ORDERS for political printing to receive attention must be accompanied with the cash, or the endorsement of persons from whom I can collect on presentation of bill. This rule will be strictly carried out in the future.

S. G. HALL.

COL. A. M. WADDELL, the democratic candidate for Congress, is in the city.

Gov. VANCE was expected in the city this evening, and arrangements were made for a serenade, but he will not arrive in time.

REV. DR. JONES, President of Warrenton Female College will occupy the pulpit of Front street M. E. Church tomorrow morning and evening.

The weather reports will be again forthcoming in a few days. They are an important addition to our daily news and we should be glad to receive them.

THANKS.—We return our thanks to the young gentlemen who were so considerate as to appear with sweet music beneath our windows last night. May their shadows never grow less.

Mayor's Court.
SAM CASH for stealing a watch was bound over to the Superior Court in the sum of one hundred dollars.

Five cases of disorderly conduct of a trivial nature were disposed of.

OUR space will not permit us to publish all of Col. McKay's speech or the resolutions adopted to day, but the balance will appear on Monday. The entire report will appear in our Weekly of July 12th.

I. O. O. F.—The regular meeting of Campbell Encampment No. 1, I. O. O. F., was held last (Friday) evening, at Odd Fellows' Hall, when P. C. P. Wm. L. Smith, assisted by P. C. P. W. J. Yopp, Wm. Goodman, John C. Koch and Marcus Bear, installed the following Patriarchs as officers for the ensuing term: C. P., A. J. Yopp; H. P., James Fleet; S. W., Wm. L. Smith; J. W., Charles Schulken; S. G. H. Kelley; T. J. A. Nicholson; G. W. W. Yopp; 1st W., J. C. Koch; 2d W., R. J. Jones; 3d W., Wm. Goodman; 4th W., G. P. Bappler; I. S., E. Levy; O. S., Marcus Bear; G. of T., J. M. McGowan, Jos. Sternberger. P. C. P. Marcus Bear was elected as representative to the Grand Encampment, which meets at Raleigh on the 17th inst.

GRAND RATIFICATION MEETING! THE PEOPLE IN COUNCIL!

Nominations Fully Endorsed.

IMMENSE ENTHUSIASM.

The ratification meeting Friday night was a perfect success, and the speeches were listened to with marked attention by the vast audience which filled the City Hall, until the midnight hour.

W. P. CANADAY, Esq., as Chairman of the District Executive Committee, called the meeting to order, and was, on motion of Hon. JAMES HEATON, made the Chairman of the meeting. Mr. CANADAY then returned thanks in a few well chosen remarks, and called for an election of Secretaries. N. G. SAMPSON, Esq., and Major J. C. MANN were chosen.

The Chairman then announced the speakers of the evening, and introduced Gen. ABBOTT, who made a few well-timed remarks. We have space but for a very brief outline of the speeches on the occasion, but on account of the importance of the meeting and the marked unanimity of the vast crowd present, we give a short synopsis of what was said.

Gen. ABBOTT said:

Mr. Chairman and Fellow-citizens:—It is now more than a year since I have addressed you on public affairs. The last time was when the vote was pending on the proposed change of the constitution of the State. At this time we are assembled in the interests of the Republican party. There is a proposition again before the people to amend the constitution of the State. We defeated it once and it now comes up in another guise. I do not propose to make you an extended address to-night.

Several speakers present who desire to address you. Col. NEILL MCKAY, our candidate for Congress, and Major SCHENCK, our next Sheriff, of whom I might say as HORACE GREELEY said of Gen. GRANT, he has never been defeated, and never can be. (Applause.)

The nominations all over the State are now made. The National, State and County tickets are before you, and your candidates for Congress and the Legislature are in nomination. Our county is a peculiar one, situated at the mouth of the Cape Fear, with its almost two thousand majority, it is known all over the State as a pillar of strength in our cause. It has sometimes flattered away that strength with no just cause. Two years ago was an instance of that, whereby we lost our member of Congress, and a Senator and member of the House of Representatives, who contributed to the defeat of Governor HODGENS.

When a nomination is fairly made, in accordance with the usages of the party, it is the duty of that party to support that ticket. All men cannot hold office. Even all men who want offices, cannot get them. Some go into their Conventions and if they fail of obtaining a nomination, are not satisfied and work against the regular nominee. Your differences should all be settled when you meet in Convention and not brought out on the stump before the people.

I have a few words of advice to give my friends in New Hanover county. I have just arrived to-night from Raleigh and have heard many strange things on the streets. I have heard, that very brilliant offers have been made to certain Republicans, if they would only help to split the Republican party! I say to any Republican whether he like the choice of the Convention or not, whether his desires be successful or not, that I think it his duty as I do mine, to come up and support the ticket. (Applause.) Anything else is disruption, disunion, disintegration—and that is defeat. It is our desire to promote the success of the Democratic party of North Carolina, let us follow that; but if not, if we wish the success of the Republican party of North Carolina, let us stand united in this struggle. If we wish to perpetuate the measures we have adopted for our protection, let us stand together and support the regular nominations.

I have received much cheering news from different parts of the State. It is very gratifying. The Republicans at the West are at work. The Republicans in every county in the East are determined, and generally united, and I believe when the returns come in, they will exceed the large majorities of last fall. (Applause.) We are going to make Congressmen not only but a President, and we shall call into the State some of those distinguished men who have aided in our grand work.

Our candidate for the Vice Presidency, the Hon. HENRY WILSON will address you in this city, probably within the next ten days. He will speak at Goldsboro and some other portions of the State. (Applause.) Extend a welcome to those gentlemen by being united in New Hanover. (Applause.) I have said all I intended to say to-night, but will take another opportunity when I am permitted, to address you at length on the important matters before you—(Applause)

The Chairman then introduced COL. NEILL MCKAY, who was received with vociferous cheers.

COL. MCKAY said:

Mr. Chairman and Fellow Citizens of New Hanover County:—I appear before you as a Representative of the great Republican party, the party of Liberty and Progress. It has been stated to you that I am a candidate for Congress. (Applause.) I was unanimously nominated by a Convention in which every County in the District was represented, and I have to tell you Republicans of New Hanover County, that if there is no division in your ranks, that our flag will float in triumph on the first Thursday in August next. (Applause.) You have too much patriotism, too great a love of Liberty to permit a division on local questions when so much is at stake. Stand united together, and you will be successful in both contests.

Now we come to the question, whether you will support the nomination of the voters of North Carolina, Convention or no Convention. What was the result? The people voted No; yet in three months later the same Legislature submitted the same proposition in another form in spite of the verdict of the people in August last. The people are determined, but this question is to be forced down your throats whether you want it or not!

What do you want to amend the Constitution for? It guarantees you all your rights. But the democratic party claim that the men who had a hand in framing the constitution did not belong to North Carolina! Does that make any difference, if it is a just one? The democracy simply want to get the men out of office, who are in, and get in all who are out.

One of the amendments proposed by this democratic Legislature, is to allow the Legislature to increase or decrease the number of Judges in the State. That is a dangerous power. You have elected your Judges, and if, after eight years trial, you find them unfit for the high positions assigned them, you can change them, but if they are appointed for life, there can be no alteration.

According to the Constitution as it exists now, my fellow-citizens, every man has a homestead of the value of one thousand dollars and a personal property exemption of five hundred dollars. And here is a proposition to decrease the number of Supreme Court Judges from five to three. You have your homestead, and you know the opinion of the Bar on the old debt. The Supreme Court have saved the homestead. Pass this amendment and put new men on the Bench, and you endanger all this. It has been said that every one is in favor of the homestead. You have got now it and what is the use of changing it? If you have got what you want why should you desire change? This change of Judges may destroy the homestead. The old judgments in the Superior Court will be revived on the old debts and execution will issue, and no homestead to save a little for your wife and children. There is no necessity for amending the Constitution at this time.

Superior Court.
This was the last day of the term, and the Attorneys and officers drew a sigh of relief as the dockets closed on the labors of the session. It has been very severe upon all concerned, owing to the terribly oppressive weather, and will long be remembered as the hardest season experienced in the Court room for years.

McKean died suddenly early this morning. He was impeached by the Legislature.

From North Carolina.
RALEIGH, July 6.
The Raleigh News, this morning, publishes a special dispatch from Tarboro, N. C., dated July 4th, says that an attempt was made to murder a democratic editor, Captain Biggs, of the Tarboro Southerner, by a mob of radical negroes. The dispatch says: "The fourth of July was observed here to-day by a large crowd of negroes, Capt. Biggs, of the Southerner, was present as a reporter. He was assaulted by a large number of negroes, and saved his life with difficulty, after having exhausted all his weapons. It is certain the attack was planned beforehand. Capt. B. escaped with a few slight scratches. The authors of the outrage are known." The News denounces the outrage as a brutal and cowardly attempt, on the part of the radicals, to murder a democratization of the State on account of his political sentiments.
