S. G. HALL.

REGISTRATION.—The Registration Book for the Third ward is now open at NEEL GERKEN'S Store, corner of Sixth and Mulberry Streets.

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE.
The Journal charges that you are unwilling to pay seven cents tax on a cow or one half cent on a hog. Is there a Republican in North Carolina who would refuse to pay such a tax. If there is the sooner he becomes a ku klux the better for the Republican party.

COMPLETED.—Nearly all the arrangements have been completed for a glorious old time on Thursday next. The committees are hard at work and letters responding to the invitation are already being received. We expect a grand time. Let a full delegation be on hand from New Hanover county. Further announcement to-morrow.

THE JOURNAL puts at the head of its editorial columns its version of the "Parlor and Kitchen" remarks although Col. McKay, repudiated them. We were more considerate of Col. Waddell's feelings, although we have been assured that the remarks charged to Col. Waddell were actually made. By a misunderstanding for which we cannot be to blame, the affidavits promised were not forwarded, and consequently we could not publish. Whereupon we published Col. Waddell's card and removed the paragraph from our columns. Will the Journal act as fairly.

SENSIBLE.—We see the Liberal Republican Greeley party of North Carolina, through its Executive Committee, requests all the papers of that political faith to copy the State ticket as published in the Raleigh News. The Sentinel has become played out among its own friends. This is a very sensible move for them, though we would prefer to have them try to carry the Sentinel two weeks longer, and after that it could go under. However, as our wishes are not consulted, we suppose we will have to admit that the News is now the organ of the Greeley party, and speaks officially. Good-bye, Sentinel.

THE TOWN CRIER.

Gold 114.
Thermometer 17. N. 30.
— Delightfully cool breeze.
— Mayor Wilson has returned.
— Gen. Rutherford is coming down to see his old friends.
— Ten minutes in the allotted time for paper collars.
— A loose horse, playing in the streets, and the people returning from church.
— The Knights of the Commandery, on Wednesday next, at 8 o'clock, Attention, Sir Knights.
— A graceful fawn, skipping along the streets last night, attracted much attention. This was not a goat. The reporter can tell a fawn from a goat, early in the evening.

Mayor's Court.
His Honor JAMES WILSON, Mayor, presiding.
Mayor Wilson returned on Saturday and this morning resumed his judicial chair. Alderman Brink resigning with pleasure the somewhat arduous position he has held during Mayor Wilson's absence.
The Docket presented a goodly array this morning. Eleven young shoots were discovered by the police, bathing in the river, in direct opposition to an ordinance forbidding such pleasure within the city limits. Five on Saturday and seven yesterday. In the goodness of his heart, Marshal Canaday consented to discharge them, with a reprimand, and a small fine, $1 25 each—the penalty being $10 in each case. We trust that this will be a warning to the thoughtless lads.
JULIA EVANS, disorderly conduct, dismissed on payment of costs, $2 25.
JEFF JOHNSON, disorderly conduct, payment of costs, $2 25.
JOHN WRIGHT, disorderly conduct, payment of costs, $2 25.
JOSEPH SULLIVAN—Stealing watch and specie. Committed. Joseph is the festive chap who stole a watch from the Farmers' Hotel, and which Detective Sellers recovered on Saturday night. He will take a long watch in jail before he is released.

My HERO. A GENUINE LOVE STORY. By Mrs. Forrester, author of "Fair Women," has just been published by T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia, Pa. This new novel from the prolific and brilliant pen of Mrs. Forrester, the new English writer, cannot fail to create a decided sensation in the reading world of America. The present romance is a fascinating one, and fully as original and entertaining as any of the previous works of this gifted writer. The characters, male and female, are drawn with a master hand, strongly individualized and admirably contrasted. The descriptions of scenery are graphic in the extreme, the dialogue flows smoothly and naturally, and "My Hero" will meet with a great success, such as it really deserves. It is issued in a large duodecimo volume, bound in morocco muslin, black and gold, new style, very handsome, and sold at all the bookstores, at the low price of $1.75, or copies will be sent by mail to any place, post-paid, by the Publishers, T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia, Pa., on the receipt of the price of the work in a letter to them. For sale by P. Heinsberger.

A CONTEMPORARY says that the "Radical paper" of this city is attempting to make political capital out of the "unfortunate occurrence" on the Weldon train, bound for the democratic mass meeting. Here is a full statement of the case, as reported by a gentleman on the train, in whom we have great confidence. The white man, Barnes, approached the colored man Cook, and said, "who do you go for, Greeley or Grant?" Cook responded, "I go for Grant." Whereupon Barnes spit in Cook's face, and Cook struck him over the head with his umbrella. Barnes then drew a knife and struck for his jugular vein. Barnes was arrested by order of Judge Moore, on the train, and turned over to the Sheriff at Halifax, and Cook died. Barnes was not "beastly drunk," but walked out in charge of the Sheriff. As he went off one young man said to another, "come, Jim, let's go. We've got to do some d—d hard swearing now." Now we ask our twinkling contemporary if he don't think the above a pretty plain case. We were in error about the "no arrest." We misunderstood our informant, but a careful examination into the matter develops the above facts. Again the question arises, have we the ku klux among us?

STATE ITEMS.

AGREED ON.—All the political newspapers of the State are agreed on the importance of every voter being registered while there is yet time before the State elections, which occur only two weeks from Thursday.

SHOT SOLDIERS at Fort Macon were knocked down and injured by lightning on the 5th inst., one of them being killed instantly.

NARROW ESCAPE.—Chancey Wiles, confined in jail in New Bern under sentence of death for the crime of murder, was discharged by the Supreme Court having affirmed the order of Judge Clark for his discharge. The indictment charged that he committed the crime on the 1st January, and Judge Clark ordered the release on the ground that at that time the crime of arson was not a capital offense.

A WOMAN in Nash county, after having been unable to use her lower limbs for sixteen years, has now regained them, and walks as well as ever.

THE excursion train from Charlotte to Morehead City last week consisted of ten passenger coaches.

CORRESPONDENCE.

The Editor of this paper is in an easy responsibility for the views or statements of correspondents; no communications of an anonymous character will be published; the real name of the writer must accompany all communications. Any one who may feel aggrieved at statements made by correspondents can obtain the same on application to the Editor.

For the Evening Post.

WELDON, N. C. July 12, 1872.
DEAR POST:—The grand Liberal-Conservative-Democratic pow wow has "done and been," and we still live. We have been told for the last week, that Trumbull, Schurz and Blair, with other illustrious sore heads, would be on hand to help "bridge the chasm;" but Schurz knowing that the representation of his countrymen in this section would be slim, and Trumbull knowing that Liberal-Republican-Democrats were like angels with their wings, he was not on a carriage and horses lost once upon a time, they each and every one failed to come to time, and left the Southern Greeleyites to be represented by Tip Top Tipton and Copperhead Stockton. Tipton's part of the programme was to show how a Northern sorehead Greeleyite could take the Southern K. K. Democracy to his heart and seem to like it, while old Stockton's part was to show the old Bourbon Democracy of the South how an old Northern Copperhead Democrat looked and felt after going through a course of Dr. Greeley's pills, they both did very well considering the short time the piece has been in rehearsal. The South was represented by "Story Telling," Vance, Grandmother Clingman, Bombastes Furioso Ransom, and several lesser lights of the Democratic constellation. It was pointed to every one that if the appetite of the crowd for the Baltimore nomination, was as good as their appetite for the Barbecue, some of them will be troubled with indigestion. I have often heard of the fragments of a feast, but this feast had many fragments left, it was a clean sweep, illustrative of the way in which each and every speaker prophesied that they would devour us on the first of August. Well we shall see what we shall see; I know that if the rest of the State will only do as I promise you this portion will, there will be many fragments left of this hybrid Democratic party when the sun goes down on the first of August next.

So mote it be. Yours,
WELDON.

It is eminently fitting that Horace Greeley, the defender of secession, the apostle of treason, and the Niagara peace commission, (self appointed), should be nominated for Presidency by the Democracy in the city of Baltimore, where Democrats first shed blood in resisting the Union.

Greeley is a clumsy and impolitic manager, and utterly without the means of bringing his own party to his support. He is what the first Napoleon called an idealist—a man with a busy, teeming brain, but with an infirm, erratic and impracticable judgment. With all his experience it is safe to say that he is the poorest judge of character of any prominent man in this country. He is forever being galled and imposed upon, as he has repeatedly shown by his Quixotic support of public and worthless characters of his own party.

NEW YORK, July 15.
The Court in the case of the State of New York vs. Inghram in a crowded session, Inghram in answer to the State's attorney's charge, said: "I suppose gentlemen, your Honor, we cannot come to an agreement whatever." The prisoner, Sheriff Inghram, and the custody of Stokes and the prisoner's express from the State, this the jury returning a verdict of guilty on the third degree.
