A Negro Lyucked.

By Telegraph to the News and Observer. NASHVILLE, Tenn., July 14 .- A another negro charged with larceny from an officer. Instead of taking Gillespie to Hernando county seat, and lodging him in jail, Deputy Sheriff Elder, who had charge of him, concluded to keep him confined in the room at Love until this morning. About midnight a mob of maeked men forced an entrance to the room, took charge of the negro, marched him to a tree a short, distance away, tied him and shot him to death. The corpse was found with twenty-one bullet holes in different parts of his body. The coroner held an inquest, the result of which was a verdict that the deceased was shot and killed by persons unknown. Gillespie was regarded as a bad negro. He had a fight with a white man about six months ago and won the Death of Gen. Thomas Harrison.

By Telegraph to the News and Observer. ST. Louis, June 14.-A dispatch from Waco, Texas, announces the death there of Gen. Thomas Harrison. He was born in Alabama in 1823, moved to Mississippi in his early youth where he was reared and educated; served throughout the Mexican war and the war between the States, participating in the capture of Murfreesboro, the campaign against Knoxville, and had taken a prominent part in the politics of the State of Texas up to 1872, since which time he has devoted himself to his law practice.

A Sealing Schooner Stopped. By Telegraph to the News and Observer.

VICTORIA, B. C., July 14 .- The sealing schooner, Maggie Mac, Capt. Cox, returned from the north last evening. Capt. Cox reports being stopped at the entrance to Bering Sea by the United States steamer Thetis, shown a proclamation and warned if caught in the sea after notification his vessel would be seized. The schooner therefore returned to Victoria, having only three skins. She reports the other schooners on the way home after having been

A Large Failure.

By Telegraph to the News and Observer. PITTSBURG, Pa., July 14.-A rumor on the streets this afternoon that Nimick & Co., dealers in pig iron, were financially embarrassed created considerable excitement for a time. Their liabilities were placed at one million dollars. It was learned that the firm had concluded to wind up their business, which will require an extension on its obligations to prevent sacrifice. Their creditors will not lose a dollar, as the assets are nearly two dollars to one of the liabilities. Nimick's other interests are not in any way involved.

A Glucose Trust Formed.

By Telegraph to the News and Observer. CHICAGO, July 14.—The American glucose will hereafter be controlled by an English syndicate. A contract by which the principal glucose houses were purchased was closed yesterday. The syndicate will also, it is said, compete with the starch combine and invade the territory of the whisky trust. The combined capacity of the eight factories in the trust is 60,000 to 70,000 bushels of corn a day. The property held by the eight companies is valued at $16,000,000, and it said that to handle these plants the English Company will float bonds amounting to $20,000,000 par value.

Extra Expense of the New Death Penalty to Tax-Payers.

New York Morning Advertiser. It cost the State over $5,000 to kill the four men who were electrocuted at Sing Sing last Tuesday. The greatest single item of expense in the new method of killing was for the electrical apparatus. The machines in use at Sing Sing were manufactured by the Westinghouse Company. They were bought at second hand, and the exact amount paid for them has never been made public These machines are sold when new for $2,000. The Westinghouse people do not think that the amount actually paid was more than half that sum. This would make the cost of the two killing machines at Sing Sing $2,000. It costs the State more to pay its electrical expert who takes charge of the killing machines and properly charges them with electricity at the time of an execution than it did in the old days to pay the hangman.
