LOCAL ITEMS.

Just received at VanOrsdell's another lot of those Beautiful Walnut Bindings.
All sorts of blanks printed and for sale by S. G. Hall. Office on Princess st.
Read Runge's change of advertisement in this issue, and then call upon him.
FRANK LESLIE'S Ladies book takes its place in the front rank of fashion. New patterns and illustrations appear to charm the ladies. It is one of the best books of the sort published.
We have been requested to state that Rev. J. R. Griffith, of Goldsboro, N. C., is in the city and will preach at the Front Street Methodist Church tomorrow morning and evening.
OUR old friend GRANBER speaks to his friends in our columns to day. We know whereof we speak when we say he can keep a hotel. Like the Phoenix he has risen and will be happy to see his old friends and new ones.
The first watermelon of the season was in market this morning. It was of large size and raised on Myrtle Grove Sound on the plantation of Mr. Stephen Keys. It sold for the small sum of $1.25. Good enough.

STATE ITEMS.

RALEIGH is becoming more healthy.
Gov. CALDWELL has pardoned JOHN DAWSON (not our Dawson) who was sentenced to the penitentiary from Pitt Co., in 1871.
MASONIC.—Wm. Robinson was elected H. P. of Goldsboro Chapter, No. 20, and N. Adams, W. M. of Wayne Lodge, No. 112, on Wednesday.
The examination in Raleigh next Monday is for the Deaf, Dumb and Blind, and not for the Lunatics. The News says it was a "typous penance."
THE KALEIGH Era asks the following conundrum: "Will the News 'have the manliness and fairness' to do simple justice to Gov. Caldwell by correcting its statement?"
Gov. CALDWELL has commissioned J. G. Harris, late Major N. C. Troops, as Captain of the new company at Charlotte! Bring out some more howls! Arms are to be shipped in a few days.
THE News says that "when a young man commences the propagation of bees, it is a sure indication that he is preparing for the honey-moon." The young man should know that it is full of cells.
THE People's Press at Salem says that a map was arrested bearing the same name as an ascending one who was "wanted" by a U. S. officer, and consequently don't vote the Republican ticket. It thinks "the people should remember these outrages." This is a splendid argument. We think the Press deserves a new hat for his ability. Do ask us a hard one brother Harris. We can guess that one right off. No.
THE NEW BERNE Journal of Commerce, publishes a cut representing a colored teacher whipping a white child, and the scholars alternately, black and white. The editor in commenting on the cut, says if "radicalism triumphs in August and November, it will evidently lead to this result." Does the editor of that delectable sheet think North Carolinians foolish?

THE TOWN CRIER.

Warm. BURNON & YLTON
Pave the streets.
Renovate your buildings.
Renovate your buildings.
J. M. White is moving his cigar store from imported tobacco.
Bugs come into the windows and play in the light and generally makes them tired.
Court Monday. Good time to subscribe for the Post.
Many dogs have been dead headed by the city authorities, although not members of the press gang.

TANBARK.

Mr. John D. Richeson, an old and influential Illinois Democrat, has declared for Grant and Wilson.
The Republicans of Virginia are vigilant, and Grant & Wilson Clubs have already been organized in many places.
Gratz Brown has promised to visit Arkansas this Summer, "because he feels that Arkansas did her part nobly at Cincinnati."
The Titusville (Penn.) News ridicules the Tribune's pretense of enthusiasm at the Greeley meeting in that place.—There were not enough voters present to get up an excitement.
The Springfield Republican prints, with favorable comment, a long communication from a Jeffersonian Democrat favoring the nomination of Charles Sumner, at Baltimore.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 22.
The Supplemental Conference at the 6th Avenue Hotel resulted in the nomination of Wm. S. Groesbeck, of Ohio, and Frederick Law Olmstead, of New York, and adoption of the resolutions. The consummation of which would be a long stride toward the millennium. Cox, of Ohio, withdrew.
