OTTO SCHUTZE, Observer, U. S. A.

WE should not hesitate to recommend to any friend of ours, Parsons' Purgative Pills; they are scientifically prepared, and are adapted to all the purposes of a good purgative medicine.

Decidedly the best remedy that has ever been discovered for the rheumatism, swollen, or stiff joints, flesh wounds, sprains, bruises, cuts, and burns, is Johnson's Anodyne Lintment. We use it, and always recommend it to our friends.

No Discharge in that War.

BY REV. W. J. PARKINSON.

Business man, why do you hurry so; why is that sweat drop upon your brow; why that anxious face, why that stooped form, bent with care? Don't clutch those stocks so tightly; don't spend so many sleepless nights about that farm; don't let them houses worry you, you have not a "quit claim" deed to any of them, nor a "fee simple" in them only a life estate, and perhaps not that.— They are God's and the above are his words, no discharge in that war. That is, the war of death; the "black-eyed monster" is on your track; he has already entered your house. Where is that little child? Where that loving wife? Where that dear parent? Gone in the grave; returned to dust. And where are you? Rapidly pressing after them. No discharge in that war.

You say I am a fanatic. Is he a fanatic who saves you from death? Is he a fanatic who only speaks of, and directs, you towards your highest interests? If either of us is such, is it I or is it you? I leave the question, but beseech you to heed the counsel. Has life been what you had hoped? Have no thorns grown by your pathway? Is it all a flowery bed of ease? O, sinning man, dying man; wretched man, prepare to meet thy God; live for eternity; you will soon be done with time, for there is no discharge in that war.

A few days since, I took up my morning paper. Great black lines went from top to bottom. "What is the matter," said my neighbor, at the breakfast table, "why is the journal in mourning?" "An ex-Governor of your own State, North Carolina, is dead." He was a good man, true, said the papers. But this would not keep him. No discharge in that war. Dead! dead! dead!

Put your ear against the ground under your feet, and you can hear the solemn sound as it rumbles in the bowels of the earth, amid the bones of your own, and other fathers and friends.— Kings are there, and peasants. Presidents and people. Gone, all gone, and we are going. God help us to be ready, for there is no discharge in that war.

"Cease not to warn every one, night and day."
The Lord willing, I shall preach in the street, at the head of the Market Sunday next, as last Sabbath, at 4 1/2 o'clock p.m., and may God add his blessing.

REAL COOL this afternoon.

A manufacturing machine—a local editor.

MUNSON & Co. speak for themselves in to-day's issue.

No NEWS scarcely stirring to-day. We can't help it.

THE storm Signal is flying to-day at the weather observatory in this city.

THE Republican County Convention meets in this city on Saturday, May the 8th.

THUNDER, lightning, rain and wind, were plentiful in and around this city last night.

ELIJAH HEWLETT, Esq., announces himself in this issue as a candidate for County Treasurer.

SUPERIOR COURT, after an adjournment of one afternoon, convened again this morning.

"JIM," at the National, sets forth every day, a "gorgeous" free lunch. Of course we have been there.

IT is said that the loss by fire on Monday night will amount to nearly, or quite three thousand dollars.

IT IS HOPED that Rev. J. R. Wilson, D. D., will soon assume the pastoral charge of the First Presbyterian Church in our city.

FIVE HUNDRED and fifty dollars for each exhibition, has frightened the circus agent away from our city. It's all for the best.

SOUND PARTY.—A Sound party was to have been given to-day, by a number of ladies and gentlemen, but it has been postponed on account of the weather.

A NUMBER of ministers and delegates in attendance to the Lutheran Synod, which convenes at St. Paul's Church, in this city, this morning at 10 o'clock, arrived on the trains yesterday and this morning.

EARLY.—The first "snap" beans of the season were in market this morning at the store of Mr. Thos. H. Smith, on Market street. From present appearances, we are fearful that the crop will be cut short, as the weather has a decidedly "frosty" aspect.

ALMOST A FIRE.—On Monday afternoon about 5 o'clock, a wooden building at the depot of the Carolina Central Railway caught fire from the sparks issuing from the yard engine, but fortunately it was discovered in time to prevent a conflagration. This was the third alarm of fire given on Monday.

PALACE OF INDUSTRY.—All should bear in mind that to-night, this beautiful Opera will be presented at the Opera House, by over one hundred ladies, gentlemen and children, among which are some of our best musical talent. It is given for a very laudable object, and we hope that their exertions will be appreciated by a rousing house.

WENT TO THE BOTTOM.—Yesterday afternoon a colored man, (and a fisherman) while standing in his skiff, at the foot of Market dock, quietly vending his perch, the skiff suddenly careened, and the contents of the boat, viz: paddles, perch, bait, bailer, greenbacks and man, disappeared beneath the waters of the classic Cape Fear, but upon emerging to the surface, the fisherman was pulled out by his friends, and was soon on his way home, rejoicing that he had been saved from a watery grave.

WE LEARN that David Martin, the boy-convicted of the murder of Willie Carter, at the October term of the Superior Court, will be sentenced to execution to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock. In this connection we learn that a petition has been addressed to the Judge to select some other day than Friday for the execution. How the Court can get around an immemorial custom remains to be seen, but there seems to be considerable feeling against the continuation of it.

A whale was captured on the coast near Morehead City a short time ago, which yielded twenty-seven barrels of oil and a large lot of whalebone.

Wilson is making rapid strides. New banks, stores, residences, &c., are going up rapidly.

Mayor's Court.

His Honor W. P. CANADAY, Mayor, presiding.

Only one case before this Court this morning:

One person, whose name we withhold, charged with disorderly conduct. Case dismissed.

To the Republicans of North-West Township.

FRIENDS:—Let us hasten but slowly; let us be zealous and discreet. Your meeting of the 25th of June, at Brinkley's Station, appointing and instructing delegates to the County Convention said to be held on the third Monday in May, at Smithville, was premature and precipitate. No Convention has yet been publicly called, and, for reasons that you will find ample and satisfactory, none is to be called for the third Monday prox. The Executive Committee of your county, through their chairman, will, in proper season, announce the time and place of the County Convention. The only one to be held during the campaign. Until then be vigilant and keep your powder dry.

E. M. ROSAFY, Ch'n Ex. Committee. SMITHVILLE, Brunswick Co., Apr. 28.

To [This singular letter was sent by Robert Burns, it is believed, to a critic, who had taken him to task about obscure language, and imperfect grammar]:

ELLISLAND, 1791.

Thou ennucl of language; thou Englishman, who never was south the Tweed; thou servile echo of fashionable barbarians; thou quack, vending the nostrums of empirical elocution; thou marriage-maker between vowels and consonants, on the Greta-green of caprice; thou cobbler, betaking the flimsy socks of bombast oratory; thou blacksmith, hammering the rivets of absurdity; thou butcher, imbruing thy hands in the hands of orthography; thou arch-heretic in pronunciation; thou pitch-pipe of affected emphasis; thou carpenter, mortising the awkward joints of jarring sentences; thou squeaking dissonance of cadence; thou pimp of gender; thou Lion Herald to silly etymology; thou antipode of grammar; thou executioner of construction; thou fraud of the speech-distracting builders of the Tower of Babel; thou lingual confusion worse confounded; thou scape-gallows from the land of syntax; thou scavenger of mood and tense; thou murderous accoucher of infant learning; thou ignis fatuus, mistending steps of benighted ignorance; thou pickle-herring in the puppet-show of nonsense; thou faithful recorder of barbarous idiom; thou persecution of syllabication; thou baleful meteor, foretelling and facilitating the rapid approach of Nox and Erebus. R. B.

CHARGED WITH ARSON.—Mary E. Ryburg, wife of Charles Ryburg was arrested last night on a warrant issued by Justice Cassidey, and imprisoned on charge of arson. The case will probably be heard before Justice Cassidey this afternoon or to-morrow morning. Our readers will remember the fire that took place on Sunday night about 12 o'clock, on the 19th inst., which destroyed a dwelling, the property of Mayor Canaday, situated on Brooklyn alley, between Nixon and Swann streets. The house was occupied by Chas. Ryburg, and a white woman by the name Margaret E. Skipper, who occupied the other half.

Ryburg succeeded in getting an insurance of $750 on his furniture, in the Phoenix Company, of which Messrs. Taylor & Giles are the agents. It seems from the testimony of Margaret E. Skipper that the furniture was removed from the house on the night of the 17th inst., to the house of one Wilson Muzen, on Fifth, between Walnut and Red Cross streets.

The man and the two women, took the train on Saturday morning, the 18th, inst., the women stopping at Abbottsburg, but the man going on to Shoe Heel; the women returned to this city, but Ryburg has not. It also appears from the testimony of the woman Skipper that several baskets of dress were placed under the piazza, by which means the house was set fire to. The women now lie in Jail, but the man has not been apprehended as yet. No doubt more facts will be brought to light, upon the examination before Justice Cassidey on to-morrow.

A Chicago minister is affectionately advertised as being "out of a job."

STATE ITEMS.

Raleigh groans under 12 base ball clubs.

Iredell county has a dyck which lays black eggs.

Capt. Benjamin Robinson has been nominated by the Republicans of Fayetteville as Mayor of that city.

Col. Brown, of the National Hotel of Raleigh, has been regaling the newspaper men of that city with the best of spring edibles.

The News of yesterday says: We regret to learn that the tobacco manufactory of Messrs. Lyon & Bro., at Kittrells, was destroyed by fire yesterday, involving a loss on that firm of $2,000. It is generally believed that the fire was the work of an incendiary, and certain parties are suspected of the fiendish and diabolical act.

The Newbern Times of yesterday, says: "Somewhat to the disappointment of a certain interested few, and to the surprise of many, George Green, who was appointed Receiver of the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad by Judge Clark on Saturday, did not assume charge of the Road on Monday morning as was expected. When the knowledge of Green's appointment reached President Stanly (late on Saturday night), he concluded that rather than proceed to suit, which would entail costs and cause considerable feeling that it were better to withdraw his opposition to Mr. King and his Directory, and information of this determination was accordingly conveyed to the proper parties. The result was that Judge Clark revoked the order appointing Greed, and Mr. R. W. King accordingly assumed the Presidency of the Road yesterday morning. Thus is the great Railroad war ended, without bloodshed, and we trust, without much hard or unkind feeling. Those interested breathe freer and the general opinion is that "the country is safe." Mr. King, the new President, has had some railroad experience, having been a member of the Road Directory since 1863, and will no doubt make a good and acceptable President."

The Logan-Sykes Couple.

Olive Logan, who left the coulisson on account of her deafness, afterward took to lecturing. She was for some time the wife of Henry A. Delille, but as they grew heartily tired of one another they had no difficulty in going apart. Mrs. Delille, that was, waited until Wirt Sykes, who had long been her puffer-general, could be legally released from his wife and children, when she espoused him, and so confused the nomenclature of the family that it is impossible to determine whether she is Mrs. Wirt Sykes or he is Mr. Olive Logan. He is the most audacious and unblushing advertiser extant. He roams over the country and fills the rural newspapers with paragraphs relating what the crowned heads of Europe have confidentially whispered to Olive Logan, while she accompanies him, and the assumption of lecturing, paces and grimaces on the platform, and exhibits an alarming expanse of teeth, at a dollar a head. This extraordinary pair is abroad now, but lycetum committees live in daily terror of their return.
