

Foreign.—Intelligence from England to the 7th Nov. has been received in New York. But little news is brought by this arrival. The cause of the Greeks is brightening; England, France, and Russia, have taken active part in their behalf; and although the Turks stubbornly refuse to accede to any terms of reconciliation proposed by the former, yet the barbarians will be effectually prevented by the allied fleets, from further making war on the poor Greeks. Greece may be considered as emancipated from Turkish thralldom.

The markets for cotton have not improved any in England. Wholesale Report.—A letter is said to have been received in New York from a "respectable source" in London, asserting, that Great Britain, Russia and France have expressly agreed to conquer the Turkish dominions in Europe and Africa; to allot all Turkey in Europe to Russia; Egypt, &c. to England; and the Islands, to France; leaving to the Sultan his dominions in Asia! The Greeks are to have a separate government.

Congress.—We can barely find room this week, for a list of the standing committees, which were appointed on the 10th inst. A thorough change has been made in them—a majority of most of the committees being composed of anti administration members. On the 11th, Mr. Carson, of this state, submitted a resolution, instructing the committee on Indian Affairs to inquire into the expediency of refunding to the State of North Carolina $19,960, paid to the Cherokee Indians for reservations, by the treaty of 1819. Mr. Williams, of this state, moved an inquiry as to the expediency of repealing the duty on imported salt, which was negatived. Mr. P. P. Barbour, of Virginia, submitted a resolution for the sale of the seven millions of stock in the U. S. Bank owned by Government. The stock being now at 23 per cent. advance. Mr. B's. object was to gain that much to government by the sale. Were a sale to be effected at 23 per cent. advance, the gain accruing to the treasury on the whole seven millions, would be upwards of $1,600,000! Those who opposed the resolution were of the opinion, however, that throwing so much stock into the market, would so seriously affect the price, that the object of the sale would be measurably defeated.

Mr. Hamilton, of S. C. having requested to be excused from serving as chairman of the military committee, a vote was taken, and decided in the negative; so that Mr. H. continues chairman of the military committee.

Mr. Randolph, when it was announced to him that he was appointed chairman of the committee of ways and means, requested to be excused from serving as such, and the House granted the request. Mr. R. in his letter, says:—

"From some acquaintance with the duties of that Committee, acquired during six years experience in the chair, I am thoroughly persuaded of my inability to discharge them (in my present feeble state of health) with any degree of satisfaction to myself, or advantage to the public. I therefore respectfully pray to be excused from serving."

The following are the committees chosen:

Virginia.—The legislature of Virginia assembled in Richmond on the 4th inst. In the senate, Mr. Holt, and in the lower house, Mr. Banks, the old speakers were re-elected; and all the old officers were re-elected, except sergeant at arms, the election of which officer was postponed. Gov. Giles's message is long and able. He has been re-elected for the ensuing year, without opposition.

Board of Internal Improvement.—On Saturday, the 15th inst. Cadwallader Jones, James McKay, and Andrew Joiner, were elected by the legislature to compose the Board of Internal Improvement in this state, for the ensuing year.

Council of State.—On the same day, Gideon Alston, William Blackledge, Geo. W. Jeffreys, Meshack Franklin, William B. Lockhart, and Isaac T. Avery, were elected Councillors of State for the ensuing year. One remains to be elected.

Cape Fear Bank Bill.—The Petersburg (Virginia) Intelligencer, says the Bills of the Bank of Cape Fear have depreciated in value in that town in consequence of the expectation that that institution is about to wind up its business, and surrender its charter.

Alabama.—The legislature of Alabama convened at Tuscaloosa on the 19th ult. Nicholas Davis was elected President of the senate, and Francis S. Lyon (formerly of Stokes county, in this state) secretary. In the house of representatives, Samuel W. Oliver was elected speaker; and Thomas B. Tunstall, clerk. On the next day, Gov. Murphy sent in his message: it is a sensible document.

The grand jury of New-York have found bills of indictment against the parties engaged in the duel which resulted in the death of Mr. Graham, late one of the editors of the New-York Enquirer; but they have all left the state.

Mrs. Decatur, the widow of the late Com. Decatur, has again petitioned congress for the allowance of certain claims to which she conceives her husband was entitled.

Not dead.—The Arkansas Gazette says that Mr. Conway, who was stated to have been murdered in a duel with Mr. Crittenden, is not dead, but only severely wounded, and will be able to go on to Washington in a short time, as delegate in Congress from Arkansas territory. Mr. Crittenden's ball entered Mr. Conway's side, between the 5th and 6th ribs; and Mr. Conway's ball passed through the lappel of Crittenden's frock-coat, doing him no injury.

We have seen what is called the proceedings of the friends of the administration in Anson county, occupying considerable space in some of the papers; but we are informed, that only eight or ten persons attended, and that four-fifths of the people of that county will vote for Gen. Jackson at the next election. At this meeting, Dr. Thos. D. Park was chairman, and W. F. Smith secretary. Dr. Parke, and John A. McRea, were appointed delegates to the proposed convention in Raleigh.

A meeting of the friends of Gen. Jackson was held in Fayetteville, on the 6th inst. at which about 300 persons attended.—Louis D. Henry, chairman; Stephen Senter, and Dillon Jordan, jr. secretaries. A committee of correspondence and vigilance, composed of 55 members, was appointed; and a very able address to the public, was adopted—but we have not room to make even an extract from it.

On the 7th inst. a meeting of the friends of Mr. Adams was held in Fayetteville, at which about 150 persons were present. Dr. Benj. Robinson, chairman—Edward Lee Winslow, secretary. A delegate was appointed to attend the convention in Raleigh; and 25 persons named as a committee of vigilance, &c. Fayetteville has been called a strong hold of the administration; but from various indications, it appears evident that Jackson will get a large majority of votes there. On the discharge of the grand jury at the last county court in that town, they balloted for President—when Jackson received 14, Adams 1.

A meeting of the friends of the administration was held in Lincolnton on the 8th inst.; William J. Wilson, Esq. Chairman, David Reinhardt, Esq. Secretary.—Maj. Lawson Henderson, and Maj. Robt. Williamson, addressed the meeting in favor of the re-election of Mr. Adams, and against the claims of Gen. Jackson. Charles L. Torrence, Esq. was then nominated by Maj. Henderson, and selected as a delegate to attend the proposed administration convention in Raleigh. Maj. Lawson Henderson, John Coulter, Esq. Maj. Robert Williamson, Maxwell Wilson, Esq. and David Reinhardt, Esq. were appointed a corresponding committee, to further the cause of Mr. Adams in this state.

A meeting of a number of individuals of Mecklenburg county, took place in Charlotte, also on the 8th inst. Hugh Meenan, Esq. and Dr. D. R. Dunlap, were appointed to recommend to the members of assembly from that county, to confer with the members from Lincoln and Cabarrus, and others, on the subject of forming an electoral ticket in this state, in favor of the re-election of Mr. Adams. James Cunningham, Dr. D. R. Dunlap, Dr. Joseph McKnitt Alexander, Hugh Parks, Hugh Meenan, Wm. L. Davidson, Guy Maxwell, Alexander Cross, Laird H. Harris, Isaac Campbell, Henry Foster, James Dinkins, Robert Holt, James Wilson, Wm. Houston, John Stott, Augustus Alexander, are the committee of correspondence.

A meeting of the friends of the administration was held in Raleigh on the 15th inst.; and Dempsey Powell, William Whitfield, Thomas P. Devereaux, and Dr. John Beckwith, were deputed to the Adams convention, which was to have assembled in Raleigh on Thursday last.

An administration meeting was held in Hillsboro' on the 15th inst.—Dr. James S. Smith was recommended to the Raleigh convention, as a candidate for an elector for Mr. Adams.

Mr. White. At a drill-muster of officers of the 2d regiment in Tredeff county, on the 8th inst. the vote was taken on the Presidential question, and was as follows:

Adams . . . . . 42
Jackson . . . . . 24

As you are in the habit of printing the signs of the times, you can put this sign among the rest. Yours, &c. A FRIEND.

The day of trial will exhibit a different result from the above.

North-Carolina Treasury.—On Tuesday, the 11th inst. the committee appointed to investigate the situation of the Treasury of this state, made a minute and elaborate report: the deficiency is $68,800; but the committee are unable, after the strictest investigation, in any way to account for it; it is a perfect mystery, which time may explain. The report is very long, but shall be given to our readers, in detached parts, hereafter. The following preamble and resolution, in relation to this subject, was offered by Mr. Speight, in the Senate, on the 12th, and adopted, to wit:

Whereas George W. Haywood, executor of John Haywood, deceased, has conveyed to the State of North-Carolina all the negroes belonging to his testator, and so much of the real estate as he was authorized to convey by the will, and Elizabeth E. W. Haywood, John S. Haywood, Geo. W. Haywood, Fabius L. Haywood, and Thomas B. Haywood have also conveyed to the State of North-Carolina all the real estate of John Haywood, deceased, which was devised to them respectively by the last will and testament of said John Haywood, for the purpose of securing to the State of North-Carolina whatsoever should appear due to said State for moneys received by said John Haywood, deceased, as Public Treasurer, and not accounted for, under the conditions mentioned in said deeds; subject to the approbation of the General Assembly.

Resolved, therefore, That the said conveyance be accepted by the General Assembly, upon the conditions therein expressed.

Treasurer.—We have to communicate to our readers, more unwelcome news from Raleigh; Col. William Roberts, of Granville county, has been elected Treasurer of this state. We submit the state of the several ballottings which took place before a choice was effected. The seventh balloting, on which Mr. Henderson received 93 votes, was held on Thursday evening; and had another balloting been immediately had the general belief is that Henderson would have been elected; the Senate, fearing such an issue of the contest, adjourned in order to avert it, at a moment when the other house was preparing to ballot again. So indefatigable were the friends of Mr. Roberts, during the recess, that at the balloting next day, it appeared he had made interest sufficient overnight to secure his election. Thus has the aristocratic monopoly of office by our Eastern brethren, been again made manifest to us, in its most odious colors. It is little else than a solemn mockery, for the West to be represented at all in the General Assembly, when its members are admitted to seats only to witness the mortifying spectacle which is yearly exhibited to their view, of their constituents being shut out from all the emoluments of office,—and, in effect, all the benefits of legislation,—by the injustice, and the rapacity of the Eastern minority members.

The following were the ballottings:

1st, 2d, 3d, 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th
Haywood, 47 56 61 59 50 33 8
Roberts, 56 38 65 85 68 70 89 107
Henderson, 41 40 35 35 61 79 93 80
Seawell, 27 17 12 withdrawn
Burton, 18 15 11 9 5 2 1

Vice President.—It appears that James Pleasants, late Gov. of Virginia, is to be the administration candidate for Vice President. A caucus, it seems, has been held at Washington, to settle the matter. A correspondent of the New-York Commercial Advertiser, under date of Washington, Dec. 6, adds a postscript, (which doubtless was intended for the editor's eye only, but which the latter, in the exuberance of his feelings, suffered to be published) in which he says: "I passed the evening where the subject of the Vice Presidency was discussed, and agreed upon; Gov. P. is the man." The National Intelligencer, and other administration papers, chime in, and pronounce Mr. Pleasants "the man." Now with what grace can the friends of Mr. Adams in North-Carolina, who, in 1824, mostly opposed the caucus nomination, now unite in supporting a caucus candidate for the Vice Presidency? Verily, after having strained at a knot, can they now swallow a camel?

The General Post-Office.—The Post Office Department of the United States, under the management of the present efficient head of the department, (the Hon. John M'Lean) is prosperous beyond all example since the formation of our government. When the department came into his hands, five years since, there was a yearly excess of expenditure over the receipts, of $40,000; but so thorough a reform has Mr. M'Lean brought about, that the receipts this year exceed the expenditure by upwards of $100,000!—while, during this period, the number of post-offices, and the distance of transporting the mails, have been increased in a greater proportion than formerly. The receipts during the last year, amount to $1,473,551: the number of post-offices is increased now to seven thousand. Were every department of our government as efficiently administered as this, we should be a prosperous people indeed.

NEW YORK, DEC. 11.
Cotton.—The sales for the last three days, amount to about 1000 bales of all descriptions—consisting of old crop Uplands and Pensacolas at 9 a 9 1 2 cents; new Uplands, 10 a 10 1 2; some new crop Mobile at 10 1 4 a 10 3 4, and New Orleans at 12 1 4 a 13 cents. Advices from England to 3d Nov. are still unfavorable.

Fayetteville, Dec. 13.—Apple brandy, 52 to 55; Peach do. 35 to 40; Bacon, 10 a 10 1/2; Bagging, 20 to 24; Coffee 15 a 18; Cotton, new 8 to 8 3/4; Corn, 37 a 40; Flour, 4 to 4 50; Iron, 5 1/2 to 6 1/2; Molasses 32 to 35; Sugar 9 1/2 to 10 1/2; Salt, 80 to 85; Whiskey, 32 a 35; Wheat 75 to 80, per bushel.

Kentucky Election.—We at last have something in the shape of truth, in relation to an election for a member of Congress from Kentucky, in place of Dr. Young, dec'd. Chilton, the Jackson candidate, it appears, received 27 votes majority over Calhoun, the Adams man; but owing to an irregularity in opening the polls at one election stand, the Sheriff would not allow the votes taken there, although given in by qualified voters; the disallowance of these votes, left Calhoun a majority, and he received the certificate. But so great was the clamor against this proceeding, that both candidates have agreed to refer the election back to the people. Chilton will now be fairly elected.

Female Preacher.—On Wednesday last, the celebrated Anna Brathwaite, who, for a few years past, has acquired so much celebrity in England, as a preacher of the Gospel, visited this town, and delivered a discourse to an unusually large audience, which the novelty of a woman's preaching, and the influence of the name of this gifted Quakeress, had conspired to call together. After a short pause, she rose, and began to discourse on Scripture, without taking any text, and continued to speak for about an hour. She illustrated her observations by frequent references to Scripture, which were happy and appropriate. Her manner was marked by a modest propriety; her language critically correct; her style chaste and perspicuous; her delivery unaffectedly graceful; her voice clear and sonorous, without being boisterous; and the whole of her discourse, although rather discursive, was sensible and evangelical. Respect for this talented lady, and perfect satisfaction at her discourse, seemed to be felt by all who heard her.

She was accompanied by four or five Friends, male and female: who were on their way to attend a Yearly Meeting in Charleston, S. C.

Also on Long Creek, Montgomery county, on the 3d inst. Mr. James Gagle, son of Benjamin Gagle, Esq. in the 24th year of his age. He has left an affectionate wife, and an infant child, to be reared by a departed husband and father.
