Of Illinois. FOR VACE-PRESIDENT.

HENRY WILSON, Of Massachusetts.

ELECTORAL TICKET.

FOR THE STATE AT LARGE: MARCUS ERWIN, of Buncombe. EAMUEL F. PHILLIPS, of Wake.

FOR THE CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICTS : Edward Ransom, of Tyrell. William F. Loftin, of Lenoir. James H. Headen, of Chatham. Henry C. Walser, of Davidson. William S. Bynum, of Lincoln. James G. Ramsey, of Rowan. James M. Justice, of Rutherford.

Election-Tuesday, November 5th

Or course, the ery has started. " Fraud, fraud." The telegraph informs us that the New York Tribune says that they "have been cheated out of Pennsylvania." What a poor set of little in nocent lambs the Pennsylvania Democracy must be to be sure. Why they have calmly shut their eyes and allowed the Republicans to poll fifteen or twenty thousand more votes than they did! Why the act is so atrocious, when they had all publicly stated that unless they carried that State, they couldn't elect Mr. Greeley. Why its monstrou: ! There was no intimidation or violence that we can hear of. No armed mobs as was the case in Georgia, but still these wicked Republicans cheated them at of a victory. What nonsense. The Pennsylvania election has astonished the Republicans even in its magnitude. HANTRANFT's election over the odds he had to contend against, proves that the people want Gen. Grant for President and are going to have him.

As we stated a few days ago, the Buckeye State has done her duty, and rolled up a majority for the Republican ticket. This election proves the popularity of Gen. Grant and the repudiation of the Mongrel arrangement with Greeley at the head. The elections heretotore held, have been among the Eastern States where there are but a few comparatively, of the foreign element, and CARL SCHURZ and his new allies have all claimed that the German vote would certainly be cast for Greeley. Ohio was the first State to vote where the strong German element came to the polls. And they too, have shown their devotion to Republicanism. They came to America to better their fortunes, and because it is a free country. Its platforms and welcomes to the s'ranger are broad as its prairies and, in their father-land love of freedom, they wished every man to be free. So they have always voted with the party of Freedom and Progress. The election of Tuesday in Ohio proves therefore, that the German element, which does much to make up the population of the great West, remains true to its allegiance and votes the Republican ticket as of old. No Greeley for them.

Noble little Nebraska has placed herself all right on the record, as every one supposed she would, but her vote is not of as much importance in determining the general result, but shows that the liberal tidal wave don't flood much on ber broad acres.

Indiana is generally an uncertain State, and the returns seem to indicate s very close vote. This State had the disgrace to be the home of the "Knights of the Golden Circle," or some similar order of copperhead villains who desired the overthrow of the government during the war and were too sneaking to go South and fight for the cause they espoused like men. They are also, very near to the staunch old democratic State of Kentucky, where they can ob tain voting aid if necessary. But, we believe when the ballots are carefully counted, that even the Hoosier State has gone Republican. A short time now will undoubtedly determine the result however. In view then of the situation, our duty hes plain before us. We must perfect our organizations and be thoroughly prepared to see that every Republican vote is cast at the next elec . tion. It we do our whole duty, we can carry North Carolina by ten thousand majority. With we do it?

Sensible.

The Wilmington Journal, in an article on the Situation, makes some very sensible remarks. Coming from that source, with its editors of the strict old line democratic school, it will be read with great interest. The Journal says

"But as we have said, we are not prepared just now to assign the causes of cur defeat. Further light must be thrown upon the case before we can say whether the apathy of our friends, or the unscrupulousness of our enemies, or their superior strength has brought about the present unfortunate result. If it shall be found to be due to the last mentioned cause, then indeed is a grave question presented to our people. But we sincerely trust that it will not appear that our defeat is due to an unconquer able hate in the hearts of the masses of the Northern people towards us of the South. We sincerely trust that the people of Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Nebraska have not voted for the Administration candidates, because they are unwilling to clasp hands across the bloody chasm that has so long separated us. We trust in Heaven that this is not the case."

We assure the Journal that the North ern people, as a class, are friendly to the South. We know this to be true, but on the other hand, the action of the old copperhead democracy, who sympa thised with the South during the war. and were too cowardly to come down here and help their brethren, was too much for the North to stand. The Republican party is anxious to heal all differences of opinion and sectional bate, but not at the expense of sacrificing its leaders. All of bitterness and malignity that the Northern democracy could invent has been hurled upon the administration. This course would not change Gen GRANT's friends, who have stood by him so many years. Gen. GRANT is a friend of the South as his action from the surrender of Gen. LEE to the present time has proved. Our demcratic friends should recollect that he has been harrassed to death by such Radical Republicans as SCHURZ and SUMNER, and his failure te comply with their demands is the secret of their antipathy io him to day.

WE have noticed lately that the Favetteville Eagle often gets upon the right track. Its remarks about the last Legislature and the infamous marriage bill for instance. The following candid article we call attention to, as it is pretty near our own idea, of the situation. The Eagle says :

The elections to-day in several of the Central States will be reliable indication of the Presidential election next month. Take it altogether, the chances for the Democratic party to-day are more favorable than they will be on the issues and merits of the November election. And therefore if we fail in any respect to day, the failure will likely be greater next month. Our party is stronger everywhere on local issues than on national issues, and this makes us more certain to elect State nominees than our Presidential candidate. On this reasoning then, to succeed in the November contest, we should carry the previous State elections by very decided majorities. The fifteen Southern States are divided in politics, with half or perhaps two thirds of their total electoral vote Conservative, and the Southern electoral vote is about one third of the whole number. Of the twenty two Northern States only one-third of them are Democratic, and this third must em brace the three or four largest States so as to give a majority of the Northern electoral vote. So two or three of these large Northern States will be able to decide the national contest.

THE despatches in the the morning papers say that Pennsylvania has gone Republican by over 25,000, and Ohio by a reduced majority. The papers seem to feel much encouraged. We congratulate them upon their pluck, but fail to see the stand point from which they draw encouragement. They expected to carry the two States and failed. They are welcome to that "reduced majority" in Ohio, as they are to the one in Maine.

WE are pleased to note that our friend Gen. N. P. Chipman was re-elected to Congress in Washington Tuesday. Gen. Chipman is made of the right material, and is a man among mee.

EDITORIAL BUDGET.

- No New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore or Washington papers this morn-

- Gov. Scott, of South Carolina, has sued the Tribune for libel in publishing alleged false charges against his administration. Samuel G. Sinclair, publisher of the Tribune, has been notified and will give bail to-morrow. The Alabama and Chatanooga Railroad is now open from Chatanooga, Tenn., to Meridian, Miss., and is run by J. C. Stanton. This event is hailed with pleasure and enthusiasm by the people all along the line, who have so long been deprived of the benefit of the road.

- The State Republican Committee claim that they have caarried Ohio by from 15,000 to 18,000 whilst the Demo cratic Committee concede between 10,-000 and 15,000. The Republican Committee also claim claim that they have elected twelve Congressmen certainly, with more than a fair probability of two additional. This gives the Democrats seven Congressmen, a gain of two. The Democrats do not concede the 6th and 10th districts.

- A special dispatch from Madrid to The Soir says under date of October 8 Last evening while His Majesty King Amadeus was walking in the Piaza del Oriente, two men, who were concealed behind statues, threw several large stones at him, crying at the time "Viva la Republics." The desperadoes took flight immediately after committing the dastardly act. They were pursued by a number of policeman, but succeeded in making their escape. The King was not burt. The occurrence causes great excitement in Madrid.

The Reform movement is sweeping on ward with resistless force. Tweed and Cochrane propose Charles A. Dana, who escapes hanging only by shrewdness, for Mayor of New York. Room for the Re-

Horace is now in the business of ad dressing agricultural societics. If Horace would quit politics long enough to learn something of agriculture, he would do very well as a Fair lecturer. Or, if he would quit agriculture long enough to learn something of politics, he would do better as a stump speaker.

The Boston Journal thinks that H. G.'s recent speeches are quite as remarkable for what they omit to say, as for what they actually contain. Theodore Tilton's delicate nerves are offended by the appearance of veteran soldiers in politics. He says "obscurity adorns them." He goes on to say they did well enough in the War, but now the war is over, those who staid at home ought to have their own way and elect Mr. Greeley. Theodore was an able-bodied young fellow when the war was going on, and shouted, "Give it to 'em, boys," with Greeley vigor. But he's done with them now, and wants them to retire to "obscurity."

Like those of Pittsburg, the manufacturers of Cleveland are waking up to the importance to them of the re election of President Grant, and of sending to Congress men favorable to building up home industries. Twenty-four of the largest manufacturers of that city, corporate and individual, have published a powerful address to the workingmen, urging upon them the duty of voting for the Republican nominees .-Pittsburg Commercial.
