GENERAL NEWS.

Secretary Folger will take strong ground against the further coinage of silver dollars. England has offered to mediate between Turkey and Greece in regard to the settlement of their differences.

The Grant-Conkling hostility to Hancock has at length appeared at Washington, and is said to be very strong. It may elect him speaker.

Judge Porter's cross-examination of Guiteau marks the advent of a great lawyer in the trial. The inconsistencies of the prisoner's different stories and explanations are strongly brought out.

The officers in charge of the crank department at police headquarters at Washington sent four cranks to the government insane asylum on Wednesday.

The farmers in England and Scotland are carrying on the agitation for land reform with great vigor. The prevailing opinion is that the government should attempt to make a permanent settlement and not adopt piecemeal legislation.

It is semi-officially announced that the Gladstone ministry will hold no more cabinet meetings this year. This decision excited great surprise in view of the disturbed condition of Ireland.

The executive power in Maine plainly needs to be boiled down. After seven months and more of consideration, which it is to be presumed, was careful, if not prayerful, the Supreme Court of the Pine Tree State has decided, in effect, that the Governor is not the executive power, but that the Governor and his seven councilors (who are not councilors) are.

The Richmond and Danville Railroad company have for some weeks past had a large force of engineers employed in making a thorough survey from Clarksville along the line of the old Roanoke Valley Railroad, in the direction of the Raleigh and Gaston road, which road, it is surmised, will be tapped at or near Henderson.

A "mental philosopher" writes of Guiteau that, since his trial began, no one in the court room has shown a sharper insight into the whole case than he, and no matter what the points in dispute, or how sharply the attorneys differ, Guiteau never loses the thread for an instant, and, quick as thought, is ready to interject his agreement with either side that just at the moment is most to his advantage.

THAT TERRIBLE ASSASSIN.

His Behavior Even Worse than Usual—He Does Not Relish Evidence Given Against Him.

WASHINGTON, December 5.—Guiteau was brought to the court house little later than usual, and the court was not opened until 11 o'clock. An immense crowd had gathered on the sidewalk, and when Guiteau alighted from the van, he evinced unusual trepidation, and begged the officers to take him around to the back entrance. He was assured the escort was ample for his safety, and with trembling steps and cringing gait quickly shuffled through the angry crowd.

By Mr. Logan—To place General Grant on the retired list of the army. By Mr. Sherman—To provide for the issue of three per cent. bonds to the amount of three hundred millions, the proceeds to be applied to the redemption of the three-and-half per cent.

By Mr. Garland—To provide for a tariff commission. This bill is a substitute for Mr. Eaton's bill of 1880. Also, by Mr. Morrill—To investigate the tariff question.

By Mr. Grover—Restricting Chinese immigration, being mainly a copy of the vetoed fifteen-passenger bill of 1879. By Mr. Coke—Allotting lands in severalty to Indians on various reservations and for other purposes.

Mr. Pendleton gave notice that he would to-morrow introduce his civil service reform bill. The Senate then took a recess from 1:15 to 2:30.

Upon reassembling a resolution was introduced continuing the committees of last session, pending which the Senate adjourned. The House met at noon and the roll was called, showing four members absent.

Mr. Keifer was elected Speaker, and the swearing in of members was proceeded with. Considerable discussion ensued over contested seats and still continues. Two hundred and ninety members answered the roll call, the absentees being Messrs. Morse, Seales and Deuster.

Mr. Calkins then called up the case of Dibble, of South Carolina, and offered a resolution referring the matter to the committee on elections when appointed. He gave a statement of the circumstances under which Dibble was elected, and contended that there was no vacancy, inasmuch as it might be that Mackey had originally been elected.

Mr. Evans, of South Carolina, moved to lay Mr. Calkins' resolution on the table, and it being agreed to Dibble appeared and qualified. Mr. McPherson was elected clerk, the vote being McPherson 148, Adams 129 and De LaMatry 9.

Mr. Brown, of Indiana, took opposite ground, and argued that Dibble had as good a prima facie right to a seat as any other member. Mr. Evans, of South Carolina, moved to lay Mr. Calkins' resolution on the table, and it being agreed to Dibble appeared and qualified.

Mr. McPherson was elected clerk, the vote being McPherson 148, Adams 129 and De LaMatry 9. Hooker, Brownlow and Sherwood were then elected sergeant-at-arms, doorkeeper and postmaster on one vote, and all the officers were sworn in.

sented by the chair and laid on the table. The hour of meeting daily was fixed at 12 o'clock.

A number of bills were introduced, and the Senate took a recess until half-past two. Upon reassembling Mr. Edmunds offered a resolution continuing committees as now constituted.

Mr. Pryor offered an amendment requesting the President of the Senate to decide whether committees should be divided equally between the two political parties or not. Without decision the Senate adjourned.

resolution, and his motion was carried—yeas 53, nays 42.

Representative McKenna, of West Virginia, then moved that the caucus endorse and put in nomination as the candidate of the Democrats all the officers of the last House, and the motion was carried viva voce without dissent.

The caucus then adjourned subject to the call of the chairman. Crimes and Casualties. NEW ORLEANS, December 5.—Thos. C. Holton, aged 25 years, was accidentally shot and killed by James McDavid, aged 16 years, yesterday.

A special to the Times-Democrat from Vicksburg reports the killing of J. D. McGraft, planter and storekeeper at Sunny Side Landing, by Samuel Cole, a half crazy negro.
