REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.

- FOR PRESIDENT, GYLSSES S. GRANT, Of Illinois.
FOR VICE-PRESIDENT, HENRY WILSON, Of Massachusetts.
ELECTORAL TICKET.
FOR THE STATE AT LARGE: MARCUS ERWIN, of Buncombe. SAMUEL F. PHILLIPS, of Wake.
FOR THE CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICTS: 1. Edward Ranson, of Tyrrell. 2. William F. Lottin, of Lenoir. 3. Thomas M. Argo, of Orange. 4. Henry Waiser, of Davidson. 5. William S. Bynum, of Lincoln. 6. James G. Ramsey, of Rowan. 7. James M. Justice, of Rutherford.

KEEP BEFORE THE PEOPLE! It is urged by the Democratic organs that the law is to be enforced in State and municipal elections. This is done to make it more obnoxious, if that be possible, to their party. But, unfortunately, this is an error. The law applies only to Presidential and Congressional elections, though we heartily wish it could be made to apply to all others.

When the rebellious Traitors are overwhelmed in the field, and scattered like leaves before an angry wind, it must not be to return to Peaceful and Contented Homes. They must find Poverty at their firesides, and see PRIVATION in the anxious eyes of Mothers and the Rags of Children.

From the Tribune, 1871. "I hold our Government bound by its duty of protecting our citizens in their fundamental rights, to pass and enforce laws for the extirpation of the execrable Ku Klux conspiracy; and if it has not the power to do it, then I say our Government is no Government, but a sham. Therefore on every proper occasion advocated and justified the Ku Klux act. I hold it especially desirable for the South; and if it does not prove strong enough to effect its purpose, I hope it will be made stronger and stronger."

Work. An infamous article, with the above title appeared in the Raleigh Standard, in 1868, which was immediately repudiated by the proprietors of the paper, and the writer discharged. Although this was done immediately and the article denounced by every Republican paper in the State, several Democratic papers keep extracts of this article standing at the head of their editorial columns. We are reliable informed that the writer of this article is one of the editors of the New York Tribune, now the leading Greely organ of the United States.

"I have listened with unminged horror to some of the testimony which has been brought before you. The outrages proceed like a deluge of fire and brimstone; they admit of neither excuse or justification; they violate every obligation which law and nature impose upon men; they show that the parties engaged were brutes, insensible to the obligations of humanity and religion. The day will come, however, if it has not already arrived, when they will deeply lament it. Even if justice shall not overtake them, there is one tribunal from which there is no hope. It is their own judgment—that tribunal which sits in the breast of every living man—that small, still voice that thrills through the heart—the soul of the mind, and as it speaks, gives happiness or torture—the voice of conscience, the voice of God. If it has not already spoken to them in tones which have startled them to the enormity of their conduct, I trust, in the mercy of Heaven, that that voice will speak before they shall be called above to account for the transactions of this world. That it will so speak to make them penitent, and that trusting in the dispensations of Heaven, whose justice is dispensed with mercy, when they shall be brought before the bar of their great tribunal, so to speak, that incomprehensible tribunal, there will be found in the fact of their penitence, or in their precious lives, some grounds upon which God may say PARDON."—Speech of Hon. Beverdy Johnson, in Ku Klux trials, December 18th.

It is surprising to the Democratic party to see, as they say, so many of the leaders of the Republican party going over to the Liberal Democratic office seeking movement, and yet the party grows stronger and stronger. This is something they cannot understand. A change of heart, is necessary to open their understandings to the great and eternal truth, that "all men were created free and equal." It is not the fact of such chagrined and disappointed man as Schuz, Brown, Greeley, Trumbull and a few other renegades who have deserted party and principal for conspicuous positions and notoriety in the camp of the enemy, that the Republican party lives or dies; but it lives because there is underlying the platform of the party, the undying and eternal principle of exact and equal justice to all men; and the great and noble principle of loyalty to God, to country, and to self; and as time rolls on this great party of progress and liberty, favored of God, shall not only continue to control the political destinies of this great Republic, but its benign influence will penetrate the hearts of the people of all nations, inspiring them with sentiments of liberty and Republicanism. But on the other hand, the Democratic party, which has proven disloyal and dishonest to its self and its flag shall perish from the earth, and be known only in history as an evil and a curse of the nineteenth century. No party can exist with so changable a record and even Greeley, their forlorn hope cannot save them. Let these men, lash themselves to that sinking ship! They will merely go down with it to rise no more for ever.

The Germans. The Southern press are striving to raise a little enthusiasm for Greeley upon the ground that the Germans of the West are all for him. These are the men they have been wont to call "base hirelings" and other choice epithets. How do they know that the foreign element, so large in the West, will go for Greeley? Is it because he favored protection for the New England factories? Or is it because Carl Schurz says so? Probably the latter, and here is where the laugh comes in. Carl is remarkably well known, especially in Wisconsin, and his everlasting itching for office, and the pertinacity with which he clings to them, is as well understood among his countrymen as it is among those who have offices within their girth. He is well understood, and his little games have been too often brought to light to give us any uneasiness. The Germans as a class are intelligent, upright, and make splendid citizens. A large proportion of them are well educated, and they are not as easily duped as our opponents imagine. Even here, where patronage in trade even is forced to the level of politics, they are seeing the error of their ways in following the party which has invariably worked against them. It has been the policy of the leaders of the Southern Democracy to keep down these "negro trading Dutchmen," and to prevent their coming to these shores. Hence, with a more genial climate, and greater variety of crops, our lands lie waste, while the great West is growing with most wonderful rapidity. This is because the foreigners have been welcomed in the West as citizens, and the German element has proved the wisdom of that policy. As soldiers or as citizens they have always done their duty, and they will not falter now.

There are many eloquent German speakers, who, unlike Carl Schurz, address their countrymen from motives of patriotism, and not to make money. They are alive to the contest, and we will hear a good account of the sturdy Germans who have built up the great West. They have always been true, and will not falter now. THE Star goes for Gen. Rutherford for tramping some political document or other. One would think, to read the article, that it was something new. Will the Star tell us when it was not done? We have seen such actions for twenty-five years and never heard it called into question until this season and the democrats are doing the same thing every day. We received an advertisement about a fortnight ago under the frank of F. P. Blair, but didn't consider it of enough importance to grumble about it. By the by, what does the Star mean by "non Third Auditor?" Please rise and explain.

Having finally found out that Curtin is for Buckalew, will not the Greeleyites have the kindness to let the people know if Buckalew is for Greeley? He has never said he was. The Convention that nominated him hissed and groaned over Greeley's name, and the platform he stands on distinctly recommends him as opposed to Republican doctrines—i. e., to the doctrines Greeley says the Democrats indorsed at Baltimore. In their haste to lay hold of anybody to beat the Republicans, the Pennsylvania "Liberals" have taken up a very dubious candidate, and they are about to have the humiliation of knowing that they have sold themselves for nothing. The intelligence from Pennsylvania is of the most cheering character, and Greeleyism, in any formidable strength, continues invisible after the most diligent search.—N. Y. Times.

The Liberals have practically abandoned the contest in Pennsylvania, Indiana and New York. That is to say, the arithmetic man of the New York World ciphers out majorities in these States with circumstantial thousands, tens and units. This is the same man who, during the French war went on repulsing the Prussians in battle after battle, day after day, till, just as they were annihilated, they took Paris.

EDITORIAL BUDGET.

His Majesty King Christian IX, of Denmark, is seriously ill at the palace. King Christian was born on the 8th of April, in the year 1818.

His Highness Khed Cherril Pacha has been appointed Minister of Foreign Affairs in Turkey in place of Djemil Pacha, just deceased.

The question of the authenticity of the Dr. Livingston letters, seems to be set at rest. No one doubts now that Mr. Stanley did discover the old geographer and bring letters from him.

The London Times publishes a special dispatch from Constantinople, which says that one of the very last public official acts of the late Minister Djemil Pasha was to hold an interview with the Czar Alexander of Russia. The meeting took place on the 19th instant. The Czar on that occasion expressed a desire to render the relations between Russia and Turkey still more friendly.

Eighteen thousand Communists are still held in prison in France, notwithstanding the large number of cases which have been already disposed of by court martial execution, deportation to New Caledonia or acquittal. Of the prisoners still amenable to the law and awaiting trial, some ten thousand will soon be discharged without further proceedings. Only persons accused of assassinations, robbery or arson will be arraigned before the Judges.

TANBARK.

The New York Tribune need not lie so like a tombstone, if it is writing the epitaph of the Democratic party.—Ohio State Journal.

The Democrats and Liberals of Arkansas tried to fuse but couldn't. They want a dose of Dr. Greeley's reconciliation pills to strengthen their stomachs for crow.

The Washington Republican says that more than a million copies of the Tribune were sent into Maine under Mr. Fenton's frank. The Tribune is troubled about the use of the franking privilege.

Harry Bingham, of New Hampshire, justifies his support for Greeley by saying: "Horace Greeley is pledged to do, and will do, if elected, just what the Democracy would require, one of their old and tried leaders to do were he elected."

Since the Maine election Horace Greeley has taken to agriculture again. He has just sent a circular to his friends at the South advising them to plant corn and sugar cane together, so as to raise Johnny cake with the molasses on.—St. Louis Globe.

"I cannot conceive how any one who periled his life for the preservation of the Union under Gen. Grant and our gallant military and naval commanders can give his support to Mr. Greeley, who was willing to see it dissolved without striking a blow to save it."—John A. Dix.

Theodore Tilton's career is a fearful warning to young men. His friends pulled him out of Woodhullism by main strength, but he could not remain in decent association. He immediately plunged into Greeleyism. The last state of that man is worse than the first.—Toledo Blade.

"Say what you please," says Dr. Greeley's Chicago organ, speaking of the Credit Mobilier scandal, "this is the question of the hour." But in the estimation of this virtuous Greeley organ, the bribe of $10,000 received by that exemplary reformer, Lyman Trumbull, is not the question of the hour.—Chicago Times.

"When lovely woman dons a 'Dolly,' and finds 'too late, men don't admire it, she'd better try some other folly, and to a circus rider hire it.'"

I caught her gently by the arm, My gentle black-eyed Kate. She squealed "Let go, you cussed fool, You hurt my vaccinate."
