OTTO SCRUZZE, Obscrver, U. S. A.

WANTED.—A healthy wet nurse. Apply to 15 Market street.

DR. LINDLEY cures Scrofula, Neuritis and Rheumatism, and operates on Surgical cases.

THANKS.—We return our thanks to the Hon. A. M. Waddell for valuable public documents.

FARRAR'S ELECTRIC is one of the greatest blessings of the age. All suffering neuralgia should try it.

SECOND PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—Preaching at 11 o'clock, by Rev. H. B. Barr. Sabbath School at 4 p. m.

REVALVES.—Bob Scarborough, at the Clarendon Saloon, is "up to snuff," and his orders to serve to his customers.

MARRET REPORTS.—There were slaughtered during the past week, 82 hogs, 11 hogs, 38 sheep, 1 goat, and 4 calves.

PINE FOREST CEMETERY.—There were four interments during the past week, all children, one of whom was still-born.

ST. PAUL'S EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH.—Sunday School at 9 a. m. German Service at 11 a. m. English Service at 8 p. m.

ST. PAUL'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH, corner of Orange and Fourth streets, Rev. T. M. Ambler, Rector. Morning prayer at 11 o'clock a. m. Evening prayer at 8 o'clock p. m. Seats free.

THE POST is rapidly filling up with advertisements, but we have a little space left that we should like to dispose of. Now is the time, this is the place, and here is THE POST. Try it.

THERE is a movement on foot to organize a Lodge of Good Templars in this city. The number required to charter a Lodge have been secured, and we hope to see it at no distant day in successful operation.

ACCIDENT.—The steamship R. Clyde, while off Hatteras, broke the air pump of her engine. Her's being a low pressure engine, high pressure had to be used during the balance of the trip. Workmen are at work upon her and will have the engine fixed by the time she is loaded and ready to sail.

ERRATA.—We were in error yesterday in stating that Mr. R. W. Andrews was agent at this place for the Gold and Stock Telegraph Company and Commercial News Department of New York. Mr. L. A. Angel, who has filled the position for the past two years, with credit to himself and satisfaction to his employers, is still the agent. Mr. A. gets his commercial reports from Mr. Andrews, the Secretary of the Produce Exchange.

ST. STEPHEN'S SABBATH SCHOOL.—There will be a public exhibition and concert given by the children of this school Monday and Tuesday next at the City Hall. Mr. J. C. Hill, the Superintendent, has labored indefatigably for several years past in the interests of this school, and his success is truly wonderful. This is now one of the largest Sabbath Schools in the city, and the exhibition will be of great interest to all who are interested in the welfare of our colored youth, and who is not? We hope to see a large attendance both nights. The City Hall has been prepared, staging erected, and everything done to render the occasion worthy of patronage.

SEVERE GALE.—The storm last night is said by old citizens to have been one of the most severe that has ever visited this section. Trees were torn up by the roots, chimneys and fences were blown down, and large trees that had heretofore battled successfully with rude Boreas, were compelled to relinquish their former laurels, and bow in obedience to his mighty power. "Old Prob" warned the mariners yesterday afternoon of the coming storm, and each vessel in port had her storm mooring laid. A short distance to the North of the city the storm seemed to be even more severe than here. The barns, fences and shelters on the farm of Mr. David Sanders were blown down, killing several fine milch cows, and crippling a number of others. He estimates his loss at $500.

THE TOWN CRIER.

Mild.
—Heavy rain last night.
—Go to Church to-morrow.
—The streets are quite muddy.
—Police made ten arrests during the past week.
—There were two hundred and twenty-eight carts in market the past week.
—Yesterday evening was rough on the choir singers.
—The terrific gale last night was far from quelling the nerves of the excitable.

—Binford, Crow & Co. advertise the delicious mullets. Read the advertisement of these wide-awake business men.
—We rejoice that we had no money on deposit with Jay Cooke & Co. It is sometimes consoling to be out of "stamps."
—Major C. M. Steadman, Major M. P. Taylor, Capt. J. Kent Brown, and many others, have returned. It seems good to see their familiar faces upon the streets.

COTTON WORMS have played havoc with Mr. Monck's—who resides just the other side of the National Cemetery of this city—crop of cotton. They entered his field about a week ago, and literally stripped the stalks of the leaves. It is said that these worms got into a cotton mattress on the bed of a son of the Celtic Isle, who resides near Mr. Monck's, and made it so very unpleasant for him that he was forced to leave his bed and board and seek repose elsewhere.

ARRESTED.—Sandy Stewart, said to be one of the confederates of Nelson Jackson, was arrested by Constable Nash, charged with being an accomplice in the robbery of James Starkey on Wednesday night, an account of which appeared in the Post on Thursday.—There are two others arrested on suspicion, but it is thought that the evidence against them will hardly warrant their confinement until the Superior Court. There are others suspected of being connected with the robbery, and will probably be arrested to-day. Squire Harri-arr will dispose of the case Monday at 10 o'clock.

BOLD ROBBERY.—Last night the store of Mr. J. C. Stevenson, near the corner of Market and Second streets, was entered through the back door by means of an augur and other tools, and robbed of about two hundred dollars, worth of goods, viz: 46 boxes of cigars—the cigars were emptied from the boxes into bags and the boxes left—preserves, a box containing thirty dozen eggs, saucers, and about twenty pounds of tea. These burglars, like all others, were perfectly familiar with the situation of the bolts, bars, etc., on the door. There were two holes bored into the door, each sufficiently large for a man to slip his arm in with ease, one under the lock, and the other by the bolt.

MRS. HALE'S NEW COOK BOOK.—A complete Cookery Book for all classes; with rules and illustrations for household management, and full directions for Carving, Arranging the Table for Parties, etc., together with Preparations of Food for Invalids and for Children. Illustrated with numerous engravings, and containing one thousand three hundred and eighty-five receipts for cooking everything in all the best ways; and has a complete index, by referring to which any receipt can be found at once. Philadelphia: T. B. Peterson & Brothers. The Messrs. Peterson, with their usual tact and talent, have secured the precious manuscripts and printed in an attractive volume a complete and new cook book from the practiced pen of Mrs. Sarah Josepha Hale, one of the best known of our native lady writers, and for many years the well known Editress of Godey's Lady's Book. While traversing the stormy pathway which leads to the Temple of Fame, Mrs. Hale never neglected her duties as a housekeeper; and in the management of the culinary branch of her household, she brought to bear her keen intellect and quick perceptions. Of the vast multitude of cook books now in the market, impartial critics pronounce Mrs. Hale's to be one of the very best—a truthful verdict. The Messrs. Peterson have brought out this truly valuable volume in a sumptuous style of typography, and in a style of binding at once ornate and durable, being issued in a large duodecimo volume of over five hundred pages, bound in morocco cloth, full gilt back, from new designs, and is sold by all booksellers at the low price of $1.75; or copies will be sent by mail to any place, post-paid, by the publishers, on receipt of the price. For sale at Hensberger's Book-store.

WAKES.—Several times have the daily papers spoken of these nuisances and yet there have been no steps taken to suppress them; and why it is we confess we are at a loss to say, as they certainly are nuisances of the most grievous character, yet still they are allowed to be held in every quarter of the city. We are reluctant at fault-finding, especially with any religious body, and when our city laws are so abundantly and rigidly enforced as they are; but we are compelled to give public vent to our feelings, and in doing so it is for the sake of suffering humanity. It is utterly impossible for a person to sleep when one is being held in the neighborhood, and one can readily imagine how disagreeable it must be to a sick person, or the poor laboring man when retiring at night to seek quiet and slumber after his daily toil. If they must sing and pray over the dead, let them dispense with it at a seasonable hour, or else give vent to their feelings upon their arrival at the grave, and not make night hideous with their noisy demonstrations. We trust the matter will be considered by the proper officials, and that these wakes may be abolished now and forever more.

OUR NEW BUILDINGS.

CARR'S BLOCK.

This building, with its large show windows in the stores beneath the dwelling portions of it, its long iron balcony and Mansard roof adding greatly to the appearance of the street in that immediate vicinity, has recently been erected on Second street. The iron front stores are nice, large and airy, and are at present occupied, one as a grocery, one by the proprietors of the "Picture Store" and the other as a meat market, kept by Mr. L. Solomon, who keeps everything in his line, and who is prepared to deliver all goods purchased of him promptly. The dwelling portions of the building are very conveniently arranged, so that the three dwellings can be used as a hotel or each be used separately. There are water pipes running through the various apartments on the first floor and gas pipes through the entire building. The rooms are well ventilated, and will make pleasant apartments either for Summer or Winter use.

LESSMAN'S NEW STORE AND RESIDENCE is a very attractive and handsome building. The large oval show window, with its well polished glass, would be an ornament to any building, no matter how stupendous its proportions. The iron front of the store is neat and substantial. The dwelling over the store is conveniently arranged, and is well adapted to the wants of the owner of the property. The entire establishment is furnished with gas fixtures, and in the parlors can be seen the handsomest chandelier in the city.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.—The regular semi-monthly meeting of the Board of Aldermen was held last evening.

The Mayor was instructed to contract with Messrs. David & Weil for furnishing the Winter uniforms, including caps, for the police force.

Ordered that the Mayor cause Nutt street to be opened, between Mulberry and Brunswick streets, in accordance with the recent assessment of the jury, by the 4th of October, 1873.

The Mayor was instructed, wherever there are two famps at the intersection of streets, to dispense with one of them, beginning with the 1st of October.

Petition of citizens, for the opening of Second street, between Red Cross and Hanover, by erecting a bridge over the W. & W. R. R. on that street, was referred to the Committee on Streets and Wharves.

Petition for a gas lamp at the corner of Red Cross and Seventh streets, referred to the Committee on Lights, with power to act.

The Committee on Public Buildings reported in reference to the petition of E. J. Pennybacker, for certain improvements on the Opera House, recommending that the sum of $900 be appropriated for that purpose. After discussion the matter was laid over until the next regular meeting.

Petition of Jos. C. Hill, Superintendent of St. Stephen's Sabbath School, for a remission of the charges for use of the City Hall on the evenings of the 22d and 23d instants, on the occasion of concerts being given for the benefit of the school, was granted.

The Committee on Ordinances asked for and were granted further time to prepare an ordinance in reference to the piling of wood on the wharves.

The Board then went into an election for Fourth Sergeant on the police force, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of J. N. VanSoelen, with Robert McKenzie, E. F. Martin and Edgar Miller as the candidates, but no result was arrived at.

The Board then adjourned to the next regular meeting.

LATEST BY TELEGRAPH, NEW YORK.

New York, September 20.

The Presidents of the National Banks held an informal meeting, and resolved to support each other, and to disregard the reserve restrictions in to-day's dealings.

Wall street was crowded at an early hour, but there was less solicitude, however. The resources of the banks sustain each other, and the sale of $10,000,000 in bonds by the Treasury nerves matters.

Two members of the firm of Jay Cooke & Co. are coming on the Russia, which is expected on Monday when a reliable statement of the affairs of the house will probably be presented to the public.

The Stock Exchange has been closed, subject to the call of the President, to enable its members to settle the defalcation of the Union Trust Company. It is reported that Vanderbilt has been closeted with the Directors. It is impossible to give quotations for stocks. President Chapman, of the Stock Exchange, forbids outside operations by members, upon the penalty of expulsion. The National Trust Company closed its doors to-day.

The certificates of the Mechanics' Banking Association and of the Continental Bank have been thrown out of the Clearing Office.

The Bank of North America has suspended.

ALBANY, September 20.

It is rumored that Squires & Sons have suspended.

WASHINGTON.

Washington, September 20.

The following failures are reported: Union Banking Company, Philadelphia, Union Trust Company, New York, A. B. White & Co., New York, E. C. Broadhead, New York, Ketchum & Belknap, New York, Saxe & Rogers, New York, National Bank of the Commonwealth, New York, Tussig & Fishie, P. M. Myers, Miller & Walsh, Laurens Josephs, Fleming & Dillinger, Brown, Wadsworth & Co.

A. G. Cattell, agent of the Syndicate at London, telegraphs Secretary Richardson that their accounts are all in perfect order.

The Freedman's Savings Bank paid out $65,000. The officers declare themselves well fortified. Only the usual Saturday afternoons crowd are about the Bank.

Dr. Miller, a noted physician dead.

CONNECTICUT.

HARTFORD, Sept. 20.

In the Mobilier case, Attorney General Williams said that the Union Pacific Railroad Company were not only agents of the Government, which had provided money for a public good, but their Road was a highway, and the trust assumed by the Company had been violated. He said he looked for a decision that would do more good in Railroad matters than all legislative enactments. He was followed by Judge Curtis for the defendants, who held that the bill was multifarious, involving parties not legally to be brought in.

LOUISIANA.

New Orleans, September 20.

It is estimated that the total population of Shreveport at present is 3,000, including 1,000 sick and convalescing.

There is much anxiety in commercial circles regarding the failures in New York, but business among the banks is quiet as usual.

PENNSYLVANIA.

READING, Sept. 20.

A State Grange of the Patrons of Husbandry has been organized. Twenty-two delegates were present, representing twenty-five Granges.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 20. It is rumored that the Union Banking House has suspended.

CABLE DISPATCHES.

FRANCE.

Bayonne, September 20.

The Carliacs are firing on Berga.

ENGLAND.

London, September 20.

A Calcutta dispatch announces the loss of the Indus with 418 coolies.

The City Cornet Band of Raleigh has been engaged by the Agricultural Society to play at the State Fair next month. They make good music, and Raleigh is justly proud of them. We also learn that the LaFayette Brass Band of Fayetteville have been invited, and are expected to be present also at the State Fair.

STATE ITEMS.

A white man, whose name is not given, became engaged in a quarrel in a bar room in Raleigh on Monday last, and was struck on the head by a colored man, with an iron weight. The unfortunate man died on Thursday morning, and the murderer has not yet been arrested.

Salisbury is getting proud, and wants the weathercock on the Court House straightened up from its present disarranged condition; and they want their old town clock resurrected and restored to usefulness. By all means let the weathercock be straightened up, and start the old clock to keeping time again.

The Salisbury Watchman suggests to the various Agricultural Fair Associations in the State to offer a premium of $20 or $25 for the best Fair poster printed in the State for the Fairs of 1874. —Something like this would make amends for the egregiously blunder of flaunting flashy posters with a foreign imprint in the faces of those who are expected gratuitously to employ their types and presses in behalf of home enterprises. This is sound, eminently sound.
