A BUNGLING EXECUTION

The Haugman Loses His Nerve, Causing a Fearful Scene.

Greans and Contortions of the Dangling Victim,

Joseph M. Hillman, convicted of the murder of Herman Seideman, a Hebrew pedler, has been executed in a corridor of the Gloucester County Jail at Woodbury, N. J. James Vanhise, the professional hangman of Newark, furnished the gallows and conducted the hanging. Sheriff Ridgway merely pulling the rope which operated the fatal drop. The gallows was of the sort which requires no scaffold, but by weights and a rope running over pullies jerks the criminal upward and lets him drop the length of the slack. This was the thirty-sixth execution of the kind performed by Vanhise, but notwithstanding his experience the execution was builty managed and caused a sickening scene in the isti The extraordinary nerve displayed by young Hiliman during the trial in court did not forsake hun in the closing ordeal. He slept well during the night and in the morning ate his breakfast with relish. During forming hours he was visited by Rev. W. Nobles and Rev. George Carter, the two ministers who acted as his spiritual advisers inco he was sentenced; his counsel Messrs Hurris and Scovel, and by his father and brother Ephraim, the latter remaining to witness the execution In bidding his father farewell Joe broke down and wept freely, but soon recovered his composure. To the ministers and his counsel he adhered to the statement he has repeated often, that he did not do the killing alone, but was assisted by another man. To that alleged accomplice he has at different times given different names. He expressed bimself as not only fearless of death, but entirely willing to die, as he was sure he had been forgiven. The persons designated under the law to witness the execution, about twenty-five in number, assembled in the joil corridor at 10:25 A. M. Hillman was led from his cell at the farther end from the gallows, his arms pinioned, the black cap placed on his head, and the noise with a short piece of rope about his neck. Escorted by the Sheriff and the two ministers, he walked with firm step to the gallows, and the end of the rope on his neck was attached to the rope hanging from upper beam. The ministers hade him couldy, with a few words of consolation, and the Sheriff asked him if he had anything to Speaking in a voice loud and distinct: Hill-"Dear friends, I am about going tine said: to heaven. All I have got to say is, that my wife had nothing to do with it. I am the only Hillman that touched him. I have forgiven you all, and I hope you have forgiven me, and some day I hope to meet you all in

The cap was drawn down over the face, Vanhise adjusted the noose, Joe saying as he slipped it up. "Don't draw it so tight," Sheriff Ridgway pulled the rope. The body shot unward to the top of the gallows, about fourteen feet high, dropped until the feet nearly touched the floor, fetching up with a sharp rebound, and then hung for a few secsuds entirely motionless

Then the arms and legs began to twitch, the hunds were raised as high as the strap fastening the arms would allow, and heartreading means, some of them almost similar to articulate utterances, escaped from the wratehold man. The mose had loosened instead of tighten-

The wonderful growth of this New England city in the South has been such as to occasion exclamations of surprise from all Terrible Fight Between Widely visitors. Surely, say many, the magician's art alone could have produced this great transformation in a few short months. To those who have studied the situation the growth seems the most natural thing imaginable and not at all to be wondered at, though phenomenal.

> Of all the flourishing towns and cities of the South this one has attracted most attention, perhaps, for here alone is to be worked out the result of the first organized movement of the capital and brains from the North and East in the development of the vast resources of this region of country.

Here the iron ore of the best quality is within a quarter of a mile of the furnace. Limestone for fluxing is yet nearer, on the opposite side, and the coke ovens are building on the lot adjoining the furnace. A like condition of fortuitous circumstances do not exist elsewhere in this or any other country to insure a cheap production of pig iron. Besides, this country abounds in clays that makes the finest quality of fire bricks, sewer pipe, terra cotta, etc.; in kaolin and haloy site, from which is made the finest crockery and pottery; in sand for moulding and for glass making; in building stone of beautiful colors and shades; in forests of timber, both hard and soft woods; in a productive soil; in beautiful scenery; an abundance of pure spring water, and in healthful surroundings. Its location is in the Wills Valley, between Lookout and Sand Mountains, on the Queen & Crescent Route, fifty-one miles below Chattanooga and ninety-two miles above Birmingham, in north-eastern Aalabama. The Fort Payne Coal & Iron Company, having 1800 stockholders, nearly all from New England, with Col. J. W. Spaulding, as President, and C. O. Godirey (Mayor of the city), as General Manager, located here in February last and purchased many thousand acres of land. At that time the population numbered 531; now it is a city of over 3000 population, with electric lights, water works, and rapidly growing. In that time there has been erected and in process of erection over five hundred dwellings, two large hotels, furnace, rollin; mill, lime kiln, asphaltum block pavement factory, ice factory, stove works, very extensive fire clay, works, five brick yarls, carriage factory, two saw mills, planing mill, two banks, many stores, school houses. churches, opera house, etc. The officers of the company are busy day and night arranging for new industries, answering scores of letters daily received, entertaining visitors and pushing the building operations of the new industries under way. the knot having slipped from the side to the front of the head, there was no pressure on the front of the throat. The executioner seized the rope to readjust the names, two officers lifting the body to aid him indoing so. The knot was slipped down and held in place, and as the weight of the body again rested in the noose the throttled man's hand that had clutched the hangman's coat relaxed, and all the struggles ceased.

The scene was too painful for many of the medators, who turned their faces away from the sickening sight, and some of them-left the jail as hurrielly as possible, "Horrible!" "Outrageous," "Brutal" were words heard on every hand. In eight minutes from the drop the pulse ceased to beat. Six minutes r pulsation at the heart stopped, and the man was pronounced to be dead at five school girl, minutes to eleven.

Vanhise's explanation of the unsuccessful execution was that he became unnerved when Hillman asked him not to make the noose right, and yielded too much to the request. The crime for which Hillman paid the death penalty was committed over a year ago, and remained for four months undiscovered. One day last March a man fishing in Nash's mill pond at Turnerville found the nearly nude body of a man bearing marks on the head that indicated murder. The body was not identified at first, but about three days afterward it was ind to be that of Herman Siedeman, a pedler who had been known to make trips in that neighborhood and had been missing from his boarding place in Philadelphia since the early part of November, 1888.

The fact that Joe Hillman adopted the vocation of pedler about the time the murder was supposed to have been committed. coupled with a rather bad reputation, directed suspicion to him. He was placed unler arrest and Prosecutor Perry and Detective Garrison worked away at the case until a mass of damaging evidence had been collected. The trial, which took place in September, lasted eight days. At the time of Hillman's arrest he was twenty years old and kept house with a wife and baby.

THE NATIONAL FINANCES.

Figures From the Annual Report of the United States Treasurer.

United States Treasurer, Huston, in his annual report says that the past fiscal year is characterized as a remarkable one in the history of the public finances, both the revenues and the expenditures having been exceeded but a few times since the foundation of the Government. The former amounted to $387,050,058, and the latter to $209,288,978 inclusive of $17,292,362 paid in premium onbonds purchased. The surplus revenues on June 30 were $$7,761,060 a decrease of $23,-580,193, as compared with the year before, counting premium on bonds as an ordinary expenditure

On June 30, 1888, there was in the Treasurer's custody, in cash and effective credits, the sum of $764,729,335, and a year later the sum of $760,643,871. The current liabilities decreased in the interval from $148,291,347 to $127,931,880 and the reserve from $229,-$05,600 to $193,097,047. The gold in the Treasury in excess of certificates outstanding was $193,610,172 in 1888, and $186,257,490 i

The changes that took place in the currency were an increase of about $34,000,000 in the stock of silver, a contraction of $41,000,000 in the national bank circulation, and a loss of $25,750,000 of gold, less than four per cent. of the stock. The total stock of gold, silver, and circulating notes, excluding the certificates of deposit, which are merely repretative of moneys in the Treasury, was $1,698,-904,649 for 1888, and $1,666,095,420 for 1889. making an apparent contraction of about $33,000,000 in the total currency of the country. As the holdings of the Treasury decreased in the interval in the sum of $41,-000,000, the circulation increased about $$,000,000. The public lost $18,000,000 of gold and $30,000,000 of notes, and gained $56,000,000

The increase of the circulation of silver certificates was about $56,000,000, having kept pace with the rate for the two previous years. The new issues of small denomina-tions appear to have fully supplied the needs

The intelligence seemed to stun the President almost as though it had been a near relative. A book which he was holding in his hand at the time fell to the floor, and for a few minutes he paced nervously and abstractedly up and down. He asked that any particu lars of the tragedy which might be received should be communicated to him.

ly killed and F. E. Jackson badly wounded Colonel A. M. Swope was about fifty years at Cambridge, Md., by the explosion of a old and a native of Kentucky. He practised law at Paris, Ky., until the beginning of the war, when he joined the Union army and rose to rank of Colonel, serving on General Buell's staff. After the war he went to Lexington, and resumed the practice of his profession. He has held many positions of trust within the gift of National Administrations, and was regarded as one of the ablest men in his party. In the last Kentucky Republican Convention he made a strong fight for Senator Sherman, but was unsuccessful in his attempt to have the delegation instructed for the Senator, being opposed by Colonel Goodloe. In 1877 Mr. Swope was appointed Collector of Internal Revenue for the Seventh Kentucky District, and resigned in 1883. He was an applicant for Commissioner of Internal Revenue under President Harrison, but was defeated, it is asserted, through the enmity of Colonel Goodloe.

His great grandfather was General Green Clay, who commanded a brigade in the Northwestern campaign under General Harrison. In 1861 he accompanied his uncle, Cassius M. Clay, to Russia, where he was sent as Minister by President Lin coln. Mr. Goodloe acted as Secretary of the Legation until 1862, when he returned and joined the Union army as Assistant Adjutant-General of Volunteers, serving until 1864, when he resigned and commenced the practice of law in Lexington. In 1868 he was elected a delegate to the National Republican Convention, and was appointed a member of the committee to notify General Grant of his nomination. In 1873 he was elected to the State Senate, and the following winter was nominated by the Republican caucus for United States Senator.

Catarrh in the Head

Originates in scrofulous taint in the blood. Hence the proper method by which to cure gatacrh is to purify the blood. Its many disagreeable' symptoms and the danger of developing into bronchitis or that terribly fatal disease, consumption, are entirely removed by Hood's Sarsaparilla, which cures catarrh by purifying the blood; it also tones up the system and greatly improves the general health. Try the " peculiar medicine."

The coinage of the standard silver dollars has proceeded without any incident worthy of remark. Without much change in the amount in circulation, there is a tendency to-ward a decrease. As the efforts to increase the circulation have proved futile, no exality traordinary inducements have been held out to the public to take them.

During the year the national banks withdrew $66,340,900 of their bonds held by the Treasury as security for circulating notes or public moneys. The deposits amounted to $25,243,700. There remained at the close of the year $148,121,450, belonging to 3262 sidered. banks, as security for circulation, and $45,-222,000, belonging to 270 banks, as security for deposits. The amount of public moneys held by depository banks ran down from $58,712,511.11 to $47,259,714.39, the result mainly of the voluntary acts of the banks in surrendering the deposits and withdrawing their bonds. The semi-annual tax on circulation amounted to $1,410,331 for the year.
