PIECE VELVET, FRINGES, GALLOONS, GIMP AND CORD.

By Telegraph to the News and Observer. Candago, April 8 .--- The jury in the somewhat notable women's hat trim mings case returned a verdict in the United States court this morning. This was a test case brought by sev-eral importers of millinery to test the construction put on the law by the customs officers of the country. The result is a victory for the plain-tiffs. By the terms of the verdict, hat trimmings, including piece velvet, hat trimmings, including piece velvet, double braid fringes, galloons, gimp and cord, may be imported at a duty of 20 per cent instead of 40 to 50 per cent as the collector had directed. Sash ribbon, the court decided, must pay the silk and satin duty of 40 to 60 per cent.

The prisoner was Madame Albert L. Homme Vouglinvale, an educated and refined woman of nearly 70 years. She compied one of the most costly suits of state-rooms on the French steamer LaGascogne. She had six teenilarge trunks filled with property on board. The boarding officers found that she was insane and caused her removal to Castle Garden. The physician there said that her malady was incurable. Her maiden name, Susar Kennedy, was marked on her baggage. She said she was a widow, her husband, Albert L. Homme Vouglinvale, having died in Paris 15 years ago. She comes of an excellent Cornish family. Her brother Hugh Kennedy, was for many years British Consul at Louisville, Ky, where her three nieces, whom she was on her way to visit now reside. Another brother was a greduate of the Royal College of Surgeons, Dublin. She is a fluent conversationalist and and speaks French, Spanish and German. were busy yesterday investigating the story that the boomers concealed in the woods of Oklahoma had banded together for the purpose of destroy-ing the railroad bridges on the night of April 21st in order to obstruct the influx of homesteaders until the men concealed in the country could make perfect their claims. It appears that the boomers in hiding are desperate They have selected and watched their claims for years, and they now fear that the new-comers, with the assistance of rapid transit, may get the beat of them. There was a meeting of these boomers held in the timber hear Oklahoma City lest Thursday and they canvassed the situation After the meeting adjourned the Santa Fe agent received notice that the bridges would be burned and the trains stopped on April 221 as the old boomers did not propose to jeopard ize their chances by allowing a flood of tenderfeet to drop in on the land hey hal picked out. Detectives have een sent along the line through the country and every precaution will be aken to prevent railway obstruction. There are twice as many people now on the borders as can be accommo-dated under the homestead act in Oklahoma. Many of them represent colonies and are here as the advance agents. There will be men here rep resenting colonies from Washington. California, Utab, Colorado, Nebraska, Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin and Alabama. The colonies number from wenty to five hundred parsons. Last evening twenty empty passenger coaches pulled into this city on the Santa Fe attached to the regular freight train and were run into the pards to await the 22d. A railroader said that the Santa Fe had four hun-dred cars already engaged by parties who desire household goods removed to this point before the 21st. The crowd has increased here to such pro portions that percens who get their mail at the free delivery windows at the postoffice are compelled to form into a procession and then it is fre quently five or six hours before they can get to the window for their mail. As a consequence of this large influx of people here real estate has com-menced changing hands. The sales of Saturday amounted to $62,000.

The Gale at Norfolk.

By Telegraph to the News and Observer. WASHINGTON, April 8 .- The following telegram was received at the Navy department today from Com mander Brown of the Norfolk navy yard: "A heavy northeast gale set in about midnight Saturday. The water rose suddenly and was higher than ever before known, being about a foot above the coping of the dry dock. The Penssoola was lifted from he blocks, filled with water through the old and new Kingston valve openings and settled diagonally across the blocks. The water is over gun deck. The diver reports that there was no injury to the bottom. Have plugged the holes and expect to pump ship dry, readjust blocks and dock again. The gale continues"

The reason why great men me with so little pity or attachment in adversity would seem to be this: The friends of a great man were made by his fortunes, his enemies by himself, and revenge is a much more punctual paymenter than gratitude. Those whom a great man has married rejoice at his ruin, and those whom he has made look on with indifference. because with common minds, the destruction of the creditor is ered as equivalent to the payment of the debt -- Colton.

Semi-Contennial Beminiscences, Vilmington Beview.

This day, April 34, 1889, is the emi-centennial anniversary of the laying of the scrner stone of St. James' Ohurch. The old edifice, which was a barn like structure, was town down in 1839 and the present handsome edifice (which has lately been added to) was erected. The church was consecrated on the fourth Sunday in Lont, March 26th, 1840. Rev. Robert B. Drane, was at that time its rector, Dr. A. J. DeBosset the elder and Mr. Wm. B. Lord were the Ohurch Wardens and the vestry was composed of Dr. Thos. H. Wright, Dr. A. J. DeBosset, Jr., and Messrs. William B. Giles, William A. Williams and James T. Miller. The population of Wilmington at that time was 3,500. Martin Van Buren was President of the United States, Edward B. Dudley was Governor of North Carolina, Alexander Anderson was Magistrate of Police (chief municipal officer), Dr. James F. McRee, Dr. A. J. DeRosset, Jr., W. J. Harriss and E. P. Hall were commissioners of the town and John A. Lillington was town clerk. The old church stood about fifty yards east of the present site, near the corner of the graveyard. It was partly on Market street.

There is one coincidence which must be narrated. This was the seizure and occupation of the church by vandals. The old church was taken possession of by Tarleton's dragoons in 1780 and converted into a riding school, and Schofield and Hawley, both worthy to wear Tarleton's mantle, took possession of the present structure in 1865 and converted it into a military hospital.
