

SEVENTH STREET CHURCH NOTES.

By Mrs. Hallie Q. Mayberry.

With this issue of the Afro please accept my resignation as editor of the Seventh Street church column. I have greatly enjoyed this work and regret to give it up, but as duties call me elsewhere on the Sabbath I feel that a regular attendant at the services can give a fuller report and write far more intelligently than I. My interest in the church will ever linger.

On last Sunday our pastor delivered two strong and very practical sermons. Sunday morning he spoke from the subject, "Humility." His text was Matt. 12:19. His subject for Sunday evening was "Laboring with God," text Luke 10:2.

Five dollars was sent to Mr. J. E. Hemphill, chairman of the deacons' board, by Mrs. F. P. Sanders, of our church, who is now residing in New York City. The members of the church greatly appreciate the interest and financial support given by the members outside of the city.

The financial committee is asking one hundred members to raise or pay $10.00 each to the support of the church by the first Sunday in December.

An interesting Christian Endeavor meeting was conducted at our church on last Sunday evening. Among the musical numbers were a solo by Little Miss Helen Gibson and a duet by Misses Catherine Yongue and Lucile Henderson.

A Hallow'en Party will be given at the home of Mrs. A. L. Lindsay, 402 N. Alexander St. tonight, Thursday. The proceeds will benefit the Building Fund.

The members of the Seventh Street Guild will hold the first business meeting this afternoon (Thursday) at the residence of Mrs. Isabelle Ezell, E. 8th St.

A congregational meeting was held in the Sunday school auditorium on last Wednesday evening, October 21st. The program committee consisting of Prof. J. D. Martin, Messrs. W. E. Hill and E. M. Dixon, arranged an excellent program at the close of which reports from the Secretary and Treasurer of the church were received.

Reports from all the organizations of the church for the first six months' work were read. All the reports showed progress along many lines. All the auxiliaries seemed to be alive, with a well organized program. A rising vote of thanks was given for these splendid reports.

Delicious cream and cake was served at the close.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lindsay, of South Alexander Street, are receiving congratulations over the birth of a fine daughter, Sunday, October 25th.

Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Long, of Coulter Academy, Cheraw, S. C., in company with three of their teachers, spent last Saturday in our city as guests of Mrs. C. M. Stafford, 400 N. Myers St.

Mrs. Alice M. Ford, of Hendersonville, spent several days in the city last week, the guest of Miss Mary L. Porter, 305 S. Myers St.

SEVENTH STREET GUILD ORGANIZED.

On Thursday afternoon, October 22nd, at 5 o'clock, a few of the members of the Westminster Guild met at the home of Mrs. Ada Andrews for the purpose of disbanding. For some time a controversy has been going on relative to the age limit for members of the Westminster Guild chapter. As most of the members of the Westminster Guild were above the age limit required for Westminster chapters, the members deemed it best to reorganize and meet the requirements. The requirements necessitated the organization of a Westminster chapter and circle. Both of these organizations have been organized and are doing excellent work.

Dr. Wyche, the pastor of the church, was with us at this meeting and acted as chairman. Having full authority vested in him by the members present, he declared the Westminster chapter dissolved.

The new organization was then perfected with the name, Seventh Street Church Guild. The officers are President, Mrs. L. M. Alexander; Secretary, Miss M. L. Lindsay; Treasurer, Mrs. M. E. Muldrow. A motion was made and carried that we work under the World Service Program.

The pastor stated that we were not connected with any local society, but are one of the independent organizations of the church.

The new organization was constituted with prayer by the pastor. Members present were: Mesdames L. M. Alexander, M. E. Muldrow, Ida Henderson, C. M. Stafford, Isabella Ezell, Angeline Porter, Rosa Goodwin, Julia Douglass, Janie Miller, Janie Watson, Ada Andrews, Misses Demetria Grier, Martha Young, Marie Lindsay.

Mrs. Janie Watson and Mrs. Janie Miller are new members who have looked upon the work of the Guild with such interest that they desired to become members.

At the close of this wonderful meeting (we say wonderful because of the spirit prevailing) our hostess served a delicious chicken salad course, followed by ices.

The pastor was made to feel he was at home to a regular supper because of the appetizing dishes placed before him.

BIDDLEVILLE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

The pastor, Rev. L. B. West, has completed nine years of service at the Biddleville Presbyterian church. During that time a beautiful brick structure has been erected. The membership has increased from 75 to 133. The contributions for benevolences and current expenses have been more than doubled. The Sunday school has also increased in membership.

The Minister's Aid Society is one of the most active auxiliaries of the church. The society is now raising funds to purchase pulpit furniture. The society is divided into teams, and these teams report at the regular monthly meeting. Next Monday night, November 2nd, the society will meet at the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Partee, when team No. 4 will report. The society plans to have in the furniture by Christmas.

The women of the Missionary Society have been quite active during the year. Not only has the society met all of the Presbyterian claims, but has contributed liberally to the local work of the church. The society is planning to enter actively into the missionary program of the church, as well as local Missionary work. Funds are being raised to carpet the church.

We have had a flourishing Sunday school during the summer. The attendance was large. Efforts will be made to increase the interest in our school so that it will be second to none in our Presbytery. Our Secretary, Miss Sadie Douglass, has gone to school at Atlanta University, Atlanta, Ga. Mr. Julian Stinson, Assistant Secretary, is now doing the work.

The young people of the church rendered excellent service during the summer, in furnishing music for the Sunday services, under the leadership of Mr. Hodge Johnson. Miss Ionia Shute was organist, assisted by Miss Louise Bradshaw and Miss Sadie Douglass. Mr. Felix Walker played the violin. Miss Edna Stinson was organist for the morning services.

Mrs. J. M. Pride and Mr. W. A. Neal have charge of the Junior and Intermediate Christian Endeavor Society. The children are receiving excellent training under their supervision. This society has also contributed funds to the work of the local church.

The last Sunday in November each member is asked to contribute $3.00 in a special offering.

The village Thanksgiving Service will be held this year on Thanksgiving Day in the Biddleville Presbyterian church. Rev. J. D. Cauthen, of Gethsemane A. M. E. Zion church, will preach the sermon.

BARBER COLLEGE NEWS

By Myrtle Brodie

On October the ninth, Mrs. Agnes B. Snively, Secretary of the Division of Missions for Colored People, was a pleasant visitor to this school. She spent three days with us and each day during her stay we were favored with a chapel talk from her. On Friday morning during our devotional hour she placed before us our responsibilities. In doing so she asked us to give our lives to God, to place service in front of other things of life and to answer the call of the world. She impressively compared each student to a lamp and urged each to live such a life that the rays of her light, when thrown upon others, would be beneficial. The following day she gave a talk to us on "The Giving of Gifts," at which time she asked for us the gifts of Prayer, Wisdom, Honor, Ambition, Duty, and the Cultivation of Beauty. The talks by Mrs. Snively will long be remembered by us all.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was observed at Calvary on the 11th. Rev. Mr. Rice preached a glorious sermon from Luke 29:19. The services were very impressive.

Our two Endeavor societies held a joint meeting on Sunday evening. Mrs. Snively addressed us, and Helen Jones, President of the Senior Christian Endeavor, and Naomi Williams gave reports of the work they had done the past summer in organizing Daily Vacation Bible School in our Synod. The meeting was most interesting and challenging to the rest of us. We anticipate much interesting and effective work in these societies this winter.

Vesper services were conducted as usual upon the campus Sunday evening by Miss Ruth Smith. She talked to us about "God's Garden" and left us all questioning ourselves as to what kind of plants we really were.

All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy, and our Dean realizes this, so she permitted us to attend the County Fair on Friday and Saturday nights. We enjoyed the outing very much and were enabled to start the next week refreshed and re-invigorated.

Miss Kinniburgh represented the Mission Board at the meeting of Catawba Synodical at Charlotte last week and reports a splendid meeting.

Prof. A. A. Adair, of Chester, S. C., was a delightful visitor on our campus Friday evening.

Miss Thelma Miller, a member of the Freshman class, was called home last week to the bedside of a near relative. We miss her and hope that she will be back with us soon.

Barber College has indeed been honored by visitors lately. On Saturday morning Rev. William Ralph Hall, Director of Young People's Work in the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., came to spend twenty-four hours with us. It was his first visit to our school. He was personally acquainted with many of our teachers and so he was especially interested in seeing the work of the school. During his stay he delivered two wonderful addresses. He spoke to us on "Life, the Greatest Thing in the World." He told us of the importance of building life's structure well and carefully. We learned that honesty and self-control are essential factors in the building of life. The talks given by Mr. Hall still remain clearly in the minds of the students.

REV. WEST'S MOTHER DEAD

Rev. L. B. West, the gifted and beloved minister of Biddleville Presbyterian church, has received the sad news from his sister, Miss Avis West, Hastings, Barbados, B. W. I., telling of the death of his mother, Mrs. Clara Gertrude West, on October 5th. His many friends sympathize with Rev. Mr. West, whose sorrow is intensified by the great distance which separates him from his parental home.

BARBER COLLEGE'S LOVE SONG.

By Miss Annie Brodie

Barber, Barber College, our Alma Mater dear,
You're loved and honored and cherished, far and near;
We love your hillsides, the valleys, rocks and glens,
We're to thy precepts true,
To Barber College, our school of knowledge,
To Barber College so dear.

Barber, Barber College, though far away we roam,
Thy memories are endeared, bigger, better things enthroned;
After we have left thee ne'er shall we forget
To climb our hills, o'er rocks and rills,
For Barber College, our school of knowledge,
For Barber College so dear.

Ghosts, goblins, and witches, too, they say
Were present at the party of the Y. double U. C. A.
They had a very scrumptious time,
But my! they missed you so.
I'm sure that you'll be right in line,
The next time, don't you know!
Miss Beatty is the chairman of the members of the "Y,"
She hopes you'll meet her here next month,
We hope you're going to try.

CEDAR GROVE COMMUNITY NOTES.

By Mrs. Hattie A. Russell

Sunday, October 11th, our pastor, Dr. L. J. Melton, preached a soul-stirring sermon from Psalm 103:1-5, "Bless the Lord, O my soul; and all that is within me, bless his holy name. Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits," etc. The theme of this discourse was "Our Attitude to God for Past Blessings." This was indeed a strong sermon. At the close of the sermon, Prof. I. M. Martin offered prayer. The choir then rendered a very appreciative piece of music.

Misses Sadie Lytle and Rosella Forney have entered Scotia Women's College. We hope for them a successful term.

A new class room has been added to the Cedar Grove school which adds much to the appearance of the school building. Two teachers have been secured for the term which began October 26.

Why expect "Big Money" from your business when you don't invest any money in it? It would be as foolish to expect a rich harvest of wheat when you sow oats. An investment of a small sum in an attractive Sign will pay big dividends. Think it over and let us hear from you.

JOHNSON C. SMITH UNIVERSITY NOTES

By A. H. Prince

Vespers on last Saturday morning were conducted by Dr. Chas. H. Shute. Beautiful thoughts on the subject, "Marks of True Greatness," were brought out by the speaker, namely, courage, humility and temperance.

Dr. Chas. Somerville, of Queens College, located here in the city, was the speaker on Sunday evening before the faculty and students. Dr. Somerville preached from I Cor. 1:30. Prof. P. A. Vaughan addressed the Young Men's Christian Association last Sabbath morning. A large number heard the speaker in the delivery of a forceful message.

Recent visitors on the campus were Rev. T. B. Hargrave, Principal of Hodge Academy, Washington, Ga., and Profs. Duckett and Smith, of Benedict College, Columbia, S. C. Each of these visitors made remarks to the students at devotionals last Friday morning.

The football team won its first victory of the season on the campus last Friday from Benedict College, score 6-3. Caviness carried the pigskin over the goal for the Gold and Blue. It was an exciting game. Benedict, having kicked a field goal in the outset of the game, J. C. Smith's squad had to play to overcome this lead of Benedict. The next game will be with V. N. & I. I., of Petersburg, Va., at Roanoke, on November the 6th.

Prof. J. Caesar Bryant, Associate English teacher, and Mr. David P. Allen will attend the Conference of Students on the World Court, which meets at Duke University, Durham, next Saturday.

FROM MOORESVILLE

By Mrs. Edith Campbell

Please allow us space to say a few words. Our Sunday school at Jones chapel is doing a good work under the leadership of Mr. Oates Campbell who has been our Superintendent for 8 years. Our pastor,

Rev. T. M. Barber, being absent on last Sunday morning, the pulpit was filled by Rev. Reid, of Charlotte. He brought to us a gospel message, full of power.

Mr. E. G. Friday, who has been to the Good Samaritan Hospital in Charlotte, has returned home very much improved.

Mr. C. S. Brawley, who has been to the Freedmen's Hospital in Washington, D. C., for an operation, is back home and is getting on nicely.

Mrs. G. W. Gray entertained the Ladies' Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church at her home on North Church St. Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. After the business part of the meeting she served a salad course and delicious ice cream and cake. Invited guests were Mrs. Mamie Boyd and Mrs. D. P. Campbell.

BROOKLYN CHURCH NOTES

On last Sunday morning, our pastor, Dr. F. L. Brodie, preached an instructive sermon from Matthew 27:40.

Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Gamble and Mrs. Nannie J. Wood, of Chester, S. C., spent last Wednesday in our city. Mrs. Wood spent a few hours with Mrs. McGill.

The Sabbath school rally which was held in October was very successful. The amount of $50 was raised in the Sabbath School. Our Sabbath school is doing a great work. We have a large attendance and our number is increasing. Mr. E. F. White, our Superintendent, is putting forth every effort for improvement.

The Mt. Olive day school, in which Mrs. Ed. Smith is a teacher, opened last Monday. We hope for her a successful term.

On last Tuesday night the 12 months' program which was held in one night, was very successful, and was largely attended. The neat sum of $50.00 was raised, which went for the benefit of the new church. Mrs. Ed. Smith was in charge.
