THE EVENING POST.

Monday, August 12th, 1872.

National Republican Platform. The Republican party of the United States, assembled in National Convention in the city of Philadelphia, on the 5th and 6th days of June, 1872, again declares its faith appeals to its history, and announces its position upon the questions before the country :

1. During eleven years of supremacy it has accepted with grand courage the solemn duties of the times. It sup pressed a gigantic rebellion, emancipated 4,000,000 of slaves, decided the equal citizenship of all, and established universal suffrage, Exhibiting unparalleled magnanimity, it criminally punished no man for political offenses, and warmly welcomed all who proved their loysity by obeying the laws and dealing justly with their neighbors. It has teadily decreased, with a firm hand, the resultant disorders of a great war, and initiated a wise and humane policy toward the Indians. The Pacific railroad and similar enterprises have been generally aided and successfully conducted, the public lands freely given to actual settlers, immigration protected and encouraged, and a full acknowledgment of the -naturalized citizens' rights, secured from European Powers. A uniform national currency has been provided, repudiation frowned down, the national credit sustained under most extraordinary burdens. and rew bonds negotiated at lower rates .-Tue revenues have been carefully collected and honestly applied. Despite annual large reductions of the fates of taxation, the public debt has been reduced during General Grant's Presiden cy at the rate of one hundred millions a year. Great financial crisis have been aveided and peace and plenty prevail throughout the land. Menacing foreign of Congress in extending amnesty to ufficulties have been peacefully and henorably composed, and the honor and power of the nation kept in high re-. spect throughout the world.

duty of our Government to guard with jealous care the right of adopted citizens against the assumption of unauthorized claims by their former Governments, and we urge continual careful encouragement and protection of voluntary immigration.

10. The franking privilege ought to be abolished and the way prepared for a speedy reduction in the rate of postage.

11. Among the questions which press for attention is that which concerns the relations of capital and labor, and the Republican party recognize the duty of so shaping legislation as to secure full protection and the amplest for capital and for labor the creator of capital, the largest opportunities and a just share of the mutual profits of these two great servants of civilization.

12. We hold that Congress and the President have only fulfilled an imperative duty in their measures for the suppression of violent and treasonable organizations in certain lately rebellious regions, and for the protection of the ballot-box, and therefore they are entitled to the thanks of the nation.

13. We denounce the repudiation of the public debt in any form or disguise as a national crime. We witness with pride the reduction of the principal of the debt and of the rates of interest upon the balance, and confidently expect that our excellent national currency will be perfected by a speedy resumption of specie payments.

14. Th: Republican party is mindful of its obligations to the loyal women of America for their noble donation to the cause of freedom, their admission to the wider fields of usefulness is viewed with satisfaction, and the honest demands of any class of citizens for additional rights should be treated with respectful consideration.

15. We heartily approve the action

THE NEW YORK TIMES. A POLITICAL LITERARY AND MISCELANEOUS NEWSPAPER.

CAMPAIGN EDITION. 212 During the ensuing Presidential Canvass, we shall publish a SPECIAL WEEKLY EDI rion for the convenience of those who desire the latest and most trustworthy political intelligence. Having made ample arrangements for se-curing the earliest reports of meetings, conventions, and other occurrences of political interest, we shall, throughout the Presiden-tial canvass, publish fuller information reg-lating to the progress of the campaign than any other New-York paper. We aim only at supplying the public with the most complete information on all current affairs. Subscribers to our Campaign Edition will therefore secure an exhaustive summary of the political news of the day, besides receiv ing the general news from all parts of the World, obtained from the best sources, and rearranged and prepared specially for this edition.

The NEW-YORK TIMES is a Republican newspaper, and will, during the canyass, now fairly commenced, steadfastly main. tain the established principles of that Party. It will support the regular nominees of the rhiladelphia Convention, and do its share n securing their triumphant election in November. It regaids the success of the Republican Party as an object of the very first importance, and will give no support to irregular or "bolting" nominations, which can only result in the return of the Democrats to power. There are projects of all kinds on foot for dissolving the Repub-lican Party, and the TIMES will oppose them all. Its course in reference to the Tammany Ring, at a tame when all the other daily papers in New-York obstructed and discouraged its efforts, attests its sincerity in the cause of Reform. The 'I IMES stood a.one in demanding Reform from 1869 to the close of 1871-now other journals are attempting to make political capital out of the mere repetition of the cry. There is no sincere and honest proposal for reform, in any branch of the Government, which will not be heartily supported by the TIMES. But it will not conspire in assisting ambitious politicians or demagogues to reach power under talse pretenses. It will not encour-age defection from the party. It regards the Philadelphia Convention as the only body authorized to speak and act for the Republican Party. TERMS :

The CAMPAIGN EDITION of the NEW YORK TIMES will be turnished to mail subscribers for the six months next ensuing, for the sum of EIFTY CENTS. All copies sent to the same Post-office to be mailed to one address. THE NEW YORK TIMES,

As a Republican journal, will be devoted,

This glorious record of the past is the party's best pledge for the futue.

We believe the people will not intrust the Government to any party or combination of men composed thiefly of those disapproves of the resort to unconstituwho resisted every step of this beneficial progress.

2. Complete liberty anl exact equality in the enjoyment of al civil, political and public rights should be estab lished and effectually maintained Government to adopt such measures as throughout the Union by efficient and appropriate State and Jederal legislation. Neither the law nor the Administration should admit of any discrimination in respect of atizens by reason of race, creed, color, or previous condition of servitude.

3. The recent amendments to the commended him to the heart of the Constitution should be cordially susly tolerated because they are law, and should be carried out according to their spirit by appropriate legislation, the enforcement of which can safely be intrusted only to the party that secured those amendments.

under which the subordinate positions of the Government are considered rewards for mere party zeal is fatally demoralizing, and we therefore favor a reform of patronage and make honesty. efficiency, and fidelity the essential qualifications for public position, with practically creating a life tenure of office.

6. We are opposed to further grants of the public lands to corporations and monopolies and demand that the national domain be set apart for free homes for the people.

7. The annual revenue, after paying the current debt, should furnish a modprincipal, and the revenue, except somuch as may be derived from a tax on

It will sustain, with all the force and in-fluence at its command, the principles and policy which have rendered that Party so justly famous in our history. It will advo cate those measures by which the honor, the peace, and the prosperity of the nation can be best conserved and promoted? Started in September, 1851, The TIMES has for many years been recognized as among the most successful, popular, and influential newspapers in the country. Two of iti original proprietors still direct its policy; and, with greatly-increased re-sources and experience, will spare no pains to extend and strengthen its claims upon the confidence and support of the public. Its EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT will be con-ducted in a spirit of fairness and impartial-ity, free alike from self-interested aims, political jobberv, or undue favoritism. It political jobberv, or undue tavoritism. It will represent the great body of the public rather than any clique of professional "pol-iticians." It has no one connected with it who seeks office, or who will become a candidate for office. Its CORRESPONDENCE will be full and timely, and its REPORTS will be prepared with the utmost care. The LIT-ERARY DEPARTMENT will be in thoroughly capable hands, and will present a full re-view of the literature, the fine arts, the Music, and the drama of the day. As a family paper, free from all appeals to vulgar and impure tastes, the TIMES will continue unexceptionable, and may be safely admitted to every domestic circle. The Sunday edition of the TIMES in-cludes, in addition to all the news, selected and original literary matter of the most varied and agreeable character. Special arrangements have been made to impart new attractions to this feature of the paper. The WEEKLY and SEMI WEEKLY editions of the TIMES are compiled with the greatest care, and will contain selections from the most important contents of the Daily issue, besides matters of interest to the agricul-tural sections of the country. All who prefer a newspaper but once or twice a week will find these editions admirably suited to their requirements. A special edition of the TIMES for EURO-PEAN circulation is published every Wednes-day and Saturday, in time for the European mails, and will be valuable and we come to our friends abroad, whether Americans or of any other nationality than our own. All these editions of the TIMEs are of the very largest size, on large quarto sheets, each containing fifty-six columns, printed in clear and legible type, at the following
