PARTICULAR attention is called to the City Health Ordinance. It is of the utmost importance, and we hope our citizens will attend to the requirements at once.

THE light-boat Frying Pan Shoals was brought to the city this morning for repairs. In the meantime another vessel takes her place until the necessary repairs are made.

MR. CHARLES PHILLIPS, aged 67, from Montreal, Canada, died yesterday evening at the Purcell House. He had been ill for a long time and was stopping in the city for his health. His remains were forwarded to his friends this morning.

THREE weeks from to-day the June term of the Superior Court will be held. Suits cannot be brought after Wednesday the 12th inst for that term. Attorneys will please take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

MARKET REPORTS for the month of May show that there were Beeves slaughtered, 116; Hogs, 56; Calves, 19; Sheep, 527. There were 845 carts, and 13 wagons in market.

For the week ending June 1st there were Beeves slaughtered, 34; Hogs, 10; Sheep, 111; Calves, 1. And 224 carts in market.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS—BRIEF REPORT.—Chairman was instructed to examine the W. & W. R. R. tax returns, and report to the Board.—S. VanAmringe allowed $85 for work on bridge.—A tax of 3-10 of 1 per cent, authorized to be levied by the Township of Wilmington, and the Sheriff to collect the same.—Mr. BLACK instructed to superintend Township lines between Rocky Point, Holden, Columbia and Lincoln.

BENJAMIN J. LAWTON, Harbor Master and Clerk of the Board of Navigation, died last night. Mr. Lawton was a young man of promise, and leaves a wife and child to mourn his loss. As an officer he was always prompt and attentive we believe, and his place will not be easily filled.

The flags of the shipping in port today are all placed at half-mast in respect to the memory of Capt. Lawton.

OPERA HOUSE.—A notice of the excellent troupe to perform to-night, was unavoidably crowded out Saturday. If Messrs. Skiff & Gaylord have the talented performers they had in Washington a short time ago, we may look for a rare treat, musically as well as in witicism. We caution them, however, that both political parties attend concerts, and the custom of some companies from the North, ringing in political hits intended to please a Southern audience often fall short of the mark. The last time we saw this excellent company, they were free from that odious trick, and we hope to chronicle the same good taste at their performance to-night.

THE TOWN CRIER.

Sam. Johnson, the Basso Profundo, sings to-night.

—It is harder to tell what cannot go into a paper than what can.

— Judge Cantwell is out of the city, and no Court was held to-day.

— Sunshine and light showers chase each other to-day like smiles and tears on the baby's face.

— Less property changed hands during the month of May past, than any month for the past two years.

— Workmen are removing the brick wall on Princess street, preparatory to building an office for Col. W. L. Smith.

— Frank Leslie keeps pouring his broadsides into President Grant, but they are paper bullets and will not hurt any one.

— It is sad, very, to have your local items left out because the paper is so full, but such awful things do happen, and we are sad.

— Harris' news stand as usual, is filled with all the late periodicals, and papers. Mr. Harris is a success in his line, as the daily crowds of knowledge seekers amply testify.

— The Grand Chapter meets to-night. The evening train will undoubtedly bring in a goodly number of the lights of masonry. We extend to our companions a cordial greeting.

STILL the families keep pointing Northward. Four families went this morning and we know of three others who go to-morrow. Why will they all go and leave a fellow alone?

THE FREEMASON, published at St. Louis, Mo., is the largest Masonic Monthly in the United States. It is edited by that prince of good fellows, George Frank Gouley and published by Gouley & Byington at the very low price of $3.00 per annum. Mr. Gouley is a Masonic writer of much note, of very graceful style and a splendid Masonic Jurist. His paper has been publicly recommended by many of the Grand Lodges of the United States, and should be seen to be appreciated.

THE July number of the Old and New, to be issued June 15, will repeat the highly successful experiment of last year, and will be an Educational Number. It will contain a graphic account of life at the famous Round Hill School, established and conducted by George Bancroft and Dr. Cogswell; a comprehensive view of the whole range of instruction now given at Harvard University; other papers upon topics of educational importance, and a College Directory, giving the name, locality, course of study, faculty and number of students of 175 or more of the principal collegiate institutions of the United States—being an extremely convenient reference list. Mailed, post paid, on receipt of 35 cents, by the publishers, Messrs. Roberts Bros. Boston.

CORRESPONDENCE.

The Editor of this paper is in no way responsible for the views or statements of Correspondents; no communications of an anonymous character will be published; the real name of the writer must accompany all communications. Any one who may feel aggrieved at statements made by correspondents can obtain the name on application to the Editor.

EDITOR EVENING POST:
DEAR SIR:—Judge SETTLE of Rockingham, the Republican candidate for Congress in the Fifth District, N. C., had a discussion with General J. M. LEACH his competitor at Ashboro, Randolph N. C., last Tuesday. General LEACH said that the Kirk Bergen war, on defenseless men, was enough to convict, and forever damn the Republican party, and he was satisfied that his competitor would be defeated because he belonged to the party that upheld Holden, who instigated that war.

Judge SETTLE in replying, said: No one more than I condemn brutality. I am no apologist for what Kirk and Bergen did, and I am satisfied that the party I represent condemns whatever was not done proper by Kirk or Bergen. You say that I belong to the party that sustains Holden who instigated this war. I charge upon him as belonging to the party that murdered Outlaw, Stephens, and Colgrove, drowned Puryear, scourged Curtis and scores of others, exiled Senator Schofield, though the instrumentality of the ku klux klan.

THE TOWN CRIER.

I also charge my competitor with being the candidate of the party that erected "Bull Pens" for women in this county. I charge that General Collet W. Leaventhorpe, the Democratic candidate for Auditor, was a militia General under Ex-Governor Vance, and that the said Leaventhorpe, had within those bull pens, the wives, daughters and sisters of men, whose only crime was that they refused to fire on the old flag, or fight against the Union. In that bull pen, these women were subjected to all the barbarities that the most inhuman mind could suggest, they were not allowed to attend the calls of nature without being attended by an armed male guard. I charge that this gallant militia General of Gov. Vance shot and killed young Northcutt, one beautiful Sunday morning, and that his only crime was, he would not raise his arm to fight against the Union. I charge that you belong to the party that murdered Owens, that put his wife's fingers between fence rails, in order to compel her to tell where her husband was, he then being in the woods to keep from being conscripted.

General LEACH—I was opposed to things as much as you were.

Judge SETTLE—but you are the candidate now of the men and the principles that carried them on.

Great enthusiasm prevails, and Judge Settle is dealing heavy blows upon his vulnerable opponents. I think the Judge will carry his district by about nine hundred majority. Amen say we.

Yours,
G.

Greeley in Kentucky.

A correspondent at Big Boone Springs, Boone county, Ky., writes: "The inhabitants of the county round about here are intensely Democratic. They held at the Springs on Saturday last a primary meeting, and of the numerous Democrats there, discussing politics I saw but two that would vote for Greeley under any circumstances. The sentiment seemed to be very much against him."

"Dolly Varden" has now taken possession of the envelope manufacturers. Dolly had better cease to exist when she acts so. Post office clerks and others have to creep, among the vines and flowers to ascertain the address of a letter, which is a delightful task.

LATEST BY TELEGRAPH.

From Washington.
WASHINGTON, D. C., June 3.
The Spanish advances indicate the early release of Dr. Honard.

The President vetoed the bill for the relief of Melton Best, of Paducah, for house destroyed by the government. It was an incident of the war, and an infinite amount of property was destroyed in the same way. The President also asserts that it is over valuation.

SENATE—Bill allowing privileges to tug and freight boats used exclusively for tug and freight purposes upon the Mississippi river and its tributaries, passed. The privilege is limited to twelve months from the passage of the act. Such vessels are allowed to carry 150 instead of 100 pounds steam, to which passenger vessels are restricted. Carpenter is answering Schurz.

HOUSE took a recess. The Conference Committee are out and have not yet determined upon the tobacco tax; 20 cents, uniform, is probable.

From Ohio.
CLEVELAND, June 3.
Late last evening, at Portsmouth, Ohio, Councilman Scott of that place, with his son and four or five others went out boating on the Ohio in a small steamer provided with a tubular boiler, which exploded and tore the boat to pieces, wounding nearly all Scott's injuries will probably prove fatal. His son had a leg broken.

The clothiers here have yielded to the strikers, and the men will resume work to-morrow.

From Florida.
KEY WEST, June 3.
A Havana correspondence also states that the government has prohibited the journals from publishing any other quotations than those of the Royal Board of Brokers.

The President of the Havana Railroad, in a communication to the Vice de Cuba, charges the brokers with giving fraudulent quotations in order to mislead the merchants and impose on the public. The government thus makes itself partially responsible for the evil, in refusing to allow the press to publish the regular quotations.

From Massachusetts.
BOSTON, June 3.
W. H. Wadleigh, Teller of the Massachusetts National Bank, was arrested on a charge of defalcation of $7,000. The Teller appears to have hoaxed the Examiner by bringing bonds in parcels, and bringing the same parcels twice.

From Mexico.
MONTEREY, June 3.
The revolutionary General Trevino, finding himself threatened attempted to evacuate Monterey, when he was attacked and badly defeated. He however escaped with a small guard to the mountains.
