, who sold bogs s medical diplomas here and was under indict ment for it, has been captured. It will be remembered that on the morning of August 17, a man disguised as Buchanan jumped overboard from a ferry boat in the Delaware River. It was thought that the man had killed himself, as the easiest method of ending his troubles. Investigations were made which developed the fact that it was not Buchanan who took the leap, but a man who was paid to represent him. Mr. John Norris, the city editor of the Philadelphia Record, who had exposed the mis toings of the diplomadealer, obtained information that Buchanan would be delivered into his bands if he would go to Michigan. He laid the matter before the authorities there, and although Buchanan was a fugitive from justice, and under $18,-000 bail, singularly enough they refused to take part in the recapture. Armed with a requisition, Mr. Norris went to Michigan, and his man was delivered to him, as agreed upon, for a large sum of money, which the Record paid; as the authorities refused to take a hand n the case. There is no doubt as to the identity of Buchanan. Mr. Norris telegraphs that he has started East with the bogus Dean, the latter having consented to return without causing any trouble, M. V. Chapman, brother-in-law of Buchanan, was captured with him and will be held as a witness. Who the person was that jumped overboard from the ferry-boat has not been learned, and a good conspiracy case is yet to be laid bare. Thomas E. Vandusen, who was on the ferry-boat with the dis guised man, and who, afterward, in the United States Court, swore that it was Buchanan who jumped overboard, was arrested to-night by order of Judge Butler, and will be tried for perjury.

DETROIT, September 10.—The netorious Dr.

Buchanan will be taken back to Phila delphia on a requisition which has been procured
