

SEVENTH STREET CHURCH NOTES.

Sunday morning, our pastor, Dr. R. P. Wyche, preached a soul-stirring sermon from Matthew 25:14-34. His subject, "The Awarding of Talents to Every One According to His or Her Ability," was beautifully portrayed. He admonished us to be faithful. No reward can be greater than to hear the Master say, "Well done, thy good and faithful servant."

The following church officers were elected by the congregation Sunday:

Ruling Elder, Prof. E. A. Chisholm; Deacon and Secretary of the church, Mr. Paul Richardson.

Deaconesses, Mesdames Mamie Spaulding and Ethel Shaw. Trustees, Dr. J. A. Pethel and Mr. Willie Ed. Means.

Mr. J. E. Hemphill, chairman of the Deacons' Board, stated that a placard will be placed in the vestibule of the church bearing the names of 100 persons who have been asked to pay $10.00 each by the first Sunday in December. As the members pay the amount paid will be accredited to their names.

The Christian Endeavor meeting was led Sunday night by Miss Corrie Hart, president. This being the first meeting of the month, as usual, it was consecration meeting. Many members responded to the roll-call. Little Miss Isabella Ezell rendered a solo and Misses Lucile Henderson and Catherine Yongue a duett.

The Sheaves Gatherers' Bible class will meet Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Martha Johnson, 622 E. Eighth St.

During the Sunday school hour Mr. Paul Richardson gave an interesting talk on Hallowe'en.

Miss Annie F. Hayes made an appeal for the elevator of the Good Samaritan Hospital.

The Westminster Circle gave a Hallowe'en party at the home of Miss Marie S. Lindsay, Thursday evening, October 29. The proceeds were for the benefit of the church.

The sick of the church, Mesdames Sallie Bynum, Mary Gilliard, Hattie Smith, Louise McBeth and Messrs. William Brown and Andrew Kearns, were reported improving Sunday.

A few ladies of the church gave Mr. William Brown and Mrs. Hattie Smith a surprise storm October 28. The ladies were well rewarded for their efforts by the smiles and words of appreciation expressed by those for whom the effort was made.

The Sunday school department has been asked to raise $600 by the first Sunday in December. Mrs. R. P. Wyche reported her class of Intermediate girls will raise $25.

Mr. William Johnson, of 622 E. Eighth Street, left for Washington, D. C., Sunday, October 25.

Mrs. C. M. Stafford, of 400 N. Myers St., leaves the city Wednesday for Chattanooga, Tenn., to spend the winter with her son, Rev. J. B. Barber.

CHURCH STREET CHURCH, SALISBURY.

Our rally which was left open from the fourth Sunday in October closed last Sunday. We have raised the sum of $141.

The Missionary Society is planning to put a window in the new church. Last week the Society put on a bazaar, but the weather being unfavorable it was not as successful as the Society hoped it would be. Quite a nice sum was realized.

A SON.

Rev. and Mrs. S. L. Fulwood, of Waxhaw, N. C., are happy over the advent of a son, Samuel Johnson, to their home on October 12.

IN MEMORIAM.

Rev. J. E. King Entered Into Rest Nov. 16, 1924

One year ago you left me, dear, but not one day have you been forgotten.

For fifty-two years we lived together in love and harmony, working for God and humanity. Yours was an unselfish life. You loved God, the Church and those for whom you labored, never tiring in His service.

Our Heavenly Father called you from your labors, and I know you are resting and enjoying peace and happiness with your Saviour and the loved ones gone before. We shall meet again.

"You have gone just a little way—

At times you seem so near; Your voice ever murmurs in my ear;

To my duties loving presence lend

And with sweet ministry my footsteps attend,

And bring my soul the luxury of tears.

This sense of loss, This heavy cross,

Dear Saviour, take the burden off, I pray,

And show me heaven is but a little way."

Your devoted wife,
P. A. KING.

THE Y. W. C. A.

By Mrs. J. C. Bryant.

Ye Grand Order of Witches of the Rosebud Club met at the Y. W. C. A. Saturday night ye 31st night in October to participate in the sacred rites of Hallowe'en. The sprites had beautifully decorated the room of the "Y" to receive their weird guests.

Many blood-curdling stories were told by Ye Grand Dame Witch O'Daniel.

The games played by sprites and witches were terrible to see, and mortals peeping through the cracks held their breath for fear they should be discovered and dire punishment inflicted upon them.

After the important business of having a witching time had been duly attended to, Little Witches Mackey, Burton and Mackey served the Order with peanuts, ginger snaps, fruit punch, black cat and pumpkin candy. A ghost apple was given each member of the Order as a souvenir.

The witches then threw left hind legs of rabbits, caught in graveyards at midnight, rattlesnake rattlers, taken from the snake while he was asleep on Friday the 13th, and witch oil made from Goblins' finger nails into a pot to boil until next meeting which will take place on ye 31st night in October, 1926.

JOHNSON C. SMITH UNIVERSITY NOTES

By A. H. Prince

Vespers last Saturday and Sunday evenings were conducted by Rev. A. P. Corley. On Saturday evening the profound question found in Genesis 3:9, was propounded. On Sunday evening the sermon was from St. John 4:29.

Dr. James E. Gregg, principal of Hampton Institute, Hampton, Va., was a pleasant visitor at the chapel exercises on last Wednesday morning. Dr. Gregg greeted both faculty and students with congratulations for the many good things that have come to the University and told of the efforts that are being put forth in the raising of the endowment for Hampton and Tuskegee Institutes which has recently started. The remarks were concluded with the thought that endowments and equipments are of small value unless there be real character in the institution.

The younger boys of the High School department have had organizations for the last four years known as the Hi-Y clubs. These clubs are divided so as to give each one a thorough knowledge is their purpose, which is the building of character. On last Saturday a "Setting-up Conference" was held for the boys in the Y. M. C. A. Hall, conducted by Mr. Fesperman of the Y. M. C. A., of the city (white), and Mr. Shelton also of the Y.

M. C. A. These clubs are studying a book, "An Older Boys' Problem," which is very interesting in its scope and aim.

The literary societies in the High School are doing good work. Their meetings are much like those held once in the forums of ancient times. The college is reviving the old spirit of the Mattoon and soon the Clariosophic Estate will ring out in debate and orations.

The Sophomore class had its annual parade last Friday. This is a very strong class in the college, numbering about forty, yet the Freshmen class is about twice as large. And it was a real contest between the two, for the exhibition of their "claim to be worth."

The football team played V. N. & I. I. at Roanoke today (Thursday). The result was 0-0. The team has played four games already; tied two, lost one and won one.

ST. JAMES CHURCH GREENSBORO

By Mrs. S. W. Carter

The Christian Endeavor Society gave a Hallowe'en entertainment at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Meares on Tuesday evening, October 27th, at 8 o'clock. There were a few quaintly masked entertainers. An enjoyable time was had by all. Refreshments were served and a very neat little sum was realized.

Mr. James W. Roy, of Kansas City, Kansas, died very suddenly of acute indigestion last Friday night. Mr. Roy had been living in this city only a very short while. He attended St. James Presbyterian church and Sunday school. He was a member of the Up and Doing Bible class. Mr. Roy will be missed very much by the class.

The Earnest Workers Adult Bible Class were awarded the banner for finance in Sunday school yesterday. The banner for attendance went to Up and Doing Adult Bible class.

The choir of St. James church furnished music for the installation service of Rev. Washington held yesterday at the Presbyterian church, of High Point, at three o'clock. Rev. C. H. Miller delivered the installation sermon which was great. The service was well attended despite the inclement weather. Visitors from Greensboro included Mrs. Sarah Preyor and Mrs. R. S. Alexander.

The Missionary Society met with Mrs. R. E. McNair on Washington Street last Thursday afternoon. The meeting was well attended. Plans were discussed for an entertainment to be had next week. After the meeting refreshments were served.

FROM JETERSVILLE, VA.

Dear Editor:

Please allow space in your valuable paper to say that we are getting about over our field right much of late. Some weeks ago it pleased Almighty God to call from labor to reward our dear Sister Matilda Tucker. She was a faithful member of Allen Memorial church, lived a Christian life and died in the full triumph of the Christian faith. She left a son who had never accepted Christ as his Saviour; so after the funeral and burial of his mother, who had him baptized when a child, in Allen Memorial church, I wrote him urging him to accept God's ultimatum as found in Isaiah 55 and God's love as it is found in the gift of His Son. The young man has been a patient in the Piedmont Sanatorium for over a year. Today's mail brought me a letter from Mr. Linwood Tucker telling me that he has accepted Christ as his Saviour.

On last Sunday we visited Rev. Lackland, Miss Josephine Anderson, Mrs. M. J. Wright, Rev. and Mrs. Freeland and Miss Annie Barrett. We found them trying to prepare for winter. Miss Anderson, who suffered a stroke of paralysis some years ago, is much improved. She recognized her old schoolmates and friends who motored with me—Mrs. Shepperson, Mrs. F. P. Wilkerson and Mrs. Myrtle Brown. We were sorry to find Mrs. Freeland suffering from burns on her foot and leg. One of the oldest members of

So long as the spine has to bend to every angle of the requirements of the body, it will be subjected at times to undue jolts, strains, jars, etc., which will cause one or more vertebrae to slip slightly out of alignment, producing pressure on a nerve trunk. The part of the body supplied by it cannot get the full amount of brain energy and will become diseased.

Mt. Zion church suffered a stroke of paralysis a few days ago. I was called to her bedside on last Friday. She is known as Sister Judy Patt Claiborne.

On our return from Sister Patt's we found a letter in the mail from Rev. W. B. Stitt to come to Nottoway, Va., on Sunday afternoon to conduct the funeral service of Mr. William Shepherd Jamerson, brother of Mrs. W. B. Stitt, who was killed in a mine by coming in contact with a live wire. He was buried in Mr. Booker Green's cemetery. He leaves a wife, a son, a father, two brothers, three sisters and a host of friends to mourn their loss.

Rev. and Mrs. Stitt have our deepest sympathy.

Mr. T. W. Wilkerson, our Sunday School Superintendent, is indisposed at this time.

Mr. Will Brown motored with Rev. and Mrs. Shepperson to Nottoway Sunday, November 1.

HARBISON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE NOTES.

By Mrs. A. P. Butler.

The Ladies' Missionary Society held their popular meeting the fourth Sunday in September. A very interesting program was rendered. Mr. James Allen, of Young's Chapel A. M. E. church, addressed us on the subject of Missions. His address was full of timely suggestions.

Mrs. H. D. Hall's club gave a concert the first of October in the interest of the church. In the rally the clubs reported the sum of $175.

Rev. Nelson, of Ridgeway, S. C., spent a few hours on the campus recently. He brought two boys from his field.

Messrs. Geo. Marion, Sr., and Geo. Marion, Jr., of Anderson, S. C., were visitors at our church the second Sunday in October.

Miss Louise Young is in Philadelphia with her sister, Mrs. Eugene Boyd. While there she will take a business course.

Monday night, October 19, the faculty and students enjoyed a splendid recital given by Prof. Edward Brigham, baso profundo and dramatic reader.

Our football team has played two games this season: one with Haines Institute and the other with Brewer Normal.

The new teachers for the parochial school are Miss Zenobia Reynolds, of Columbia, and Miss Emma Toatley, of Winnsboro.

Rev. Matthew Wilkerson, a Baptist minister of Baltimore, Md., preached for us Sunday, October 25th. He was formerly a student of Harbison.

Why expect "Big Money" from your business when you don't invest any money in it? It would be as foolish to expect a rich harvest of wheat when you sow oats. An investment of a small sum in an attractive Sign will pay big dividends. Think it over and let us hear from you.

know that more than 7,000 people of our Church do not know about Reid Mission Sabbath school which we style as one of the greatest Sabbath school in our Synod at present. It has a young man at its head as Superintendent, and a better one could not be found.

Of course this Sabbath school was organized two weeks before Mr. L. W. Ellis came to us from Salisbury where he had served as Superintendent for several years, and had Sunday school training in the School of Methods at Charlotte for four years.

Our first opening was on Easter Sunday, but we did not do very much good until the third Sunday when Mr. I. M. Martin came to us and organized us into a real Sunday school with a superintendent, secretary and treasurer, two teachers and twelve scholars. One week later we were able to total our roll to twenty-eight and to this date forty-five. We have Cradle Roll, Beginners, Primary, Intermediate, Junior, Senior and Home Departments. We are now holding Teachers' meetings and a Workers' Conference and these are under the leadership of our Superintendent.

Our first financial drive was on October 11. At that time we had the promise of Rev. L. J. Melton, D. D., and Cedar Grove congregation at 3 o'clock, but they failed to come or send notice to us; but in their absence we had a warm prayer meeting and a short talk from our Superintendent, Mr. Ellis. Reports from each department were made as follows: Cradle Roll, $1.61; Home Department, $4.93; general Sunday school, $15.46; for the day, $22.50.

We feel that we have gone over the top. We are asking for your prayers that God may continue to bless us in this work as He has in the past.

I must not forget to say something about Mr. Love and Mr. Henry Reid, Miss Nora Rutherford, Mrs. Graham and Miss ———. They all have put their lives into the work to see this Sunday school come to the front.

MIRANDA CHURCH NOTES.

By Miss Richardeen Osborne

Miss Daisy Clottil Grier left Sunday P. M., October 5th, for Greensboro to resume her studies at Immanuel College. This is Miss Grier's second year in High School. We hope her much success.

Mr. Alvin Johnston and family were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Kerns on last Sunday. Mr. Johnston is a brother of Mrs. Kerns.

We were delighted to have Brother Stephen Ellis worship with us on last Sunday.

The County School Supervisor, Mrs. Dykes, was a welcomed guest in our midst the first Sunday in October. Mrs. Dykes made a very interesting talk which was enjoyed by everyone. We hope she will visit us again.

Mr. DeWitt and Misses Mattie and Richardeen Osborne were the guests of Miss Viola Smith and family on last Sunday P. M. at Huntersville.

The concert given by the Y. P. S. C. E. S. for the benefit of the church on September 30th proved a success. We were glad to see a house well filled. The amount raised that night was $21.30.

NOTES FROM ST. PAUL SECOND.

On Friday night, October 9, we had an entertainment at our church which was very enjoyable. There was a large crowd and good behaviour. A nice sum amounting to $16 was raised. Sunday following, October 11, at 3 o'clock, we had with us Rev. J. B. Francis, of Laurinburg, and his choir from Silver Hill church. He came to us with a message that was of much interest, founded upon Exodus 20th chapter 1st verse: "Thou shalt have no other gods before me." This was indeed a fine sermon. Everybody seems to have enjoyed it and the choir rendered fine music. The collection was $12.00. We will be too glad to have Rev. Francis and his choir come again.
