We have more men and more means wherewith to attack and overo me the rebel armies than we shall uave a year hence, should the war continde so long. If we beat them, we shall have guns enough; if they beat us, the same. One way or another, we shall have peace before the close of 1802; and if we cannot whip them with the arms we now have, we never shall. And since we need every dollar we have or can raise for present press-ing use, we protest against spending one dollar for arms that are not to be in the hands of our soldiers before the 1st of May, If we should want more arms after the rebellion is put down, let them be provided for; for the present, et us use every dollar where it will tell in the present conflict."- Tribune, January 31, 1862.

"Such was the well earned fame of 6, 1871. Kentuckians-Colonel Nimred Wildfire, then representative before the footlights, being represented as so spoiling for a fight, having been inhumanely deprived of that luxury for the intermediate space of teb days, that he would have to 'kiver nimself in a sait barrel to keep,-that we have been wondering how many invading rebels would be required to show a front in that State for the space of ten days, have concluded that nothing less than one hundred thousand would answer.

Perhaps the interruption of the mails and telegraph has left us in the dark as to what is going on in that quarter. The facts will doubtless soon shine forth in all their glory and shall we be very glad to hear of the prompt and enthusiastic rally of the aforesaid hunters to drive rebellion and disunion into 23, 1871. sen" - Tribune, September 20, 1862.

What H. G. Knows about Democracy. The autter impotence and paralysis into which the once proud and power tul Democratic party, has fallen is evinced in many ways, but in none more strikingly than in the character of its hes and liars. How its orators and journals used absolutely to ruin calumnies on Adams and Clay and Harrison, and in later days on Seward and Frement !- none of your little, contemptible, picayune falsehoods, but great, fat, black lies, that had venom and sting in them-lies that evinced originality, audacity, and even genius." -Tribune July 9, 1860.

> The world will be moved to mirth it it reads the manifests of the National Democratic Executive Committee disowning the Democratic paternity of the pamphlet. 'Concession or how the Lost Cause may be Regained, and the Independence of the South Secured.' Nobody supposed that the National Democratic Committee had authorized the issue of the pamphlet; but it is Democratic in tone and temper, for all that, and it speaks the honest sentiments, no doubt, of thousands of Southern Dem ocrats, who will, in defiance of repeated winks and nods of disapproval from the Managers, persists in talking about the possibilities of the Lost Cause at the most unseemly times. But the snggestion that the Radicals have concocted this precious farrago of nonsense and treason for electioneering purposes is Quite as ludicrous as the vaunt that the Democracy is the only party that can bring about return to honesty and constitutional laws. This last phrase is exquisite tooling."—Tribune, September "To 'Love rum and hate niggers' ha so long been the essence of the Democratic faith that the cooler, wiser heads of the party vainty spend their strength in efforts to lift it out of the rut in which they plainly see that it can only run to perdition. While slavery en dured, negro bate was an element it positive strength in our political coutests, so that the Constitutional Conventions of this and other free States were usually carried by the Domocrats on the strength of appeals to the charse! and baser whites to 'Let the nigge know his place." - Tribune, April 7.

"The Democratic party of to-day is simply the Rebellion seeking to achieve him. But this famous parade of Kirby its essential purposes within and Smith throughout the famous Blue through the Union. A victory which Grass' region does not abide that solu- does not enable it to put its feet on the necks of the black race seems to the bulk of its adherents not worth baving. Its heart is just where it was when it regarded Slavery and the Constitution as two names for one thing. It haves the Generals who led the Union Armies to Victory, and rarely misses a chance to disparage them. It clings to that exaggerated notion of State Rights which makes them the shield of all manner of wrongs and abuses. It takes counsels of its hates even more than of its aspirations and will be satisfied with no tri umph that does not result in the expulsion of all active, earnest Republicans from the South .- Tribune, March

"What I demand is proof that the Southern people really desire separation from the Free States. Whenever assured that such is their settled wish. I SHALL JOYFULLY CO-OPERATE WITH THEM TO SECURE THE END THEY SEEK. Thus far, I have had evidence of nothing but a purpose to bully and coerce the North. Many of the Secession emissaries to the Border Slave States tell the people they address that they do not really mean to dissolve the Union, but only to secure what they term their rights-in the Union. Now, as nearly all the people of the Slave States either are, or have to seem to be, in favor of this, the present menacing front of Secession proves nothing to the purpose. Maryland and Virginia have had no idea of breaking up the Union ; but they would both dearly like to bully the North into a compromise. Their Secession demonstrations prove just this,

"We utterly deny, repu jate, and condemn the pretended Right of Seces sion. No such right is known to our Federal Constitution, nor, in fact, to any civilized framework of government. No such right was reserved, or supposed to be reserved, when the States ratifi d or adopted the Federal Constitution We do not believe that a mere majority ot a community may, in disregard of all existing forms, upset an existing government and put one of their choice in five cents to $25.00. its place. We do not believe the whole population-we will say of Nantucket or Staten Island-have a right, moved by a prospect of unlimited gains by smuggling to the main land, to break off from the Union and annex their island to Great Britain or set up for themselves. newspaper, and will, during the canyanewspaper, and will, during the canyandown fairly commenced, steadfastly main tain the established principles of that Party. It will support the regular nominces of the rhiladelphia Convention, and do its share in securing their triumphant election in November. It rega ds the success of the Republican Party as an object of the very first importance, and will give no support to irregular or "bolting" nominations, which can only result in the return of the Democrats to power. I here are projects of all kinds on foot for dissolving the Republican Party, and the Times will oppose them all. Its course in reference to the Taminany Ring, at a tame when all the other daily papers in New-York obstructed and disconraged its efforts, atte-ts its sincerity in the cause of Reform. The limes stood s.one in demanding Reform from 1869 to the close of 1871-now other journals are attempting to make political capital out of the mere repetition of the ciy. There is no sincere and honest proposal for reform, in any branch of the Government, which will bot be heartily supported by the TIMES. But it will not conspire in assisting ambitions politicians or demagogues to reach power under false pretenses. It will not encour age defection from the party. It regards the Philadelphia Convention as the only body anthorized to speak and act for the Republican Party.

TERMS: The Campaign Edition of the New York Times will be turnished to mail subscribers for the six months next ensuing, for the sum of 11F1Y CENTS. All copies sent to the same Post-office to be mailed to one address.

THE NEW YORK TIMES, As a Republican journal, will be devoted as in the past, to an intelligent and firm support of the Republican rarty. It will sustain, with all the force and inlluence at its command, the principles and policy which have rendered that Party so justry famous in our history. It will advo

Two of its original proprietors still directils policy; and, with greatly-increased resources and experience, will spare no pains o extend and strengthen its claims upon the confidence and support of the public. Its EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT WILL be conducted in a spirit or lairness and impartiality, free alike from sen-interested aims, political jobberv, or undue tavoritism. It will represent the great body of the public rather than any clique of professional "polivic ans." It has no one connected with it who seeks office, or who will become a candidate for office. Its Correspondence will be full and timely, and its Keports will be prepared with the utmost care. The Lit-ERARY DEPARTMENT will be in thoroughly capable hands, and will present a full review of the literature, the fine arts, the music, and the drama of the day. As a lamny paper, free from all appeals to vurgar and impure tastes, the Times will continue unexceptionable, and may be salely admitted to every domestic circle.

The Suncay edition of the Times itcrudes, in addition to all the news, selected and original literary matter of the most varied and agreeable character. Special arrangements have been made to impart new attractions to this feature of the papers The WEEKLY and SEMI WEEKLY editions of the Times are compiled with the greatest care, and will contain selections from the most important contents of the Daily issue, besides matters of interest to the agricultural sections of the country.
