PROSPECTUS FOR 1874—Seventh year

THE ALDINE

An Illustrated Monthly Journal, universally admitted to be Handsomest Periodical in the World. A Representative and Champion of American Taste.

Not for Sale in Book or Music Stores

THE ALDINE while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is more than a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white, although each exceeding in value the price of the paper. It is more than a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white, although each exceeding in value the price of the paper. It is more than a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white, although each exceeding in value the price of the paper.

ART DEPARTMENT, 1874.

The illustrations of THE ALDINE have won a world-wide reputation, and in the art centers of Europe it is an admitted fact that its wood cuts are examples of the highest perfection ever attained. The common prejudice in favor of etching and engraving is being more and more eradicated and discriminating taste which recognizes the advantages of superior artistic quality with greater facility of production. The wood cuts of THE ALDINE possess all the delicacy and elaborate finish of the most costly steel plate, while they afford a better rendering of the artist's original than any other process. The ALDINE is doing for the cause of art culture in America, it is only necessary to consider the cost of such reproductions of the productions of great painters.

In addition to designs by the members of the National Academy, and other noted American artists, THE ALDINE will produce, selected with a view to the highest artistic success and greatest interest to the subscribers, THE ALDINE will at a trifling cost, enjoy in his own home the pleasure and refining influences of true art.

The quarterly tinted plates for 1874 will be by Mr. Moran and J. D. Woodward.

The Christmas issue for 1874 will contain special designs appropriate to the season, by our best artists, and will surpass in attraction any of its predecessors.

PREMIUM FOR 1874.

Every subscriber to THE ALDINE for the year 1874 will receive a pair of chromos. The original pictures on which they are based, the publishers of THE ALDINE, by Thomas Moran, whose great Colorado picture was purchased by Congress for ten thousand dollars, and the subjects of the plates for 1874 will be "The East" and "The West." One is a view in the White Mountains New Hampshire the other gives the Cliffs of Green River, Wyoming territory. The subjects are of a pleasing contrast, and affords a good display of the artist's scope and coloring. The chromos are each worth from $1 to $10 in value, and are in size 12 x 16 and appearance exact fac-similes of the originals. The presentation of a worthy example of America's art to the subscribers to THE ALDINE is a bold but peculiarly happy idea, and its successful realization is attested by the following testimonial, over the signature of Mr. Moran himself.

NEWARK, N. J., Sept 20th, 1873.

Messrs. JAMES SUTTON & Co.

Gentlemen,—I am delighted with the proofs of the color of your chromos. They are wonderfully successful representations by mechanical process of the original paintings. Very respectfully, (Signed) THOS. MORAN.

These chromos are in every way American. They are by an original American process, with material of American manufacture, from designs of American scenery by an American painter, and presented to subscribers to the first successful American Art Journal. If no better because of all this they will certainly possess an interest no foreign production can inspire, and neither are they any the worse if by reason of peculiar facilities of production they cost the publisher only a trifle, while equal in every respect to the chromos that are sold singly for double the subscription price of THE ALDINE. Persons of taste will prize these pictures for themselves—not for the price they did or do not cost the publisher. The appearance that renders their distribution possible.

If any subscribers should indicate a preference for a figure subject, the publishers will send "Thoughts of Home," a new and beautiful chromo, 14 x 20 inches, representing a little Italian exile whose speaking eyes betray the language of his heart.

TERMS.

$5 per annum, in advance, with Oil Chromos free.

For 50 Cents Extra, the chromos will be sent mounted, varnished, and prepaid by mail.

THE ALDINE will, hereafter, be obtainable only by subscription. The price will be reduced of club rate; cash for subscriptions must be sent to the publishers direct, or handed to the local canvasser, without responsibility to the publishers. In all cases where the certificate is given, bearing the facsimile signature of JAMES SUTTON & Co.

THE SUN.

WEEKLY, SEMI-WEEKLY, AND DAILY.

THE WEEKLY SUN is too widely known to require any extended recommendation, but we cannot but have already given it fifty thousand subscribers, and which will, we hope, give it many thousands more ere long.

It is a first rate newspaper. All the news of the day will be found in it, condensed when unimportant, at full length when of moment, and always presented in a clear, intelligible, and interesting manner.

It is a first rate family paper, full of entertaining and instructive reading of every kind, but containing nothing that can offend the most delicate and sensitive taste.

It is a first rate story paper. The best tales and romances of current literature are carefully selected and legibly printed in its pages.

It is a first rate agricultural paper. The most fresh and instructive articles on agricultural topics regularly appear in this department.

It is an independent political paper, belonging to no party and wearing no color. It fights for principle, and for the election of the best men to office. It especially devotes its energies to the exposure of the great corruptions that now weaken and disgrace our country, and threaten to undermine republicanism altogether. It has no fear of knives, and asks no favors from their supporters.

It reports the fashions for the ladies and the markets for the men, especially the cattle markets, to which it pays particular attention.

Finally, it is the cheapest paper published. One dollar a year will secure it for any subscriber. It is not necessary to get up a club order to have THE WEEKLY SUN at this rate. Any one who sends a single dollar will get the paper for a year.

We have no traveling agents.

THE WEEKLY SUN.—Eight pages, fifty six columns. Only $1.00 a year. No discounts from this rate.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY SUN.—Same size as the Daily Sun. $2.00 a year. A discount of 20 per cent. to clubs of 10 or over.

THE DAILY SUN.—A large four page newspaper of twenty-eight columns. Daily circulation over 120,000. Sent for $2.00 a year. Subscription price 50 cents a month, or $5.00 a year. To clubs of 10 or over, a discount of 20 per cent. Address:

The wood cuts of THE ALDINE possess all the delicacy and elaborate finish of the most costly steel plate, while they afford a better rendering of the artist's original than any other process. The ALDINE is doing for the cause of art culture in America, it is only necessary to consider the cost of such reproductions of the productions of great painters.

In addition to designs by the members of the National Academy, and other noted American artists, THE ALDINE will produce, selected with a view to the highest artistic success and greatest interest to the subscribers, THE ALDINE will at a trifling cost, enjoy in his own home the pleasure and refining influences of true art.

The quarterly tinted plates for 1874 will be by Mr. Moran and J. D. Woodward.

The Christmas issue for 1874 will contain special designs appropriate to the season, by our best artists, and will surpass in attraction any of its predecessors.

PREMIUM FOR 1874.

Every subscriber to THE ALDINE for the year 1874 will receive a pair of chromos. The original pictures on which they are based, the publishers of THE ALDINE, by Thomas Moran, whose great Colorado picture was purchased by Congress for ten thousand dollars, and the subjects of the plates for 1874 will be "The East" and "The West." One is a view in the White Mountains New Hampshire the other gives the Cliffs of Green River, Wyoming territory. The subjects are of a pleasing contrast, and affords a good display of the artist's scope and coloring. The chromos are each worth from $1 to $10 in value, and are in size 12 x 16 and appearance exact fac-similes of the originals. The presentation of a worthy example of America's art to the subscribers to THE ALDINE is a bold but peculiarly happy idea, and its successful realization is attested by the following testimonial, over the signature of Mr. Moran himself.
