

THE EVENING POST.

W. P. CANADAY, Business Manager. J. C. MANN, Managing Editor.

Monday September 30th. 1872.

REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.

FOR PRESIDENT, ULYSSES S. GRANT, Of Illinois.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT, HENRY WILSON, Of Massachusetts.

ELECTORAL TICKET.

FOR THE STATE AT LARGE: MARCUS ERWIN, of Buncombe. SAMUEL P. PHILLIPS, of Wake.

FOR THE CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICTS: 1. Edward Ransau, of Tyrrell. 2. William F. Loftin, of Lenoir. 3. Thomas M. Argo, of Orange. 4. Henry Waiser, of Davidson. 5. William S. Bynum, of Lincoln. 6. James C. Ramsey, of Rowan. 7. James M. Justice, of Rutherford.

KEEP BEFORE THE PEOPLE!

It is urged by the Democratic organs that the law is to be enforced in State and municipal elections. This is done to make it more obnoxious, if that be possible, to their party. But, unfortunately, this is an error. The law applies only to Presidential and Congressional elections, though we heartily wish it could be made to apply to all others.

When the rebellious traitors are overwhelmed in the field, and scattered like leaves before an angry wind, it must not be to return to Peaceful and Contented Homes. THEY MUST FIND PRIVACY AT THEIR FIRESIDES, AND SEE POVERTY IN THE ANXIOUS EYES OF MOTHERS AND THE RAGS OF CHILDREN.

"I hold our Government bound by its duty of protecting our citizens in their fundamental rights, to pass and enforce laws for the extirpation of the execrable ku klux conspiracy; and if it has not the power to do it, then I say our Government is no Government, but a sham. I therefore on every proper occasion advocated and justified the ku klux act. I hold it especially desirable for the South; and it it does not prove strong enough to effect its purpose, I hope it will be made stronger."

in 1868, which was immediately repudiated by the proprietors of the paper, and the writer discharged. Although this was done immediately and the article denounced by every Republican paper in the State, several Democratic papers keep extracts of this article standing at the head of their editorial columns. We are reliable informed that the writer of this article is one of the editors of the New York Tribune, now the leading Greeley organ of the United States.

"I have listened with unmitigated horror to some of the testimony which has been brought before you. The outrages proceed as shocking as humanity; they admit of neither excuse or justification; they violate every obligation which law and nature imposes upon men; they show that the parties engaged were brutal, insensible to the obligations of humanity and religion. The day will come, however, if it has not already arrived, when they will deeply lament it. Even if justice shall not overtake them, there is one tribunal from which there is no hope. It is their own judgment—that tribunal which sits in the breast of every living man—that small, still voice that thrills through the heart—the soul of the mind, and as it speaks, gives happiness or torture—the voice of conscience, the voice of God. If it has not already spoken to them in tones which have startled them to the enormity of their conduct, I trust, in the mercy of Heaven, that that voice will speak before they shall be called above to account for the transactions of this world. That it will so speak to make them penitent, and that trusting in the dispensations of Heaven, whose justice is dispensed with mercy, when they shall be brought before the bar of their great tribunal, so to speak, that incomprehensible tribunal, there will be found in the fact of their penitence, or in their previous lives, some grounds upon which God may say PARDON."—Speech of Hon. Reverdy Johnson, in Ku Klux trials, December 18th.

No Plus Ultra. The national administration is a national lazar-house. It reeks with rotteness and spumes with all imaginable, all possible, uncleanness and loathsomeness. It is the foul repository of every moral refuse, of every private shame, of every public disgrace. It is the home of the abandoned, the profligate, the vile—the seething, whirling, boiling, raging abode of scoundrels refined and unrefined—the horrid golgotha of the nation—the profound wonder and mute horror of the world. The Administration of Grant is the Sphinx, the What-is-it of the ages. Men are aghast at its wickedness, and grow pale at the recital of its crimes and shames. Tacitus, Scutolus and Paternulus are read in vain for parallels. There is no parallel—the rest of time, the balance of the world are pure as angel-life in the comparison. You find shameless Caesars glutting their appetites in the indulgence of vices, the bare mention of which freezes the soul and palsies the intellect. You find Gothic chiefs glotting in the most antipathetic cruelties. You find feudal lords, boorish, marous, tyrannical, sensual. You find a Charles the Second, a Catharine of Medicis, a Hayrauz. But in no recorded syllable in the black book of grim old Time, from the death of Abel to Butler's occupation of New Orleans, do you find such presumptuous rivalry of Belzebub's kingdom, such an amazing, thrilling, "aring attempt (and success) to go the Devil's better in the peculiar line of his Darknes' business.

We clip the above from the editorial columns of Sunday's issue of the Star, a liberal sheet of this city. We presume it was intended for Sunday reading. The Star hauled up Dr. Greeley's name as soon as he was nominated at Cincinnati. It didn't wait for the action of the Baltimore Convention, but went in hastily and joyfully for the great philosopher and his little "reform" game. It wanted to shake hands with somebody over the bloody chasm at once. It couldn't wait for the slow action of the democratic party, it was so anxious to conciliate and be good. The Star has always been considered a conservative paper in its broadest sense, and has always occupied the intermediate ground between the Journal on the one hand and the Post on the other. The Journal will have to look to its laurels, or it will be compelled to be classed as the liberal paper among the democracy.

We commend this article to our readers. Perhaps it will induce Republicans who know and uphold the administration of Gen. Grant, to vote for the Conciliatory party which utters such sentiments. They are certainly very forcible and display about as much "conciliation" as we supposed they advocated.

Conciliation. An old line staunch Democrat was talking on political affairs in this city and made the following truthful avowal of his principles, a few days ago: "I am in favor of reconciliation and reform. I want to see Greeley elected and have a new deal and let the d—d Yankees stay North where they belong."

This is exactly our idea of what the Democratic party in the South believe. They accept Greeley as a candidate in the hope of success and with the change in administration, they will reach that oft repeated condition of being "let alone." This is what they are striving for! To obtain control of the national and State affairs here to suit themselves, with the old time ignoring the laboring class. We are not alarmed however.

An Appeal to Colored Voters.

BY FREDERICK DOUGLASS.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9, 1872. Colored Fellow-Citizens: In view of insidious and dangerous advice and counsel of Mr. Sumner, I think it is my duty to set forth a few urgent reasons why we, as a race and as fellow-citizens, all bound up in the same interest, cannot and should not vote for Greeley and Brown, but that to a man we should cast our whole weight into the scale for Grant and Wilson.

1st. We in the South have been liberated from slavery by the direct agency of the Republican party. Had Greeley been President instead of Lincoln, we would to-day have been in a worse bondage under the Slave Republic of the Southern Confederate States than ever before. Greeley advocated this policy, and did his best to establish the Republic of which slavery was to be the chief corner stone.

2nd. Our first vote was cast as freemen for Grant in 1868. Have we been disappointed in the result of his administration? Previous to that period we had no vote. Now we have equal rights (or almost equal rights) with the white race. We can accumulate property, as they do; we have the law's protection over us as they have; our marital relations are respected; our wives and children are ours and not the property of others; we can testify in every court; we have the right if we have the power to have our brethren elected to the senate and Congress of the country; we are a power that is felt; we hold the balance of power in America; no corrupt or vacillating man can be elected to the Presidential chair unless we consent to vote for him.

language of the gentleman, Mr. James R. Doolittle, Chairman of the Convention which nominated Mr. Greeley, one of the objects of the nomination being the overthrow of "the pro-secessionary." And forthwith, what in this supremacy they so much wish to see, is it simply the cancellation of those ordinary privileges and blessings enumerated in clause second. We have no supremacy, and never expect to have, nor intend to try for.

4th. In conclusion: Be not deceived! With General Grant, our security is unquestionable; our happiness will be made lasting. With Greeley, we would enter upon a sea of troubles, as well known and anxious future. Unscrupulous advisers would be his friends. Our old foes would surround him, as they even do now; and even if a few staunch friends should endeavor to stem the coming troubles, they would be swept away with the torrent, and the great work of the Republican party would prove an abortion. It cannot be that we will send one vote out of our entire midst to bring about such dire results, and I pray God that when the time comes every man of our race will be found true to the cause of human rights to all. FREDERICK DOUGLASS.

EDITORIAL BUDGET.

The funeral of the late Djemil Pachá took place at Constantinople on the 26th of September.

Sarona, the photographer of New York, has taken some fine likenesses of Madame Lucca and Gottham is happy. His Majesty, the Emperor William of Germany, has given his consent to further proceedings against the Bishop of Ermeland.

A terrible storm at Aberdeen, Scotland did great damage, flooding the streets so that they were impassable and ruining the crops.

An aide-de-camp of the Sultan has been despatched as a special messenger to Egypt to present to the Viceroy a firman sanctioning his title of Khedive and making it hereditary.

The Brazilian Minister of Agriculture is dead. Senor Barrois has been appointed his successor. The elections for members of Congress throughout the country resulted in favor of the government candidates.

Right Honorable Robert Lowe Chancellor of the English Exchequer delivered an oration to the electors of Glasgow, in which he referred to the Geneva Tribunal award and in doing so severely condemned Lord Chief Justice Cockburn for his action in not signing the award which was ruled by the Court and, also, for publishing his argument in opposition, and opening up again the international question between the United States and England, with all the mistakes for all feeling which the voters of the Alabama and other privateers had originated at the moment of first offence. At the close of his speech he said, "It is the duty of England to accept the award of the Geneva Arbitration Court loyally."
