LOCAL ITEMS.

Just received at VanOrsdell's another lot of those Beautiful Walnut Mouldings.

All sorts of blanks printed and for sale by S. G. Hall. Office on Princess st.

Neill McKay, Jr., Esq., Republican candidate for Congress, will address the people of the Third Congressional District at the following times and places:

Fayetteville, July 16th.
Abbottsburg, July 18 h.
Whiteville, July 19th.
Smithville, July 20th.

At which places he will be happy to meet Col. Waddell, and will give him an equal division of time.

Hon. O. H. Dockery will speak at the following places:
Lumberton, July 16th.
Sterlings Mills, July 17th.
Shoe Heel, July 18th.
Laurenburg, (at night) July 18th.

ORDERS for political printing to receive attention must be accompanied with the cash, or the endorsement of persons from whom I can collect on presentation of bill. This rule will be strictly carried out in the future.

S. G. HALL.

A FINE time was had at Rocky Point Township yesterday. Our friends pronounce that Township all right for the Republican nominations.

HARRISS, the disseminator of news, has as usual, all the latest publications. Ledgers, Pictorals, Monthlies, etc., of latest dates and at reasonable prices.

CLOSE up the ranks, show a bold front, stand by the nominations, and Col. McKay will be elected. Do not our friends thoroughly understand this?

THE CAROLINA FARMER, W. H. Bernard publisher, for July has been received. It sustains its high reputation and should be read by all tillers of the soil.

We have ceased publishing the Meteorological Reports, because the government and the telegraph companies are at loggerheads and the dispatches don't come.

BROTHER Wilson of the Kinston Gazette wants more factories of all sorts in North Carolina. His head is level.

HOTTIN MOORE, Magnolia, sunstroke, -not yet.

LUMBERTON is to have a brass band. Glad we don't live in that immediate vicinity.

Mayor's Court.

There were but few cases before the Mayor's Court this morning. The Marshal reports that the city was remarkably orderly on the fourth, but few arrests being made, and these for trivial offences.

SANDY JOHNSON got on the rampage, gave bonds to appear in Court to-day, and failed to put in an appearance.—Officers have been sent for Sandy. Case continued.

SUSAN WALKER—disorderly conduct, was discharged on payment of costs.

THE TOWN CRIER.

—Gold 113 3/4.
—Everybody feels better.
—Sunshine and clouds again.
—Many flags fluttered yesterday.
—Another young man on the carpet.
—Yesterday was delightfully pleasant.

—Fourth of July again assumes its wonted popularity.
—Unhappy dogs howl at night, much to the sorrow of the sick.

Col. McKay is in the city and will certainly speak to-night. Let there be a full house.

—Key found, with brass tag and number. The owner can obtain it by calling upon the editor.

—Judge Cantwell has been invited to meet Gov. Vance at Whiteville tomorrow, to divide time with him.

—Longfellow's time yesterday at Long Branch was a quarter of a second shorter than he had ever heretofore made. See telegram.

—TRAIN not (George Francis) got off the track and so TRAIN (George Francis) failed to come to time and lecture last night. We weep.

Superior Court.

The Court was engaged all day in trying the case of J. M. Weith and Arents vs. the City of Wilmington. This was a test suit on the validity of $10,000 of Bonds issued by the city to take the place of some Bonds issued in 1863, commonly known as the "Dawson Bonds." The city resisted the payment on the grounds that the first lot of Bonds were issued in support of the Rebellion. Verdict in favor of the city. We presume there will be an appeal to the Supreme Court.

The Court then adjourned until tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

The officers of Germania Lodge, No. 4, were publicly installed in Castle Hall, on Third st., last evening, by D. G. C. Wm. Hotteford, assisted by the officers of the Grand Lodge of the State.—There were a large number of ladies and gentlemen present to witness the ceremony. The following are the officers viz: W. Hotteford, V. P.; W. J. Buhman, W. C.; C. Schulten, V. C.; J. Benny, G.; H. Ohlandt, I. S.; Aug. Wessell, O. S. Attendants, A. C. H. Finchen, D. Dasher. After the above officers were installed the W. C. delivered an ably prepared address to the Knights present in the German language, after which the Lodge was closed.

GRAND MASS MEETING.—A glorious time was had at Holden township yesterday. Speeches were made by Messrs. Wm. McLAURIN and J. C. HILL, and the ticket enthusiastically endorsed.

The following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That we, the Republican voters of Holden Township, in mass meeting assembled, deeming it our duty to stand by the great Republican party of this county do endorse and hereby ratify the Republican nominees of the county convention, held at Rocky Point, June 29th.

Resolved, That we hereby pledge our undivided support to the nominees of said ticket, believing that in them we recognize true and fire-branded Republicans, who will lead us on to victory.

Resolved, That we hereby denounce all attempts of evil designing, self made politicians, to divide our party, and thereby contribute to a democratic triumph.

Resolved, That the Wilmington Post be requested to publish these resolutions.

OSCAR CAPENTER,
Chairman.
SAMUEL MCINTYRE,
Secretary.

The Glorious Fourth.

The day was ushered in as usual by the firing of guns and the incessant discharge of fire crackers, and at an early hour throngs of our citizens were seen hastening to consummate the plans made for a full enjoyment of the day. Every available horse and buggy had been chartered for two or three weeks before, and as the day was delightful, and all that could be desired, many pleasure seekers sought the delightful sea air at the Sounds and at Smithville.

AT FORT JOHNSON
the national salute of thirty-seven guns was fired at noon in accordance with the old established regulations. The SEWARD went down the river gaily decked in her regulation colors, including the national flag, which she only displays on this anniversary, and arrived at Smithville at noon. Here the Gov. WORTH, loaded with some two hundred and fifty pleasure seekers, arrived and enabled the gaily dressed couples to wander about the classic shades and enjoy the delightful ocean breeze. An attempt was made to blow up the hull of the ram NORTH CAROLINA, but it proved ineffectual. A couple of gentlemen amused themselves sailing the new fast little craft, the "Emma Porter," but they were so anxious to skim over the water like the gulls that they ran her bow under which speedily filled the boat. A good wetting but nobody hurt. The genial Capt ROSARY was on hand with smiling countenance to welcome tired and dusty Wilmingtonians at his cool little office on stilts on the beach, and taken altogether, Smithville seemed determined to give a warm welcome with its delightfully cool breezes.

HOMEWARD BOUND.

At 4 o'clock the whistle of the WORTH sounded its warning note and the merry crowds hurried on board and the lively feet keeping time to the quadrilles, made the hours of the return trip swiftly fly. One or two unfortunate personal difficulties, annoyed the gentlemen, and terrified the ladies, but with that exception, everything passed off to the satisfaction of all concerned. Capt. WORTH was omnipresent, doing everything in his power for the comfort of his passengers. The only accident was the falling overboard of BOB EVANS, a young type formerly of this city, but now of Magnolia, who had removed his coat and was standing on the guards to cool, when by some unaccountable accident, he fell into the river. The Oldham was just in the rear of the WORTH and threw life preservers overboard, which Evans was fortunate enough to catch. In the mean time some gentlemen jumped into the WORTH's yawl and rescued him. His own presence of mind and the timely aid of the life preservers saved his life, and the hearty cheers from the anxious throngs on the steamers at his rescue announced to all that their fears of another terrible tragedy was happily averted. The dancing was kept up until the steamer was tied to the wharf, and the joyous crowds returned to their various homes.

AT THE SOUNDS.

The many white sails, dotting the pure waters of the Sounds, the surf baths, and the cooling drinks under the generous shade of the noble oaks, marked the joyful hours of the throng who flocked to that portion of the Sea Side, and many a wearied hand will take up its life burdens, refreshed and more firm, for the welcome relaxation.

THE WILMINGTON RIFLE GUARDS had their parade and target shooting at the oaks, where many spectators were gathered to enjoy the sport.

Messrs. Geo. W. Price, Jr., Alfred How, Geo. L. Mabson, and John Brown were chosen as judges, and sixty-six men tried their chances at the target, each man having three shots.

The first prize, a silver watch, was won by Private William Johnson who made the best three line shots.

The second prize, a silver pitcher and waiter, was won by Private Jas. Shaw, who made two excellent line shots, and Thaddeus Howard, won the third prize, a set of silver tea spoons, for the third best shot, including one very near the center. The target was won by John Alexander, who made the best single shot, literally plugging the bulls eye. In the evening a BALL AT THE CITY HALL closed their festivities, where dancing was kept up to a late hour. The "Guards" will not soon forget their first celebration of the National holiday.

OUT AT KLEIN'S.

Many persons, unable to leave the city for an entire day, visited Col. Kleins Wilmington Garden, where the delightful breezes and cooling shades enabled them to forget their cares, and drink to the day we celebrate. Here as elsewhere, the people seemed to enjoy themselves thoroughly.

We have never seen the day more generally observed here, and the welcome news that comes from so many of the excursionists, that "they had a splendid time" is gladly recorded, speaking as it does of the good nature and morality of our citizens.

STATE ITEMS.

GENERAL D. H. Hill has typhoid fever.

THEY have a Fire Extinguisher in Kinston. Put him out.

WHEN colored women who work on farms in Union county can knock over huge lumps of virgin gold with their hoes, what results may not be expected from Dr. Greeley's telling what he knows about farming?

LATEST BY TELEGRAPH.

From New York.
A Niagara Falls dispatch states that on the evening of July 3d, three United States officers visited the Harold a small place, on the Well and Canal, and forcibly took with them a young man named William White, Ship-Carpenter, of Chicago. White was pinioned and blindfolded, after going four miles in the country, it was discovered that White was the wrong man. White states the officers were after some Ku Klux, who were connected with the Greenboro outrages but says he will not pursue his would be takers.

Murphy, student of Eastman's College, Poughkeepsie, belonging to Ga., accidentally shot himself to-day. The wound is said to be fatal.

TAMANY CELEBRATION.
Hon. J. S. Brooks, S. S. Cox, W. R. Roberts and others made speeches. A banquet terminated the exercises in the evening.

The incidental mention of Horace Greeley's name was received with immense enthusiasm.

Yesterday evening the trains on South Side Railroad, Long Island, collided between Fresh Pond and Bushwick Stations, one train had stopped to avoid running into the other. A telescoping of engines took place and three persons killed and many injured. At the time of the collision, passengers were jumping from the cars amid scenes of excitement. The suffering were for a long time without water or physicians.

About thirty-five fires during the day, none very serious.

Twenty-four persons died from effects of the heat.

Ninety-seven cases sun-strokes reported, forty fatal.
