KEEP BEFORE THE PEOPLE! It is urged by the Democratic organs that the law is to be enforced in State to make it more obnoxious, if that be possible, to their party. But, unfortunately, this is an error. The law applies only to Presidential and Congressional religion with trade, elections, THOUGH WE HEARTILY WISH IT COULD BE MADE TO APPLY TO ALL OTH-ERS .- N. Y. Tribune.

whelmed in the Field, and scattered has lied and relied on this slander, only like leaves before an angry wind, it must not be to return to Peaceful and Contented Homes. THEY MUST FIND POVERTY AT THEIR FIRESIDES, AND SEE PRIVATI N IN THE ANXIOUS EYES OF MOTHERS AND THE PLAGS OF CHILDREN. -HORACE GREELLY, Tribune, May 1st,

From the Tribune, 1871.
"I hold our Government bound by its duty of protecting our citizens in their fundamental rights, to pass and enforce laws for the extirpation of the execrable ku klux conspiracy; and if it has not thirty-one acres of land in Chicago, the power to do it, then I say our Government is no Government, but a sham. I therefore on every proper occasion advo-cated and justified the ku klux act. I hold it especially desirable for the South; and if it does not prove strong enough to effect its purpose, I hope it will be made stronger and stronger."

Work. An infamous arricle, with the above title appeared in the Raleigh Standard, in 1868, which was immediately repudiated by the proprietors of the paper, and the writer discharged. Although this was done immediately and the article denounced by every Republican paper in the State, several Democratic papers keep extracts of this article standing at the head of their editorial columns. We are reliable informed draws to a close southbase description that the writer of this article is one of the editors of the New York Tribunc, now the leading Greeley organ of the I have listened with unmixed horror | are themselves deceived. to some of the testimony which has been brought before you. The outrages proved are shocking to humanity; they admit of neither excuse or justification; they vio-lute every obligation which law and na ture imposes upon men; they show that the parties engaged were brutes, insensible to the obligations of humanity and religion. The day will come, however, if it has not already arrived, when they will deeply lament it. Even if justice shall not overtake them, there is one tribunal These tickets are printed on very fine from which there is no hope. It is their own judgment—that tribunal which sits in the breast of every living man—that small, still voice that thrills through the heart-the soul of the mind, and as it speaks, gives happiness or torture-the voice of conscience, the voice of God. If it has not already spoken to them in tones which have startled them to the enormity of their conduct, I trust, in the mercy of Heaven, that that voice will speak before they shall be called above to account for the transactions of this world. That it will so speak to make them penitent, and ly endorse all Fairs or anything else that trusting in the dispensations of Heaven, whose justice is dispensed with mercy, when they shall be brought before the bar of their great tribunal, so to speak, that incomprehensible tribunal, there will be found in the fact of their penitence, or in their previous lives, some grounds upon which God may say PARDON." -Speech of Hon, Reverdy Johnson, in Ku Klux trials, December 18th.

Advertising.

There are merchants in this city who are such partisans that they refuse to advertise in a Republican paper. We have always noticed that they were willing to take a Republican's money in payment for goods. Even the churches are willing to accept aid from such sources, but they seem to feel as though they could not advertise in a paper of opposite politics from themselves because they are contributing to the support of an opponent. its columns to the City Merchants, as a that such investments always pay. The | tration.

A large share of the manufacturing portion of this community as well as most of the laboring class, are Republicans. There are two Democratic and one Republican paper in the city, and yet we sometimes see merchants advertising in both Democratic papers and ignoring the Republican paper. That man says, almost as plainly as if it were printed in so many words, that he does not desire Republican patronage. Adver tising is not a question of political strategy. It is simply an exhibition of business lite and enterprise which wise men have made and reaped the benefits therefor. We do not claim that all merchants who do not advertise with us, are illiberal, nor do we wish it to be understood that we intimate that none but Republicans advertise with us. Many of our patrons are old line staunch died in the wool Democrats, but this don't eftect the value of their wares, It proves them to be wide awake business men, who avail themselves of every opportunity, and they are reaping its benefits. -Competition is the life of trade. Were there but one paper in this city advertising would be very high. As it is, the prices are equitable and just. The Post advises Republican dealers to advertise in Democratic papers as well as those of their own political faith. On the other hand it asks a share of the Wiland municipal elections. This is done | mington patronage from merchants who are anxious to increase their business and don't believe in mixing politics or

THE Raleigh News gives us a history of the J. Russell Jones transaction with When the rebellious Traitors are over- Gen. Grant. The New York Tribune it placed the land near Galena, Ellinois. The slander started with a statement that Mr. Jones had sold a tract of land near Galena for one dollar to the President, and had then received the mission to Belgium. This the President, and J. Russell Jones denied. Now, the News says that "Mr. Jones in consideration of the sum of one dollar donated to the President of the United States worth many thousands of dollars." And then follows many ironical questions like the fellowing, "Does not the whole country belong to Grant?" and again who will after this dare charge him with corruption?" and many more of the like. These "schemes are as glass," and altogether too thin to deceive any one at all posted on policical affairs. But the danger of such slanders is, that they are read and believed by men who see out few papers and the boldness of the slander carried an impress of hones y on its face, which would deceive draws to a close, and these democratic papers "verdantly" publishes them, and we fear actually believe they are writing tacts! Poor fellows, how terribly they
