EDITORIAL BRIGS AND POINTS POLITICAL.

RANDALL has made a "mash" on the Atlantians.

BEHOLD! The Republican court house ring, headed by KEOGH BOYD, HOLTON & Co!

GEORGIA wants CLEVELAND renominated for President and Mrs. CLEVELAND for Vice-President.

CLERK HOLTON is breathing death in anticipation of the decision of the Supreme Court in the magistrate case.

"THE Republican organs appear to be edited in the interest of idiocy," says the Atlanta Constitution. That's about the size of it.

ST. LOUIS indulged in an all night parade in honor of the President, and the hospitality is described as of the "star-spangled" character.

REPUBLICAN principles are bad enough, but the entire party bossed by a corrupt court house ring means corruption of the most blighting sort.

DURING President CLEVELAND'S tour through the South, "the South is in the saddle" for once; TUTTLE and FAIRCHILD to the contrary notwithstanding.

"THE Republicans are now fairly splitting the sky with their loud bellowings for civil service reform." Bellowing is about as far as they ever got in that direction.

REPUBLICAN black guards in Minnesota have shown their raising by insulting Mrs. CLEVELAND. They have received a just rebuke, by being burned in effigy.

...bothered to death about where Bob INGERSOLL will go when he dies, haven't looked to see how their own tickets are marked yet.

WE agree with the Raleigh News-Observer that "the independent vote must be torn away so that the radicalism it covers may be revealed in all its hideousness."

SEN. VOORHEES misses no reasonable opportunity to declare that President CLEVELAND will be renominated and re-elected." The people are with you, Mr. VOORHEES.

THE story goes out from Augusta that Mr. BLAINE and his coworkers are busily engaged in trying to capture the prohibition and the temperance vote for the Republicans in the coming presidential election.

SOME one asks "What is a Mugwump?" To this the Poughkeepsie News replied: "A Mugwump is a man who is too good for the Republicans and not good enough for the Democratic party."

CLEVELAND threw aside the stately manner with which he entered upon his journey and went fishing on Lake Mentone Saturday last. Eight black bass suffered themselves to be drawn by the Presidential hook.

JAY GOULD is a Republican and took a lively interest in the campaign of 1884. He may be entirely devoid of sentiment, he may pay little or no attention to the alleged principles of the Republican party, but being a trickster in finance he naturally favors the political party of corrupt practices.

THE Presidential party had a narrow escape on the way to Memphis. A bridge, over which the train is to pass, was set on fire by a supposed train wrecker, but was discovered in time to prevent a second Chatsworth horror." It now devolves upon FORAKER, FAIRCHILD and TUTTLE to prove an alibi.

THE attempt to gerrymander through the Grand Army of the Republic Encampment a resolution censuring President CLEVELAND for his action on the pension veto was a laughable failure, hurting only its authors and rebounding to the credit of the President with all the force attaching to a victory over one's enemies. You will have to pick your flints and come again, Mr. FAIRCHILD.

SINCE the Democrats got control of the offices of the country, the drawings of the Republican organs against the external revenue are almost enough to force an Eastern bull frog, crawl in his hole and pull the hole in after him. Why do these fellows not do how when the Reds were in the saddle. The whole system ought to go just the same, and let the Radical party be consigned to its appropriate...

Peace and Plenty.

Comment was recently made on the abundance of mast on the trees in all parts of the State. It is especially notable in the Piedmont section, and the chestnut crop is one of the largest ever known. The latter will be marketed and be quite a source of revenue. The people in all the mountain section call this a year of plenty, and well they may. They have never had such crops in all their lives. Peace and plenty seems to be the watch word.

A Corner Stone Laying and Marriage Conjointly.

At a fair near Concord it was for some years a custom for a couple to be married on the grounds, and on one occasion Governor VANCE gave away the bride. But Durham proposes to have an exhibition of that kind more sensational still. The corner stone of the court house will be laid soon and a marriage will be performed, the bride and groom standing on top of the stone. The Durham people may safely be trusted to inaugurate novelties.

Special Trains for Workingmen.

Arrangements have been made for a special train of the North Carolina railroad to bring the operators of Col. Holt's factories at Haw River down to the fair. A similar train will be run on the Raleigh and Gaston road to bring the workmen of the Falls of the Neuse Manufacturing Company, numbering about two hundred and fifty. Many other factories in the State will shut down for a couple of days during the fair in order to give their employees an opportunity to see the exhibition.

Wages Paid Common Laborers.

The Commissioner of Labor Statistics has received reports from the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley, Raleigh and Gaston, and Raleigh and Augusta railways on the number and kind of employees, with wages paid. The Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley is 138 miles long and has 320 employees. The Raleigh and Gaston and Raleigh and Augusta railways are under one lease and have 718 employees of all kinds. The average wages paid common laborers per day are about eighty five cents.

Wilmington Can Now Show Her Hand.

An official of the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railway said today that the action of Carroll county, Virginia, in voting $100,000 to the Norfolk and Western railway was most important. It assures the connection of these two systems. The line will be known to the States as the Short Mountain route, but it will transport coal as a great distributing line to Virginia, North Carolina, and South Carolina. A coaling station will be established by the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley road at whatever point—Morehead, Wilmington, or Charleston—offers the greatest inducements and advantages.

Hearing and Speech Restored to a Deaf Mute.

A singular occurence has recently taken place in the neighboring county of Wilson, which is well calculated to create excitement in the minds of those inclined to be superstitious, especially as the truth of it is vouched for by some of the best citizens of the vicinity. A negro girl, named Maggie Sims, has been deaf and dumb since infancy, she being now seventeen years of age. When quite a child she was sent to the deaf and dumb institution for her race, where she learned to read and write, as well as receiving considerable religious instruction. It is known that she offered up, at times, earnest prayers in the mute language, calling on the Lord for glory, to open her ears and restore to her the power of speech. Remarkable as it may seem, hearing and speech were suddenly bestowed upon her on last Friday. It is, at least, a strange case.

A Business-like Offer.

For many years the manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy have offered, in good faith, $500 reward for a case of Nasal Catarrh which they cannot cure. The Remedy is sold by druggists at only 50 cents. This wonderful remedy has fairly attained a world-wide reputation. If you have dull, heavy headache, obstruction of the nasal passages, discharges falling from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acrid, at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody and putrid; if the eyes are weak, watery and inflamed; if there is ringing in the ears, deafness, hacking or coughing to clear the throat, expectoration of offensive matter, together with scabs from ulcers; the voice being changed and has a nasal twang; the breath offensive; smell and taste impaired; sensation of dizziness, with mental depression, a hacking cough and general debility, you are suffering from nasal catarrh. The more complicated your disease, the greater the number and diversity of symptoms. Thousands of cases annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms, end in the grave. No disease is so common, more deceptive and dangerous, or less understood, or more unsuccessfully treated by physicians.

—A curiosity has been discovered, or rather resurrected, at Hillsboro, in the shape of a printing press and wood type, brought there in 1819 by Dennis Heartt, who, in February, 1820, published the first number of the Hillsboro' Recorder. It is the oldest press in the State, and ought to be preserved at the capital.

"GIT THERE."

THE THEME OF A LECTURE DELIVERED BY SAM JONES IN ATLANTA, GA., DURING THE PIEDMONT EXPOSITION.

He Acknowledges Himself to Be a "Slang Slinger" and Says Every Honest Man Has a Patch of Hair in His Hand.

I have been frequently referred to as a slang slinger. I believe in taking the near cuts on everything except a straight road.

To git there we need—
First, a starting point,
Secondly, a route,
Thirdly, somebody to go it,
Finally, a destination.

God has not made something out of nothing since the evening of the sixth day. What a man has in him will determine largely how long it will take him to "git there." Some people have more in them just after dinner than at any other time.

I have said frequently, and I said too many animals in this world for the amount of human beings we have. You see an animal that looks like a man. He marries a wife and has children to call him father. He presents himself to the world as a man, and you take an anger and bore into him and you wouldn't go more than half an inch before you would strike as pure a dog as ever was found on this earth.

Man must have a head on him and a heart in him.

If I was going to build a pavement on which a man might walk to his grandest destiny, the first stone I would put down would be integrity.

Some men amuse in the habit of telling lies that they couldn't tell the truth at three fair trials. Truth is always uppermost—ready to come out. A lie has to be manufactured. It is easier to tell the truth than to tell a lie. You tell one lie and it may take a thousand to cover it up. Some people would never lie if it took a million. If a man tells the truth that's the last of it.

It is said that every honest man has a patch of hair growing in the palm of his hand. Look at your palm. Every man present who has hair on his palm is honest. Every man present who has no hair on his palm is a liar
