COMMITTEE OF INTERRACIAL CONFERENCE OF CHURCH WOMEN REPORTS

Washington, Dec. 2.—Emphasizing the need for more human relationships between white and colored women, the Continuation Committee of the Interracial Conference of Church Women today made public its findings for constructive measures for creating goodwill between them.

At a recent conference at Eagle's Mere, which was attended by white and Negro women from both the South and the North, this Continuation Committee was appointed to study the various recommendations made and to publish them as "findings" to go to church women throughout the country as a working program. "Realizing that interracial action must be preceded by interracial thinking, says the statement, 'we find that the women of our churches need to learn to work with rather than for the Negro. We believe that existing church organizations constitute the best channel for creating this attitude.'"

An interesting suggestion is cooperation of the white and Negro churches in the "support of visiting housekeepers" who would correspond to "visiting nurses" except that they would devote themselves to instruction and aid in housekeeping.

It is urged that more stress be laid on educational and recreational facilities in small towns and rural communities.

"Forced housing segregation" is condemned as "unspiritual and undemocratic." Church women are urged to take a definite stand against such segregation in their community.

In regard to lynching, the church women say: "We urge that preventive measures against lynching be adopted, and that ready cooperation be given those in control of such situations; that an open forum be secured in the daily papers and press generally, to create proper sentiment and right public opinion.

Church women are urged to study "causes and effects upon industry and the home of the increasing employment of married women in industry." "In view of the limitations of opportunities for Negro women in employment we suggest that groups of women be encouraged to become aware of conditions in industry and in other forms of employment in their communities and States." Church bodies and social agencies are requested to give employment to Negro stenographers and clerks.

Increase emphasis upon interracial education is urged. It is proposed that Race Relations Sunday be made Race Relations Week.

In behalf of justice for Negroes, the Committee says: "Interracial committees of church women can do a great service for their communities by: "Becoming informed of the facts concerning Negro children in the community; "Keeping in touch with the juvenile courts, and insisting that Negro children receive the same thoughtful attention and care that is given to children of other races; "Insisting on the appointment of Negro probation officers; "Securing provision for recreational opportunities for Negro children, through the Scouts, Camp Fires, Girl Reserves and Hi Y's; "Encouraging deputations of white and Negro women to sit through trials of boys and girls in the interest of justice and for the consideration of all factors involved; "Urging constant observation of jail conditions, especially for young people and women— That there may be proper separation of young offenders and old criminals; That occupation may be provided; That suitable places shall be secured for them on their release;

By seeing that proper counsel is secured for Negro cases. "Recognizing the power of the press the church women suggest that:

"Use be made, as far as possible, of the power of the press to influence and create wholesome and just impressions to bring about better understanding between the races;

"Church women seek to secure the unlimited power of metropolitan papers, and that through church columns topics on race meetings and work which the Race Committees are doing in each community shall be fully recorded;

"Definite effort be made by church women to secure in the press an emphasis on constructive news items and articles in regard to the Negro, rather than on crimes and other derogatory items.

"Special suggestions about the education of young people, and interracial matters are urged."

SWIFT MEMORIAL COLLEGE, ROGERSVILLE, TENN.

By N. Adrene Holston

Last Sunday we listened to a splendid sermon preached by our pastor, Rev. A. S. Long. He spoke from Philippians 4, and the 8th verse. He chose as his subject, "The Essentials for Success in Life." The speaker made some very interesting points showing that a man is as he thinks. His thoughts shape his actions, good or bad. The college choir rendered music.

At 2 o'clock Rev. A. S. Long preached a sermon to the Mutual Aid and Benefit Society. The audience was highly impressed with the lessons set out in the sermon which emphasized deep friendship, charity and brotherly love. The minister held up before them their moral obligations and vows.

The Y. M. C. A. cabinet is to stage the scene of the birth of Christ very soon.

Miss Sullivan, who is in charge of the music department, is to give a cantata just before the Christmas vacation begins.

The Swift Memorial College Club, of Chicago, Ill., kindly remembered Swift with a substantial Thanksgiving gift. The club has extended an invitation to President Tucker to be with them in February. They are to tender a reception during his stay. As the students go out from the college to take their respective places in life they do not forget to organize clubs for the interest of the school. There is a club in Dayton, Ohio, and there is one in Cleveland, Ohio.

Thursday during the music period the students were entertained with a program presented by the faculty. Miss Sullivan gave a reading, "Trouble in the Corner." Mrs. Robert E. Lee sang "Carrissima," by Penn. There were several selections given by different members of the faculty. Rev. A. S. Long, Rev. W. C. Hazgrave, Mrs. Lee, Prof. Lee and Miss Madison sang "Wade in the Water," and Mrs. Armstrong read a splendid paper on "Social Influence." The program set a high standard for the students.

Dr. W. H. Franklin, President-emeritus, has been invited to participate in the inauguration of the new President of Fisk University.

The eyes may be the windows of the soul but the mouth reveals the company it keeps.

BARBER COLLEGE NEWS

By Joetta Stinson

The furniture for the new students' parlor has come. It is a three-piece set of a divan and two chairs, of brown mahogany and rose plush. The girls are busy making plans for this supply to be increased. There is also a piano in the room, and two large leather-upholstered rockers.

The Barber faculty and students who attended the football game in Taladega report a very interesting game and a pleasant afternoon. The score was 28-27 in favor of Tuskegee.

The uniform committee gave a very novel entertainment in chapel last week, illustrating in drama the value and advantages of wearing uniform. Different types of students were the main "characters" in the little impromptu play.

The series of thank services were very inspirational. The Sunday before Thanksgiving during the assembly period of Sunday school the first Junior class conducted a very impressive service. They gave thanks in ritual form for all things.

On Wednesday morning the Chapel exercises by the first Senior class were also based on Thanksgiving.

On Thursday Thanksgiving services were conducted by the Young Women's Christian Association of Barber. After the program of worship each class presented its thank offering with a prayer. The teachers also laid their offering on the altar.

The gift this year is for the people on the islands off the coast of Charleston.

The dining room on Thanksgiving Day was radiant with smiles and happy faces. Yet this was the result of some sacrifice, for 15 turkeys had given their lives for this great cause. The annual football games that were then under way were mentioned. These games, some at schools of the teachers and others at our own J. C. S. U. and Lincoln, were cheered, as everybody swallowed the tip of a potato pie for good luck.

Quite a number of parties were functioning in the "Dorm" Thanksgiving afternoon and evening as advisors entertained their "children."

Christmas is just over the way now, and semester exams will soon be in order.

Sunday afternoon the following program by the chorus and other musical organizations was rendered to a large and appreciative audience:

Processional, "Bless the Lord, O My Soul," (chorus)—Oppold-of-Ivanof.

"No Evil Shall Befall Thee," Costa, "Louise Ross and chorus." "By the Waters of Babylon," (chorus), Neidlenger.

Piano Solo (selected), Miss Catherine Crissey.

"Oh, Shepherd of Israel," choir, C. P. Morrison.

"Oh, Holy Father," choir, Moderati.

"Blessed are the Pure in Heart," choir, Hodges.

P. D. Q. S. Q., Selected.

"I Will Lift Up Mine Eyes," chorus, Gilchrist.

The chorus under the direction of Miss Charlotte Mevich, is working hard to attain perfection.

Monday evening a W. C. T. U. Silver Medal Contest was held in chapel. Most of the student body and faculty were present with quite a number of visitors also. Three judges were chosen from out of the city. After the program they announced the fourth speaker, Miss Thelma Miller, as the winner of the silver medal. The program was as follows:

Song—Battle Hymn of the Republic.

1. Out of the Depths, Joetta Stinson.

2. The Convict's Violin, Aileen Harper.

Song and Chorus.

3. Citizenship and Law, Roosevelt Lee.

4. Snail America Go Back? Thelma Miller.

Violin Solo, Melody—Dawes—Miss Esther Shaw.

5. Child Conversation, Emma Hatley.

The Conquering Christianity, Lester Brown.

Judges retire.

Barber Booster Song, School.

Awarding of Medal, Song—America.

After the Monday evening entertainment in the chapel Miss Kinniburgh delightfully entertained the contestants in her room with a lovely tea party. The girls were all jovial and grateful to Miss Kinniburgh also, as they were beginning to be quite empty from "their much speaking."

A course in Musical Appreciation was started in Barber Thursday morning under the instruction of Miss Ruth Smith who will carefully guide the students in this very useful course. Records of piano, voice, violin and trumpet music were played, and it was sometimes hard to be accurate in determining which was which. This promises to be a very interesting study, and will be observed once a week during the Assembly period.

Miss Hattie Elston, Matron, entertained for her club Thursday evening at Barber in the students' new parlor. This was the first real affair in the new room and it was quite attractive with the new curtains, rugs, ferns and lit candles.

The Faculty Missionary Meeting was held in Mrs. Scherer's apartments, Tuesday evening, November 30th. The subject was, "Mountain Stations." Miss Blanche Shaw and Miss Kinniburgh told of their experiences in the mountain regions. Miss Arduser gave a very enjoyable review of some of Lucy Furman's "Quare Women" stories from the Atlantic Monthly.

COULTER ACADEMY NOTES, CHERAW, S. C.

By Miss Maggie L. Brewer

A few weeks ago the class of '30 gave a real banquet in the dining hall. This class is under the supervision of Miss Wilhelmina Gillespie. The faculty and High School students of the school were invited.

A few of the city people were invited, among whom were: Mrs. Elsie Gillespie, Miss Marie Marshall, Dr. J. V. Hanna and Dr. T. H. Reese. The guests were highly entertained. Solos were sung by Misses W. M. Gillespie and Beulah Spencer. Mr. Paul Cox, the class President, delivered a wonderful address. Splendid remarks were made by Dr. Long, Dr. Hanna, Dr. Reese and Miss Gillespie. Everyone enjoyed the evening immensely.

The majority of the faculty motored to Laurinburg Thanksgiving Day where they witnessed a game of football between Laurinburg Institute and Coulter.

Last week Dr. Long, Misses Pruitt, Day, Gillespie and Brewer, and Professor Tolbert motored to Charlotte where they attended the recital given by Mr. Roland Hayes. They had a very pleasant time while there.

Thanksgiving evening the fifth and sixth grades gave an excellent play, the title of which is: "Old Fashioned Mother." This entertainment was under the direction of Miss Pruitt.

We are all very glad to see Mrs. Long out again after an illness of a couple of weeks.

Dr. Long has gone to Chicago where he will attend a business meeting.

We were glad to have Rev. and Mrs. Foster, Miss Emma Hancock and Miss Mobley on our campus a few days ago.

SCOTIA SEMINARY NOTES

By Mrs. Lillian M. Hamilton

We are having one of the most progressive and prosperous school terms in the history of Scotia. The Teacher-Training Course this year is one year in advance of the High School. We have both single and married ladies taking the course. They have come from as far North as New Jersey and as far South as Georgia.

Two extension courses are being attended by many of the city and some of the county teachers.

At the beginning of the term a reception was extended to the new teachers and students and many welcomes and toasts were given. Refreshments were served which were enjoyed by all.

The students had a parade followed by a program on Halloween. Many Johnson C. Smith boys attended. All enjoyed themselves.

The new teachers gave a reception for the old teachers on Halloween.

We were fortunate to have Miss Worrell, a real artist, as a member of our faculty. Other new members are Misses Elliott, Stout, Carpenter, Walsh, Panwith, Monroe, Morton and Rose. Miss Neal, a former member of the faculty who has been away for several years, is again with us.

The Scotia Booth won first prize at the County Fair in October.

Nearly all the Faculty and a large number of students attended the Recital given by Roland Hayes in Charlotte, November 23rd. All enjoyed the music to the fullest extent.

Dr. Lewis and Miss Burton attended the State Teachers' Association in Salisbury last week.

Mrs. Wilson entertained the members of the Teacher-Training Department at a buffet supper Friday evening. The time was enjoyably spent playing games. Owing to the thunderstorm a number of out-of-town guests were unable to attend.

Thanksgiving Day the Juniors held their Class Day exercises in the dining hall, which they had beautifully decorated for the occasion with their class colors—purple and gold—and Autumn leaves and ivy. Their class motto was—"No Victory Without Labor." Their class song was sung to the tune of "Sometimes." Their cheer for the class of 1928 was spiritedly given and enthusiastically answered by the Senior class.

The joys of Thanksgiving were closed with an operetta, "The Japanese Girl," given by members of the Senior and Teacher-Training classes under the direction of Miss Mary E. Foresman, which was quite a success. The chapel was packed with an appreciative audience.

Dr. Lewis filled the pulpit at Westminster church last Sunday morning. His text was found in Heb. 2:3, "How shall we escape if we neglect so great a salvation." Our attention was called to the greatness of Christ, and the reason for His greatness, and also to the answer to the question in the text. Everyone went away with a picture of Christ's greatness in mind.

MELINA CHURCH, SARDINIA, S. C.

By Susie E. Cooper

On Sunday, November 21st, the congregation of Melina enjoyed a real spiritual feasting. This day, which was the third Sunday in November, has always been observed as communion day at Melina.

The church was crowded beyond seating capacity and everybody seemed to be in a spirit of worship. The services for the day were opened by prayer services conducted by Mr. J. R. McFadden, of Friendship. At 10 o'clock Rev. J. A. Bruton, the pastor, preached a deep, soul-stirring sermon from St. John 15:11: "These things have I spoken unto you that your joy might be full." We should know Jesus and we should know what Christ has done and what He is still doing for the world. This was indeed a powerful sermon and everybody present seemed to have enjoyed it.

Sunday morning, November 28, Rev. Bruton preached another strong sermon from St. Matthew 6:33: "But seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you." His subject was "First Things First." If we seek God with the whole heart, soul and mind we need not fear, for He will give us everything that we need. This day was set apart as dollar day in behalf of the benevolent fund and the sum of $80 was raised.

The death angel has visited two homes since the last writing and called Master James Cousar, aged 9, and Mrs. Janie Johnson, aged 72. There are still a few on the sick list, but they are steadily improving. Pray for their recovery.

Among the out-of-town visitors were Mrs. Wiley, Mrs. Mattie Stewart, Miss Emma Jane Stewart, Little Miss Mae Cora Stewart, Mr. Preston Stewart, Miss Thelma Wiley, Miss Rosella Dixon, Miss Sarah Henderson and Miss Isabel Hurlong, all of Orangeburg, S. C.

Our friends from Denmark were Mrs. Martin Minafee, Miss Roland, Miss Emily Gourdin and a young man student, all of Voorhees Normal and Industrial Institute.

We are planning to have a C. E. Social Friday evening of this week at the home of Mrs. M. A. Robinson.

On Friday last the 10th grade entertained at the rhetorical hour. A debate, "Resolved That Our Young Men and Boys Are Not as Polite to Our Women as They Should Be," and songs and Scripture reading made up the entire program.

The 24th, 25th and 26th of November were busy days and nights for Frasier's students and teachers. The occasion was a three nights' bazaar. The booths were nicely dressed and the good things to eat were quickly sold.

Miss Singleton had cocoa, cake, and cream while Miss Robertson had charge of the peanuts and candy. Quite a feature was the country store headed by Mrs. M. A. Robinson. Any and everything could be gotten there.

Sunday, November 28th, the young people of the church met and organized a Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor. This will not only bring the members together each Sunday at 1 o'clock, but will make stronger and better Christians.

The Sunday school at 4 o'clock was well attended. A few strange faces were seen. The lesson was interesting and all took active part in discussing it.

The Williams Singers are to visit in February.

We are to have a pageant soon and then get ready for Christmas.

If we saw ourselves as others see us we might refuse to be lieve our eyes.
