LOCAL ITEMS.

Just received at VanOrsdel's another lot of those Beautiful Walnut Mouldings.

A PERFECT rush of visitors to the different sounds on yesterday.

Quite a refreshing fall of rain yesterday afternoon, which was very acceptable, as it was much needed.

We were pleased to see Mr. A. T. London in the city this morning who has just returned from a trip North.

SEVERAL trees were blown down during the storm of yesterday afternoon, among them one in front of the office of the Post.

MEETING of the Third Ward Grant and Wilson Club to-morrow night at their rooms on Princess street.

ARRIVED.—Steamships Tonawanda, Capt. Wiltbanks, from Philadelphia, and the Lucille, Capt. Price, from Baltimore, have both arrived since our last issue.

Go to the Gem Saloon and obtain the best liquors in the city, and eat the best that the market affords. Morrill knows how to keep a saloon.

THINGS from which Josh Billings prays deliverance: From too many friends. From snail in the grass. From wealth without charity, and from pride without sense.

ROMEO the Great, who died recently, was worth $50,000! When he came to this country he only had an empty trunk! Where's Greeley? "Go back thieves!" Lets form a new party.

W. H. GERKEN, U. S. Gauger, can hereafter be found at the office of T. M. Smith, Esq., Assistant Assessor Third District, South side Dock street between Water and Front. All orders left there will receive prompt attention.

By reference to the advertisement in this issue, it will be seen that Col. Fremont, the energetic Engineer and Superintendent of the W. C. & R. R., has established a rate of return excursion tickets, which is a great inducement to travelers on his road.

THE Republic and Courier suggest that the "Carpet Baggers" going to Morehead for the glorious Fourth, stay in New Bern over the Sabbath and says that "ample arrangements will be made for attending Church on Sunday." We will be too busy to go to New Bern on that day, but the Church arrangement is a wise thought. We suppose our New Bern friends are such Church goers that special arrangements will have to be made for strangers.

THE Charlotte Observer says: "The grand jury of Chatham county have found a true bill against George W. Swenson, the famous Florida railroad bond operator, who disposed of $50,000 first mortgage bonds of the Georgia and Pensacola Railroad, to Messrs. Bryan & Hunter, of Savannah, the redemption of which was afterwards refused. The trouble now is to find Swenson." That is the least of the trouble. Why there's Merrimon, and Ransome, and Moore, and all the rest of the Democratic lawyers, who would fly to his relief and away he would sail again.

THE TOWN CRIER.

—The City is livelier.
—Many people attending Court.

—Services in most all the churches yesterday.

—One murder trial, and one arson at this term of the Court.

—The civil docket is continued until next Monday. Witnesses will take notice.

—Be ready to greet the Goldonites this evening. Hope they will have a good time.

—High gale for a few moments yesterday. No rain at the sound, but rain and hail here.

—JOHN LONDON, Esq., took the oath of office as an Attorney in the Superior Court this morning.

—DR. J. F. KING left the city this morning for Montreal. He will, however, make a tour of the States and Canada, and hear and see the big drum at Boston before he returns. A pleasant trip to him say we.

Mayor's Court.

JOHN MOSLEY and William Price, fighting and quarrelling. John Mosley was fined $5 and half of the cost, and William Price $15 and half of the cost.

A WHITE MAN whose name we are requested not to publish for creating a disturbance was discharged on payment of costs.

We clip the following from the Richmond Dispatch of the 22nd:

The 100 bags of new wheat (first of the season) offered on 'Change Thursday by Tyler's Son & Co., was sold by them yesterday, at $2.50 per bushel, to the Cape Fear mills, Wilmington, N. C. The quality was prime, being dry, clean, and of good weight and color.

Flour from this wheat will be offered at the Cape Fear mills to-morrow.

Superior Court.

This Court met this morning at the Court House at eleven o'clock, Judge Daniel L. Russell presiding. The following Grand Jury was chosen and regularly charged by the Judge: James Brown, Foreman; Aaron Sampson, J. E. Robitzsch, E. W. George, Daniel Hawkins, Albert Foy, Ewd. Robinson, Wash. Barnhill, Geo. M. Murray, Joseph Farrow, Luke Grant, Ewd. Smith, Washington Smith, James Garriss, J. R. Moore, D. H. Armstrong, Humphrey Foy and James Guthrie.

After the charge, the Court adjourned until 9 o'clock to-morrow morning.

We desire to call the attention of the Board of Aldermen to the fact, that on the 29th of February, the former Board of Aldermen received a communication from the Board of Fire Underwriters, in relation to the condition of the large brick building on the Southern corner of Princess and North Water Streets, known as the "Lazarus building," which communication stated that the character of the business carried on in this establishment, rendered them peculiarly liable to conflagration. Upon the reception of the report, the Board appointed Messrs. J. C. Bailey and J. I. Keen to examine the building; these gentlemen did so, and submitted a report, recommending certain additions to the building. Mayor Martin sent the report to the City Marshal, with instructions to notify the owners of the property to immediately comply with so much of the report of Messrs. Bailey & Keen as would insure the safety of the building. We learn that the Marshal performed his duty, but the owners of the building have paid no attention to the order of the Board. The present Board should examine into the matter and either compel obedience to the former order or enforce the penalty.

DIED.

RICE.—In Chester, Vermont, June 21st. EDWARD P. only son of Perry M. and Amanda S. Rice of this city, aged 2 years.

CLAP-TRAP and CANT.—Invalid reader, 1 you are unwise enough to put yourself outside of any of the mock tonics guaranteed to contain no diffusive stimulant, you will inevitably come to grief. Ask your physician if any liquid preparation, destitute of stimulating properties, is worthy of the name of tonic. He will tell you no. Shun all such nauseous catchpennies. PLANTATION BITTERS, the most wholesome invigorant in the world, owes the rapidity with which it relieves the disordered stomach and the shattered nerves to the diffusive agent which conveys its medicinal ingredients to the seat of the complaint. That agent is the spirit of the sugar cane, the most nutritious and agreeable of all the varieties of alcohol. The medicinal ingredients of the Bitters valueless as they are, would be comparatively useless without the distributive basis. They would ferment and sour. Beware, as you hope for health, of the horrible compounds of refuse drugs in a state of fermentation which humbugs are endeavoring to foist upon the public as medicines.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will not raise the dead, but it will benefit and cure the living. For all severe Coughs, Throat and Bronchial diseases it has never been equaled.
