LOCAL.

Personal.
Senator Vance has accepted the invitation to deliver an address at the Cumberland county Fair on November 10th.
Miss Mary Miller is visiting in Fayetteville.
Miss Carrie Irbie of Pittsboro is visiting the Family of Capt. C. B. Denson.
Rev. Dr. Geo. B. Taylor delivered a very fine lecture on Rome at Wake Forest College yesterday. He leaves for Rome in a few days.
Miss Rebecca Sloman has returned from a visit to New York.
Miss Annie Conigland, of Warrenton, who was elected a teacher in the Raleigh graded schools last week, has arrived in the city.
J. S. Manning, Esq., of Durham, is in the city.
Mr. E. W. Pou, of Smithfield, is at the Yarbrow.
Mr. Leo. D. Heart has resigned as assistant cashier of the State National Bank of this city to accept the office of cashier of the new National Bank in Durham.
Mr. F. W. Clark, of the Seaboard Air Line, returned last night from St. Paul, Minn. where he attended a large convention of railroad men.

"The Little Tycoon."
The regular announcement of this beautiful opera appears in our advertising columns this morning. We have already announced that the box sheet was open at Lee, Johnson & Co's drug store, and we are pleased to see that the seats are being promptly taken. Everything promises well. The opera has been thoroughly rehearsed and will be handsomely put on the stage. The costumes are being elaborately gotten up, especially those of the ladies. In this connection, we are requested to say, that at the first meeting of the company a resolution was adopted that all the characters should pay for their own costumes, and with a few unavoidable exceptions, of small moment, this rule has been scrupulously adhered to. There is no free list except the usual number of complimentary tickets to the press. There will not be a dollar of expense beyond what is necessary to put the opera properly on the stage. Beyond this, every dollar goes to St. John's Hospital.—This ought to fill every seat in the hall. For the opera itself nothing remains to be said. We have refrained from printing the names of the ladies and gentlemen who will appear, but it may safely be said that such an assembly of beauty and talent has seldom been seen on an amateur stage. We speak of the ladies, of course, especially as to the beauty. The gentlemen may blow their own trumpet. We predict a brilliant success and a handsome addition to the funds of the hospital.

The Schools.
All the graded schools of the city will open tomorrow. The session opens with increased facilities for classifying grades and imparting instruction by the addition of the handsome new school building just completed on North Person street. The attendance of pupils will doubtless be larger than ever before, but so many will not be seen at morning and evening on Fayetteville street as heretofore, for many who have been attending the Centennial school will be transferred to the Murphey school. The new building is not owned by the city, but was built for the purpose to which it will be put, by Dr. W. J. Hawkins and Col. A. B. Andrews from whom it is leased by the Raleigh school committee. The lease is for twenty years at a rental of $900 a year. During this time the buildings and premises are to be kept in thorough order and repair by the owners, though all damage to windows, locks, &c., must be paid for by the committee on the part of the city. The city however, will not repair damage caused by lightning, fire or any act of Providence. The city has the option to purchase the buildings and lot at any time during the lease at a price agreed upon by the owners and the committee, and if they cannot agree, the matter will be referred to an arbitration committee of three whose decision shall be binding. In case the buildings are at any time destroyed by fire or any act of Providence, or without default on the part of the lessees, the contract of lease shall cease at once, unless the buildings are immediately replaced in such condition as they were before the accident; but the lease does not require the replacing of the buildings.

At a meeting of the teachers yesterday assignments to schools and grades were made as follows:
CENTENNIAL SCHOOL.
Seventh grade, Mr. W. V. Savage; sixth grade, Miss Metta Fogler; fifth grade, Mrs. S. S. Williams; fourth grade, Miss Jean C. Gales; third grade, Miss Lula Riddle; second grade, Miss Lillian Branson; first grade, Miss Mamie Bates; first grade, Miss Grace Bates and Miss Minnie Redford.
MURPHEY SCHOOL.
Seventh grade, Mr. J. D. Miller; sixth grade, Miss Carrie Strong; fifth grade, Miss Lucy Jurney; fourth grade, Miss Eliza Pool; third grade, Miss Annie Conigland; second grade, Mrs. James Williamson; first grade, Mrs. J. M. Barbee and Miss Ruth Luiner.

Report on Water Works.
Mr. J. L. Ludlow, civil engineer, who was selected as an expert by the water works committee to make an examination of the water works for the purpose of ascertaining if all the requirements of the contract had been complied with, has completed his report. It states that every thing is in the most complete order and condition and that every item in the contract is complied with—that the system of works is a splendid one and that it will at any time do more than is required of it. The report will be officially presented at a meeting of the board of aldermen which will probably be held tomorrow night for the purpose of considering the same.

Trivial and Frivolous Cases in Court.
The grand jury for the present term of Wake county superior court yesterday presented to the presiding judge a memorial protesting against the introduction of various cases of a trivial and frivolous character in the Superior courts of the State. The memorial will doubtless express the opinions of many and meet popular approval. It reads as follows:
The Hon. Jas. H. Merrimon, Presiding Judge, &c.
The grand jury trust that they are not exceeding the scope of their privilege, when as they believe, in the interest of economy, good order and the proper execution of the law in North Carolina, they venture to protest against the present method of introducing what may be properly called trivial cases in the Superior Courts of the State.
Much of the time of the present grand jury has been taken up in examining the most trivial and almost frivolous cases; in larceny and receiving, the stealing of one chicken; in embezzlement, the alleged misappropriation of one load of wood; as well as in a large number of cases involving sums of less amount than five dollars, illustration is furnished of the work which has engaged the attention of the solicitor, the grand jury and the court for a considerable part of their time.
It is proper to state that in these cases commitment had been made by magistrates under existing laws, which made it the duty of the solicitor to draw bills of indictment and caused the summoning of from two to six witnesses in each case; a heavy cost to the county and the State.
The grand jury respectfully make this protest, with the desire that the legal associations of the State and the people at large will endeavor to bring such influences to bear on the next Legislature as may induce that body to better define and arrange for the more simple and economical hearing of such petty cases to which allusion has been made.
Submitted with the great respect of the grand jury, by their order,
W. S. PARMOR, Foreman.

Supreme Court.
Court met yesterday at 11 o'clock. Appeals from first district disposed of as follows:
Edwards vs. Cowper, from Hertford; certiorari issued on motion of plaintiff; returnable to next term.
Thomas vs. Wright, from Beaufort; argued by Mr. W. B. Rodman, Jr., for plaintiff; no counsel contra.
Hinton vs. Pritchard, from Pasquotank; argued by Messrs. Grady and Ayldett for plaintiff; and Mr. John Gatling for defendant.
Hodges vs. Latham, from Beaufort; argued by Mr. George H. Brown, Jr., for the plaintiff; no counsel for defendant.

Union of Christians.
Cor. of the News and Observer.
Elder C. W. Martz, the earnest advocate of an sectarian and undenominational Christianity will preach this afternoon at 4 o'clock, in "Bledsoe's Grove." The members of the "Church of Christ," known in their church relations by the Scriptural designations as "Disciples of Christ" or "Christians" make an earnest plea for a return to original or primitive Christianity, in letter and in spirit, in principle and in practice. Having no church edifice of their own as yet, in this city, and being denied access to the pulpit of some of the city churches, for various reasons, thought to be good and sufficient by their occupants, we must obtain a hearing for the present wherever we can.

Come and hear us and let the teaching be tested in that "fiery light" that makes manifest its truth or falsity.
If anyone who hears, and feels sure that we are a "sect" or "denomination" in the modern use of these terms, instead of the "Church of Christ" as we aim to be, then I respectfully and earnestly ask that one who ever he may be, in the fear of God and in the love of truth to respond at his convenience, to the following questions and to favor me with a copy of his response:
1. Is the Church of Christ a sect or a denomination in the sense in which these words are commonly used?
2. Can one be identified with, and be an active member of the Church of Christ, in our day, without being identified with a sect?
If one can be thus identified with the Church of Christ, and yet not be identified with any sect or denomination, how can he be so identified?
The man who can show me that I am now identified in my church relations with a sect, and can show me how I may be identified with the "Church of Christ" without any sect identification, will place me under a debt of perpetual gratitude to him for the kindness. Respectfully,
C. W. MARTZ.

DISCONCERTED.

THE SCOTCHMEN ON THE THISTLE OVER THEIR DEFEAT.

UNABLE TO EXPLAIN TO THEMSELVES HOW IT HAPPENED—THE LONDON PRESS ON THE RESULT—OTHER NEWS BY WIRE.

GLASGOW, Oct. 1.—Mr. Muir, of Dumbarton, owner of the yacht Mabel, has determined to build a ninety-ton cutter to compete for the America's cup in America next year unless Mr. Bell again challenges for it. The designer of Mr. Muir's will be Mr. Eife, Jr., of Fairlee, and Capt. Robert Duncan, of Gourcock, row master of the Marjorie and formerly master of the Madge, will be her captain.

NEW YORK, October 1.—The Scotchmen on the Thistle seem to be a little disconcerted this morning. They were in pretty good humor, although unable to satisfactorily explain to themselves how their cutter was so badly beaten. Mr. Bell still insisted that the twenty miles to windward and return course is unfair, but would like to meet the Volunteer in a run to leeward alone. He says the Thistle will enter in any contest with big sloops where the course suits him. He prefers a square course and would not accept a triangular one. He says he did not expect to win yesterday, yet did not give up the race until 1 o'clock. A miscalculation as to the position of the outer mark was made, and by this several minutes were lost. Mr. and Mrs. Bell will return home on the 12th instant.

The British Press on the Defeat.
LONDON, Oct. 1.—In commenting on the yacht race the Telegraph says: "We are whipped and, honestly beaten. Nor ought a single ungenerous word to be uttered impugning the honor or glory of the victors. We are sorry to record the victory, but the Volunteer is the better all around racing ship. The Thistle could probably out sail the Volunteer or a long sea voyage. The former was defeated but not disgraced. We hope to repeat the challenge in 1888."

The Times says: "It is now perfectly clear that if we are to beat the Americans in their own waters and bring back the cup we must condescend to take a leaf out of their book."

Blasted Up With Dynamite.
UNIONTOWNS, Pa., October 1.—The large boiler and pumps at Blish & Marshall's Laclede works were blown to pieces by dynamite Thursday night. Their employees have been on a strike for several weeks and it is supposed that the outrage was committed by some of the strikers. The damage was about $8,000. On the same night a party of strikers surrounded the houses of non-union men for the purpose of driving them away, but the mob was frightened off by armed officers who have been guarding the works. The firm claims that the strike is broken.

An Exiled Archbishop.
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 1.—Ricardo Canavate, the exiled archbishop of Guatemala, arrived here yesterday by the Panama steamer. He declines to be interviewed with reference to the late differences which arose between the Catholic church and the civil government and which led to his being driven from Guatemala by President Barrios. The archbishop intimates, however, that he will soon make a proper presentation of his case.

A Large League Meeting.
DUBLIN, Oct. 1.—Mr. Wm. O'Brien, Lord Mayor Sullivan of Dublin, and Prof. Stuart succeeded in holding a large league meeting yesterday on the estate of the Marquis of Lansdowne at Luggacurran without the knowledge of the authorities, and, therefore, without the interference of the police. Mr. O'Brien made a strong speech supporting a vigorous continuance of the plan of campaign inaugurated by the league.

Total Viable Supply of Cotton.
NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—The total viable supply of cotton for the world is 1,605,942 bales, of which 1,018,142 bales are American; against 1,203,357 bales and 822,857 bales respectively last year. Receipts of cotton for the week from all interior towns, 147,886 bales; receipts from plantations, 275,152 bales.

The Cholera at New York.
NEW YORK, October 1.—At the office of the quarantine commission today three deaths were reported from cholera at Swinburne Island. Five new cases have been taken from Hoffman's to Swinburne Island since the last report. There are now seventeen cases on the island and most of them are getting on favorably despite the weather.

The President will Stop in Asheville.
ASHEVILLE, N. C., Oct. 1.—A letter received today by the president of the Asheville Board of Trade from Col. Daniel Lamont, private secretary of President Cleveland, says that the President has consented to stop at Asheville while on his way to Washington from Montgomery, Ala. He will reach here on Friday, October 21st.

Attention! Rescue.
Regular monthly meeting of your company tomorrow night at 8 o'clock.

THE PRESIDENT AND HIS PARTY EN ROUTE.

INDIANAPOLIS, October 1.—Daybreak found the President's train in western Ohio about two hours west of Columbus. It was now moving upon single track lines and its printed special time card bore the legend, "This train will run extra with absolute right of track over all trains."

The night was passed comfortably by the excursionists and without notable incident.

A brass band serenade was experienced a little before midnight and from time to time at stopping places voices were heard calling to each other in the darkness. "Where is he?" About a thousand persons were at the station at Columbus when the train arrived at 4:30. They were very quiet, gathering about the rear platform and contenting themselves with looking at the car which contained the President. A telegram had been received by Col. Lamont at Pittsburg from Congressman Outwater urging a stop at Columbus, but the reply was made that owing to the early hour it would be impossible.

At Bradford Junction, at 7 o'clock, the President made his first appearance and greeted a little crowd of a hundred which had gathered about his car with a hearty "Good morning."

"We would like also to see your wife" said one of the crowd.
"That is impossible now," replied the President. "She has a hard day's task before her and is resting."

"Well, we are right glad to see you, sir," said the spokesman of the crowd.

"I thank you for that," rejoined the President, "but of the two, I expect you would prefer to see Mrs. Cleveland."

At Richmond, Ind., a half acre of solid humanity awaited the train. The five minutes stop was spent in handshaking, the President remaining upon the platform of his car and grasping the hands reached up to him.

Breakfast was the only incident of the run from Richmond to Indianapolis.

At Indianapolis the day had dawned in drizzling rain, from which cause the crowd was not so great as it would otherwise have been. But it cleared and the sun came out by the time the President arrived.

The line of march, straight down Washington street from the railroad crossing where the President left the cars to the State House, where he was formally received and had his reception, is just about a mile in length, and on either side the walk were packed with people. The view up Main street was an inspiring one with breeze enough to make a vista of fluttering color. The procession moved promptly at 11 o'clock. First came a squad of mounted police. Next the Governor's staff in gorgeous official uniform, while behind marched a platoon of police, followed by a band of musicians. Behind those marched the light infantry, making a striking display. Then Chief Marshal General Kneller and staff, and immediately following, the President's escort, the Hendricks clubs to the number of 200 or 300 men whose uniform appearance was attained by tall hats of gray with black bands, black clothes, club badge and cane carried by each member. The club formed in a hollow square surrounding the President's carriage and followed at either side ranged in rows two abreast. The open carriage, hidden almost by a drapery of flags, was drawn by eight powerful white horses gaily caparisoned.

On the back seat to the right sat the President. By his side was Mrs. Cleveland. On the opposite seat was ex-Senator McDonald, these three being the sole occupants.

The progress of the vehicle was marked by occasional cheers, but chiefly by the shrill cries and cat-calls of boys. Hats and handkerchiefs were waved from every window, but manifestly the carriage was the chief object of all eyes and curiosity looked its full.

The President, in his customary suit of black with hat to match, manifested a presence that met all that high expectation had looked for. Curiosity and criticism were alike satisfied, and as the carriage moved slowly up the street there was distinctly felt a social atmosphere and greeting which was a tribute altogether fitting and of finer flavor than the noisy demonstration of political gatherings.

The general manner gave this out as the crowd swept over the curbstones into the street, making two great streams of people flowing down behind the escorting clubs. Men and women with babes in arms and children were undeterred by the muddy condition of the street, and yet with all there was nothing motley in the mass. It was well mannered, cordial and respectful.

On reaching the State House, in the presence of about 25,000 people, Gov. Gray introduced the President to the multitude in an address welcoming him to the State of Indiana.

Weekly Bank Statement.
NEW YORK, October 1.—The following is the weekly statement of the associated banks: Reserve increase, $3,200,375; loans decrease, $1,633,400; specie increase, $4,622,000; legal tenders decrease, $45,000; deposits increase, $3,890,100; circulation decrease, $32,800. The banks now hold $9,017,000 in excess of the 25 per cent rule.

A CYCLONE

IN MECKLENBURG COUNTY, THIS STATE.

PEELING OFF TREE TOPS AND UNROOFING HOUSES—FUNNEL SHAPED, DIPPING DOWN NOW AND THEN AND OTHER WISE BEHAVING LIKE ALL OTHERS OF ITS KIND—OTHER TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

CHICAGO, October 1.—A Times Charlotte, N. C., special says: Citizens of Sharon township report that a cyclone passed over their section Wednesday afternoon, tearing through the clouds like a big balloon, dipping down and rising again, carrying an eddy mass of fence rails and tree limbs in its circling path. It looked like a big black funnel and it whirled around like a huge top. It was about 100 feet above the surface of the earth, but would occasionally dip down, wrench off tree tops and sweep up fences. The cyclone traveled at the rate of 35 miles an hour and made a tremendous roar. It dipped down on the plantation of Mr. Alexander, tore up a number of peach and apple trees, took away the roof of his house and, rising again, disappeared in the direction of Philadelphia church. The skies were overcast with heavy clouds, among which a visible commotion was made as the black funnel-shaped mass tore its way through.

The Woman's Relief Corps.
ST. LOUIS, October 1.—The Woman's Relief Corps concluded its session last night by an election of officers for the ensuing year. Mrs. Hampton, of Michigan, was elected national president; Mrs. Cora Day Young, of Toledo, O., senior vice president. A committee of five of the Grand Army, consisting of General Edgar Allen, Paul C. Vandervoort, John C. Linehan and Colonel Tokio W. Bean, waited on the Woman's Relief Corps while in session to present resolutions of the Grand Army Encampment of congratulation and greeting. Addresses were delivered by General Allen and Mr. Vandervoort, and at the conclusion of General Allen's speech, which dwelt largely upon the observance of Memorial Day in the cemeteries surrounding Richmond, Va., the Woman's Relief Corps, by unanimous vote, appropriated a sum of money sufficient to purchase all the flowers necessary for the decoration of the graves of the Union dead in those cemeteries on the next national Memorial Day.

Banned to Death in the Fourth Story.
DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 1.—A fire broke out at about 3:15 o'clock this morning in the English Kitchen, a cheap lodging house at 224 Jefferson avenue. When the fire department arrived the upper windows of the four story building were alive with half-dressed lodgers screaming for help. All except three were rescued in safety. One was burned almost beyond recognition; a second died from suffocation before he was removed from the building, and the third, Charles Peterson, aged 22 years, though rescued alive, is in a condition which renders his recovery very doubtful. The dead men were Mr. Stroth, of Breckenridge, Mo., and an unknown man aged about 25 years. The loss on the building will not exceed $5,000.

Acquitted on the Plea of Insanity.
LYNCHBURG, Va., Oct. 1.—On the trial of Mrs. Horley, for trying to pass a forged check on a New Orleans bank, she was released on the plea of insanity.

Sales of Leaf Tobacco.
DANVILLE, Va., Oct. 1.—Sales of leaf tobacco in this market for the year ended October 1st amount to 29,342,728 pounds at an average price of $8.65 per hundred. The sales for the year ended October 1, 1886, amounted to 40,353,942 pounds at an average of $9.41.

Free delivery of the mails went into effect here today.

Briggs' Hall.
Cor. of the News and Observer.
This place has been seated with chairs and otherwise fitted up for the use of Person St. Meth. congregation till their new building is ready for them. They were fortunate in securing so convenient and commodious hall. It is over Briggs' store, and can be reached by a single flight of easy stairs from Fayetteville, or Salisbury streets, Rev. R. B. John will preach there this morning and evening and regularly every Sunday till further notice is given.

Col. E. H. Cameron, whose insurance agency in this city is widely known and everywhere most highly esteemed for reliability and promptitude in making settlements, has recently received the following:
GRAHAM, N. C., Sept. 21, 1887.
Col. F. H. Cameron, Superintendent Life Insurance Company of Virginia.

MY DEAR SIR—I have this day received from Mr. V. G. Huddlely, agent at Greensboro, your check for $1,900, in full payment of the policy on the life of my husband, Jas. W. White. I thank you for the promptness with which your company has settled this loss, and I cheerfully recommend the Life Insurance Company of Virginia to all who have insurance.

Yours very respectfully,
EMMA V. WHITE.

Killed by an Express Train.
COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 1.—On the Columbus & Cincinnati railroad last evening an express train, running at the rate of thirty-five miles per hour, ran into a buggy which was crossing the track at Morgan station about five miles from the city. The buggy contained two aged ladies, Mrs. Susan Bell, a widow who resides in the neighborhood, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. E. W. Henderson, of Salem, Iowa. The buggy was torn to pieces and the two women killed instantly and thrown into a field.

Give Them a Change!
That is to say your lungs. Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger air passages, but the thousands of little tubes and cavities leading from them.

When these are clogged and choked with mucus which ought not to be there, your lungs cannot half do the work. And what they do they cannot do well. Call it cold, cough, croup, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is just one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Bepchee's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if everything else has failed you, you may depend upon this for certain.

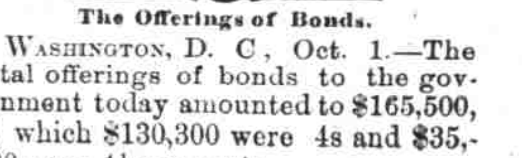

The Offerings of Bonds.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 1.—The total offerings of bonds to the government today amounted to $165,500, of which $130,300 were 4s and $35,200 were 4 1/2 per cents.

A Boon for Travelers.
The traveler who guards against sudden attacks of cold, headache, indigestion, diarrhoea, etc., ailments not frequently brought on by changes of climate and water, is the sensible far-seeing man. Always have handy in your valise or trunk a box of Alcock's Porous Plasters. Worn on the pit of the stomach they will so strengthen the digestive organs that you can eat almost anything, and travel without fear of taking cold.
