It should be in the hands of every man who desires to know what has transpired during the day, and, as it aims to give RELIABLE INTELLIGENCE, its publisher hopes it will prove a welcome guest in many families.

THE POST
Is sprightly without being sensational, and it carefully excludes all objectionable incidents and reports calculated to offend the sensibilities of the most fastid-

Prospectus for 1874—Seventh year
THE ALDINE
An Illustrated Monthly Journal, universally admitted to be Handsome Periodical in the World. A Representative and Champion of American Taste.
Not for Sale in Book or Music Stores

THE ALDINE while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or faintly interesting characteristics of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light and graceful literature; and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been read at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, as compared with rivals of the same class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possessor of a complete volume cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost; and then, there are the chromos, best!

ART DEPARTMENT, 1874.
The illustrations of THE ALDINE have won a world-wide reputation, and in the art centres of Europe it is an admitted fact that its wood cuts are examples of the highest perfection ever attained. The common prejudice in favor of "steel plates," is rapidly yielding to a just appreciation of the discriminating taste which recognizes the advantages of superior artistic quality with greater facility of production. The woodcuts of THE ALDINE possess a delicacy, clearness and elaborate finish of the most costly steel plate, while they afford a better rendering of the artist's original.

To fully realize the wonderful work which THE ALDINE is doing for the cause of art culture in America, it is only necessary to consider the cost to the people of any other decent representations of the productions of great painters.

In addition to designs by the members of the National Academy of Design, noted American artists, THE ALDINE will reproduce examples of the best foreign masters, selected with a view to the highest artistic success and greatest general interest. Thus the subscribers to THE ALDINE will at a trifling cost, enjoy in their own home the pleasure and refining influence of the The quarterly United plates for 1871 will be by Theo. Moran and J. D. Woodward.

The Christmas issue for 1871 will contain special designs appropriate to the season, by our best artists, and will surpass in attraction any of its predecessors.

PREMIUM FOR 1871.
Every subscriber to THE ALDINE for the year 1871 will receive a pair of chromos.
The original pictures were painted in oil by the publishers of THE ALDINE, by Thomas Moran, whose great Colorado picture was purchased by Congress for ten thousand dollars. The subjects were chosen to represent "The East" and "The West." One is a view of the White Mountain New Hampshire, the other gives the Cliffs of Green River, Wyo-ning Territory. The difference in the nature of the scenes themselves in a pleasing contrast, and affords a good display of the artist's scope and coloring. The chromos are each worked from thirty distinct plates, and are in size (12 x 16) and appearance exactly like-similes of the original. The presentation of a worthy example of America's greatest landscape painter to the subscribers of THE ALDINE was a bold but not unhappy idea, and its successful realization is attested by the following testimonial, over the signature of Mr. Moran himself.

Newark, N. J., Sept. 20th, Messrs. JAMES SUTTON & CO., Gentlemen,—I am delighted with proofs of your chromos. They wonderfully successful representation by the colored process of the original picture.
(Signed) THOMAS MORAN.
These chromos are in every sense American.
They are by an original American process, with material of American manufacture, from designs of American scenery by an American painter, and presented to subscribers to the first successful American Art Journal. It is better because of this that they will certainly possess an interest no foreign production can inspire, and neither can any the worse if, by reason of peculiar dislikes of production they cost the publishers only a trifle, while equal in every respect to other chromos that are sold singly for double the subscription price of THE ALDINE.
Persons of taste will prize these pictures for themselves—not for the price they did or did not cost, and will appreciate the enterprise that renders their distribution possible.
If any subscribers should indicate a preference for a figure subject, the publishers will send "Thoughtful Home," a very beautiful chromo, 12 x 20 inches, representing a little Italian exile whose speaking eyes betray the longing of his heart.

THE ALDINE will, hereafter, be obtainable only by subscription. There will be no reduced or cash rates for subscribers, and must be sent to the publishers direct, or handed to the local canvasser, without responsibility to the publishers, except in the case where the certificate is given, bearing the facsimile signature of JAMES SUTTON & Co.
CANVASSEERS WANTED.
Any person wishing to act permanently as a local canvasser will receive full and prompt information by applying to

THE SUN.
WEEKLY, SEMI-WEEKLY, AND
DAILY.
THE WEEKLY SUN is too widely known to require any extended recommendation, and the reasons which have already secured it fifty thousand subscribers, and which will, we hope, give it many thousands more, are briefly as follows: It is a first rate newspaper. All the news of the day will be found in it, condensed when unimportant, at full length when a moment, and always presented in a clear, intelligible, and interesting manner.
It is a first rate family paper, full of entertaining and instructive reading of every kind, but containing nothing that can offend the most delicate and scrupulous taste.
It is a first rate story paper.
