Having purchased the printing stock and s acription list of the Old North State, in accord ance with the terms of the sale those who had paid in advance for that paper, will look to us to fill out their term. Those who were indebted to that paper at 12 o'clock on Saturday the 16th ult., had their indebtedness transferred to us, and it is a matter of importance that all should be promptly paid. Those not behind exceeding three months may yet pay at the ad vance rates of $2,50 for the year.

 J. J. BRUNER. Oct. 3, 1871. DEATH OF GOV. BRAGG.

The Raleigh papers of the 23rd brought the sad intelligence of the death of Gov. BRAGG. The people of the whole State will deplore his death as a great loss, and the report of it will cause a gloom in every house-

We give elsewhere a fuller account of this sad event to which we invite attention.

DAMAGING .- The revelations made before the Senate Investigating Committee in N. York city have been these men had been brought out week. against a high official thirty years daily associates, Porter and Leet, be- War Department. And now, it will be seen in another column, that the New York World, boldly and defiantly charges Porter with deliberate lying for the purpose dent's connection with the disgraceful abuses in question. No amount of white-washing can save U. S. Grant from merited disgrace. He will go down to posterity with these dark stains upon him, even though he should be-relected President, which, for shame, we hope and believe cannot

The radical press would be in a klux developments his press friends White House the grossest corruptions, of the Sand Stone ring-all these and

From the New York Word, Jan. 20. PRESIDENT GRANT MAKES GOOD HIS DEFALCATION.

He Sends a Check for the Amount, Without interest, to the Treasury Department - A Fellow Feeling Makes One Wondrous Kind.

debt. But he missed the opportunity tion and unguarded language till notified to Monday the 22d, when the legisla Q. During that time he was receiving session. The consideration of the bill will pray that the consolations of the Gospel be resumed this morning at 11 c'clock. the use of $5,000, Government mo-there would have been no ku klux. barn and house burners, and no corrupt judges to shield them, there would have been no midnight, disguised mobs.

If there had been no vile carpetbaggers and northern emissaries corrupting and firing yile elements in the South to deeds of mischief, there would be no avengers.

When there are no thieves there are no watchers, and no shooting of midnight marauders.

the causes and the effects cease.

LOWERY'S GANG.

their stock of provisions from the tional interest by their presence. house, and retired at their leisure.

1864,—despising rewards offered for most damaging to President Grant their arrest—can find no men nor means faces of the Representative of the Pco- dead and heartfelt sympathy for the and his private Secretary, General out of the whole resources of the State ple! Hope, happiness, beam from their bereaved ones. The streets were the Porter, and his most intimate friend, to break up this nest of bloody rob-Major Leet. If one-tenth of the bers. If they were white ku klux amount of evidence elicited against they would be arrested in less than a lowed the example of Cawthorn, and the all felt that the community, the state and Discontinued .- A general order of the ago, it would have driven him, in dis- War Department announces that the Milgrace for life, into obscurity. The itary Division of the South, the one late frauds and corruptions in the N. Y. under command of Gen. Halleck, is dis-Custom House have been traced back continued and all commanders of depart- He died in this city on the morning of the pepple .- Ib. in vivid line to the President, his ments therein will report direct to the 21st instant, at his own home, in the full ing parties in the interest of them. The late General Halleck's command of concealing his own and the Presi- The Constitutional Amendments-Interteresting Scene in the House-Speaker of the Wil. Journal.

chambers, the large but symmetrical col- stomach.

to be able to shout "kuklux, kukulx," of the House were well filled. The war and saved, with his well aimed artil- public they will cover that officer with Mr. Ashes' bill in regard to the public and ring the changes on the atrocities members were seated; silence reign- lery, the battle of Buena Vista. His disgrace. We know, too, that he is can committed by the men of that order. ed save one voice, that in earnest services in the late war won for him the tious and cunning; that he has carefully ing, Welch, Justice and others favored the Even the respectable Era is evidently North Carolina might be relieved of camauga."

those burdens that now press them down Northampton was the home of Gov. that he has taken great pains to protect and works on it with great earnest- so heavily. It was Speaker Jarvis, who Bragg after he obtained his license to himself, and still greater to protect his offiness. Grant's defalcation of old time, had taken the floor and in behalf of the practice law. From that county he came cial chief, from exposure in the scandalous and his participation in, or connivance at, the dirty jobbing of Leet, the bold at, the dirty jobbing of Leet, the bold on the bill to alter the Constitution of in 1842. In August, 1854, he was lis chief probably dipped and mixed. The question of personal privilege in relation nominal—Uplands 221; Orleans 221. Sales falsehoods of Porter, and his more North Carolina. His clear statements, chosen by the people governor of the proofs will be forthcoming whenever Porter to comments in yesterday's "Carolinian" 642 bales. all else besides, sink into insignificance language, and enforced by his peculiar which position he resigned in 1861, upon We will begin by recalling attention to and resumes the chair. Treasury since he was an army officer. to fire anew the hearts of the colored for the battle-field as well as the Senate after this affair. If any one doubted the story of members. In thander tones denounces chamber or the forum. Grant's defalcation to the Government, those who would after a constitution once We will pass over his private relations A. At Claremont, on the North River tention by the House and his speech was 2d. That we will ever revere and cherish his as published a few days ago, they arouse the prejudices of race, and to ention to wife and children, and like his Department after he went into this busigreater part of the day was spent in passa private citizen. must now cease to doubt, since he tail upon the people irrevocably the public career, filled with every incident ness? A. Certainly one year after the ing bills of local character. has come forward and paid on the harsh terms of the existing constitu- which can give dignity and lustre to hu-ney, fraudulently withheld for about the bill upon its second reading. The Governor Bragg When Mr. Phillips in sations with him or others in Washington a motion to reconsider. See proceedings. 4th. That a copy of these Resolutions be 20 years, it is simply no evidence of end approaches. Three days have been the House, and Mr. Jones in the Senate, upon this subject? A. Yes, sir; I was honesty to proffer restitution of the spent in discussing the measure-in pro-portrayed the virtues and sketched the in Washington in the spring of 1870, and principal without interest. The inter- tions-in expressing apprehensions. But lofty character of Thomas Bragg, the that General Porter felt burt at a remark est is more than the principal. He the particular champions of the bill have Legislature adjourned. ought to have paid eleven thousand yielded to no suggestions have heeded At three o'clock the bells tolled and the ed in jobs about the New York Custom says: - The people of North Carolina are If there had been no negro leagues, bill unchanged. And now-will it pass? Strong, P. A. Wiley, Pulaski Cowper, Cochrane I would be very happy to do so. debt of the State-The question is momentous. The decis Judge Merrimon, R. H. Page, Gen. W. Q. General John Cochrane, the acting It is acknowledged by all, that, as it If there had been no midnight lon will affect the people for weal or woe! R. Cox, Judge Battle and Hon. B. F. Mayor of New 10rk i A. 1es, sir; ne non state to pay it, but as to what steps long the long is the l ion will affect the people for weal or woe! R. Cox, Judge Battle and Hon. B, F. Mayor of New York! A. Yes, sir; he now stands it is a moral impossibility for "no," if necessary-to secure a recon- relatives.

> At length he concludes his marterly bates of those eventful times. effort, and while stillness yet pervades | As Governor and Legislator, no corthe Hall, he passes up the sisle, support- rupt legislation ever eminated from him.

sideration - a modification - another trial -should the bill fail at this reading. hearts full of love for their people-all to dust."-Ral. Sentinel. absorbed in the issue now to be decided. That rotund form leaning over the brave | LEGISLATURE. Yesterday the House New York Custom House. Col. McAllister, of Alamance, is John adjourned over in respect to the memory Q. Were you referring to the general-Graham, now in the prime of life and the of the late Hon. Thomas Baragg, after order business? A. Yes, sir; I told him can be effected with creditors, and report height of wsefulness, and well-known as a passing a joint resolution that the Gene- I had not said I knew personally that he the result of their labors to the next Genleading Senator in all measures affecting al Assembly should attend the funeral as was, but I told him I belived he was still, eral Assembly. the financial affairs of the State. Near an organized body. him, supported on his cane, for an unfor- Messrs. Sparrow and Phillips delivered for believing it; 1 told him of this transcloquent and fearless Senator from the proceedings of the House. elock, Sunday night last, to replenish many of the leading spirits of the day, unwirtingly lending to the scene addigun and returned to the piazza, fol- Conservatives vote solidly for the bill, citizens. He rises to explain his vote. Every a thence to Oakwood Cemetery. over twenty good citizens of Robeson listens. Every heart beats loud. Will The Superior Court adjourned in honthe chamber. At length order is restored. community was manifested such pleasurable emotions!! necessary for its passage.

DEATH OF GOVERNOR BRAGG

possession of his vigorous intellect. Surrounded by a loving and distressed family, he took his calm departure, leaving becomprised the States of Kentucky, hind him the memory of public services spects to this gentleman yesterday, in the Tennessee, Mississippi, Alabama, Flori- which are part and parcel of the history course of our comments on Mr. Mudda Georgia, South Carolina, Texas and of his country, and the example of a life, gett's testimony. The onlission and post-may study with profit. Governor Bragg was standing upon the and smother in a mass of other matter the Jarvis -Passage of the Bill on its equally apparent that it was only the it our duty to make against that officer, extreme boundary of human life. It was grave disgracing charge which we deem Second Reading-Great Enthusiasm. outer frame work that was giving way. who e relations to President Grant have We publish the following extracts His mind worked on like an engine to the been for many years so close and intimate. week. from a letter from Raleigh to the Editor last. The mortal part of the great man These charges deserved separate attention was seen to give way in the Holden im- without entanglement with other topics. peachment trial, but the immortal part We therefore deferred them until to-day, It was mid-day when I reached the worked on with its iron power until the and will now try to present them in such House of Representatives. On entering blow was sent that crushed it. He is said a manner that they will challenge, nay, I was agreeably surprised at the fine ap- to have died of the malady that carried compel attention.

gress from the Mobile district.

in conciliatory but fervid and partiotic the Legislature United States Senator, charges. took a ready and active part in all de-ing his shattered arm with his left tiand, Jobbers, speculators and dealers in false doing himself credit by paying that his time has expired, and then, after ture assembled, Mr. Sparrow in the from Birby & Co. this money for the use be resumed this morning at 11 c'clock. House and Mr. Jones in the Senate, and of the general order privilege? A. Yes, The bill to increase certain fees of coun-And now the Speaker rises to an nounced the calamitous visitation that sir. nounce the question of the passage of had fallen upon the State in the death of Q. Did you subsequently have conver- but will be taken up again next week on of time. posing amendments-in urging object qualities which constituted the manly and General Cochrane called on me and said distinguished Gilmer. Ham. Jones, the we publish in full in our report of the here; that Mr. Lindsay said he repre- ONE HUNDRED MEN INDICTED.

smoke-house of Mr. McNeil. He | Members at their seats have their pen- this distinguished and much beloved eral-order business was already given to heard them, and went out into his cils carefully tallying the votes as each gentleman took place yesterday afternoon Mr. Bixby and others for public reasons; heard them, and went out into his name is called. Countenances usually piazza and called to them, inquiring bright and full of animation, are now S. Mason, D. D., officiating. The prewho they were and what they wanted. wrapt in serious thought. Apprehen- sence of the large assemblage and the that neither himself nor Babcock nor Leet They told him who they were and or- sions are visible in the earnest faces that grief depieted in almost every face testi- had any interest whatever in anything dered him into the house. He got his The moment is one of fearful anxiety. the deceased was held by his fellow-robbers fired on the family, the shot other side. Will it be given? Will the Supreme Court adjourned its session and tor taking effect in the thigh of the wife, emancipation of the people from the the Chief Justice and Associate Justices will give them relief? The vote progres- Representatives met in their respective A. It was the longest part of the year. helped themselves out of the smoke- ses. The Radicals have thus far voted Halls and, led by their presiding officers, "no." The name of Cawthorn is called; marched in procession to the residence of A. Yes, sir. Lowery and his gang have slain he is the colored member from Warren. the deceased, thence to the church, and county since the war, and still drive he dare afford relief to his people? Yes; or of the distinguished dead, and its their occupation. Here is an actual he votes "aye," not committing himself to presiding officer and his subordinates rebellion which Grant makes no atbill is saved. An oppression I felt about tollad out, the stores and business places tempt to subdue. And Gov. Cald- my chest was relieved, I joined my voice of the city closed their doors-not merely well, who so valiantly pursued horse- with the applause of the patriot mem- on the main streets, but even to the city's thieves who visited Burke county in bers. Cheer after cheer resounds through limits. We doubt if ever before in this Men breathe freer. Joy illumines the spontaneous outburst of respect for the eyes, and dread suspense gives away to aspect of the Sabbath, but the countenances of the passers by were clouded by Subsequently other Republicans fol- sadness, and it was painfully evident that bill received three more votes than was the country had sustained a great loss. The members of Rescue Steam Fire Company, of which deceased was an honorary member, attended in full force, The announcement of the death of the and the general throng, including colored Hon. THOMAS BRAGG will send sorrow as well as whites, showed the high place and distress throughout North Carolina. Cov. Bragg held in the hearts of the

CONFIDENTIAL SECRETARY. public and private, which all mankind ponement were deliberate. That article was long, and we were unwilling to make For twelve menths it was apparent that it longer. We could not consent to bury pearance of the hall. The spacious off the great Napoleon-cancer of the We aver this private secretary of the umus supporting the galleries and the Governor Bragg was born in Warren- is guilty of 'deliberate, wilful, conscious President, this "power behind the throne," arches overhead, combined to invest the ton, North Carolina, Nov. 9, 1810. His fulschoods respecting matters now under must have foreseen that without ku- rostrum of the Speaker, half encircled by born to greatness. Hon. John Bragg, and the gravity of the charge we make; we the desks of the clerks and the reporters, elder brother, graduated at the University understand full well that is will recoil up-Against the wall, overlooking this sanc- of North Carolina in 1824, in a class of on ourselves if it be not true; but, with would be but dum dogs, with no tum of the legislative hall, hangs a splen- which Judge Manly, Governor Graham a clear perception of our responsibility, ability to bark or bite. What a relief did, full length painting of the American and Hon. David Outlaw were members, we charge that General Porter is guilty of mischievonsly false, and totally unfoundit must be to them just at this partieu- Rebel but pure patiet, George Washing- He removed to Alabama where he presid- Jalschoods in statements he has made reton, of whom a Virginia Lee once wrote, cd as judge of the Superior Court of that lating to matters now under investigation. lar time, when the Senate investiga- "First in War, First in Peace, and First State. He was long a member of Con- We know where the proofs of this charge can be found; we know that the proofs The scene that presented itself was Gen. Braxton Bragg, a younger broth- are precise, unanswerable, overwhelming; unusually impressive. The lobbies er, distinguised himself in the Mexican that whenever they are presented to the his reasoning, his soft pleading, his noble State. To this office he was re-elected has the hardihood to venture on a denial; carriage, his manly sentiments, conched 1856. In 1858 he was elected by but meanwhile we simply define our lease of the N. C. R. R.

gestures, enchained all eyes upon him the breaking out of hostilities between the testimony of Mr. Mudgett, on which be compromised was defeated. A motion tion to the following extract, which we day.

[From Mr. Mudgett's testimony.] Q. Who was Mr. Leet? A. I underclaims against the federal or State gov. stood he was an officer on the President's Heaton, a white Republican, now ernment found no friend in him. They staff; at the time he came here to obtain gains the floor and endeavors to dispel shunned him as they would a detective the general-order business he was con- the debt of the State was resumed in the the influences of Jarvis' speech. He or armed policeman. Honor, courage, fi nected with the War department in some House yesterday, but no definite action The President has given his check for talks loud and fast, Words of bitterness delity to friend and country, were the matters, as I understood afterwards from was taken, the matter being postponed 25,000 to balance his little account which roll from him in quick succession. He prominent traits of his character. He had him; the first time I had any conversa- until Monday. Mr. Currie, of Cumberland, has been standing against him in the appeals to party passions. He attempts the qualities that would have fitted him tion with Mr. Leet was nearly a year made an eloquent and able argument in humbly bow to the sovereign Will of our Heav-

against its passage. Strudwick is to vote of admiring friends and heart-crushed White House next morning at 9 o'clock; the question-I told General Cochrane I would be very We would suggest for the consideration Rev. R. S. Mason, of Christ Church, happy to go along with him; we went of that body the following plan : performed the sad and impressive service there at 9 o'clock and met General Porter; Let the Legislature appoint a Commit where they will be pleased to meet old and Around the Hall stands patriots with of "earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust be told me that he had heard that I had tee whose duty it shall be stated that I knew personally that he was interested in matters connected with the amount of the State debt is.

Trace effects to their causes. Remove tunate bullet has sadly injured him, stands eloquent and feeling enlogiums upon the action as I have related it here; I gave and I would give him the reasons I had in silent interest, pale but thoughtful, the life and charanter of the deceased, which him the whole thing as I have given it and have done with the subject.

Lowery and his gang went to the classic hills of Mecklenburg, adds anoth- In the Senate the proceedings had rehouse of Mr. Wm. C. McNeil, near er to the group. In fact here and there, ference solely to the death of Gov. had no acquaintance with Mr. Lindsay : hundred men in Madison and Yaneey he said the President did give a letter to FUNERAL OF THE LATE HON. THOM- him the general order business, and that As BRAGG.-The funeral obsequies of Mr. Grinnell had responded that the genbut that was the chief; he said he had lowed by his wife and daughter. The but some of that party are absent, and Gov. Caldwell and other heads of never been in Mr. Grinnell's office but

Q. How long prior to that time was it and the shoulder of the daughter-the thraldom of their burdensome constitu- were also there. At 3 o'clock, p. m., the that Mr. Leet had obtained the businees latter a dangerous wound. They then tion be defeated because no Republican members of the Senate and House of and had made the arrangement with Lizby? Q. That this thing has been going on !

> Q. Mr. Leet had remained in the War Department receiving his remittance from New York of this money ? A. Yes, sir.

at the White House, in an interview whom he has bound to the Pederal Court which Porter had solicited through on ku klux charges. If reports be true, purchase a stock horse are invited to call and General Cochrane and at which General more than a hundred of the people will Cochrane was present, l'o ter told two have to leave their farms next summer to downright, palpable, deliberate, skulking put in their appearance at Raleigh. This fulschoods, which are already known to will ruin many honest, hard working perevery member of the committee to be ple, and all for no good, except that the falsehoods, and which will be proved to Shephord's pockets may be filed for his ILLUSTRATED CATALOGUE be falsehoods by a crushing weight of services as Commissioner. We say " for evidence, if Porter should ever dare to no good," because it is well known by reaffirm the truth of his statements. The even squire Shepherd himself, that the evidence to which we allude is absolutly men whem he is arresting, and on blank overwhelming; and as Porter himself is warrants at that, are guilty of no violanot ignorant of its existence or its nature, tions of law. This charge is made with it is safe to predict that he will never at. a full knowledge of the facts. tempt to rebut the charge which we so Therefore, if we could be allowed prefer against him .- N. Y. World.

RESIGNATION OF SENATOR VANCE.

GENERAL PORTER, THE PRESIDENT'S Jones, of Mecklenburg, yesterday tender- to rule and ruin your people. Especially, ing with old. Free to old customers. Quality

United States. It is a great outrage upon North Carolina that she should have been deprived all your Shepherds. Too many Shep. logue before ordering Seeds. of a representation she was fairly entitled herds are sometimes worse than wolves. 24,—one a flower plate of Eulhous Plants, conto, and we are among the sincerest Wesimagi e the people of Malison would sisting of Lillies, &c; the other of Annual, Bisympathisers with Governor Vance in say, that in this case, they are worse than emial and Perennial Plants, guaranteed the this matter, though not of his friends in the devil. the selection last Winter.

fill the vacancy on Tuesday of next of the law. They must preserve at all-painting valued at hundreds of dollars; mailed, action of Gov. Caldwell in the premises, one who shall be foolish enough to comand it has been assumed that he would mit any outrage of any sort, must be appoint a successor, and refuse to com- brought to justice and made to suffer for mission any one the General Assembly his crime. In this way only, can Madi-

We called on His Excellency yesterday this way only can Judge Bond and and ascertained his position in the matter. Brooks be induced to discontinue these A thrilling theme of fruitful thought for live He declared to us that he should commis- ku klux trials. Then, by all means, let men. Has created more excitement than the sion any one the Legislature may elect, us have peace. - Asheville Citizen. satisfied that it is his duty to do so in the absence of any law to his knowledge conferring upon the Governor the right to fill a vacancy occurring during a session of the Legislature. All rumors to the contrary he says were without authority, acquired. ed .- The North Carolinan.

THE LEGISLATURE.

The greater part of the session of the House yesterday was consumed in the debt. Messrs. Strudwick, Martin, War- sels is threatened unless the fugitives returned. substitute, while Messrs. Dunham, Sparrow. Ashe and others urged the passage of the original bill npon his resolution in reference to the Liverpool, Jan. 24.—Cotton opened quiet;

we commented yesterday, and call attent to reconsider the vote will be made to-

Sentinel, Jan. 19.

support of the provisous of Mr. Ashe's enly Tather, and confide in his gracious prom-Q. Where had you the conversation? bill. He was listened to with marked ataccepted by Congress. He seeks to of life. They were all fidelity and devo- Q. How long did he remain in the War the subject of much compliment. The memory, his many excellencies and virtues as ty officers failed to pass its third reading, defend them while traveling in the wilderness

Sentinel, Jan. 20

THE STATE DEBT.

no counsel. They have stood firm by hearse was driven from the door and the House, and would like me to make an auxiously looking for the present Legis- A. M. Sullivan. their own work, and have preserved their body in charge of the pall-bearers, G. V. appointment to meet him; I told General lature to take some steps relative to the moment is intense. The chances are tery, in the presence of a large concourse General Porter would like to see me at the Legislature shall take concerning it is

1st. To ascertain precisely what the the largest and best in town-and

2d. The entire assets of the State. 3d. The best terms of adjustment that

If this is the best that can be done

Mr. Leet that Mr. Grinnell should give Kiux laws of Congress. These men will of course, be held to bail for their appearance at the next term of the Court in Raleigh to be held in June of this year. We doubt not, that reasonable bail will one will have to go to jail in default of bail. Were it otherwise, we should, nevertheless, advise all against whom indictments have been found to stand firm-to go to jail if necessary-until their cases are called, in the Federal proof, that he is not guilty, but, that this prosecution is for base political purposes. We suggest this course, knowing as we know, that the people of Madison and Yancey are a law-loving and law-abiding people, and will be able to fully vindicate t easely s when the opp rtunity offers.

de learn that Squire Deaver, Shepherd of the Radical flock in Madison County, has recently issued warrants against quite In this conversation with Mr. Mudgett a number of the people of his county, publicly, and with so much emphasis, word of advice to this Shepherd, it would Chromos. Cover, a beautiful design, in colors, be this: Order no arrests unless there be The Richest Catalogue ever published. [Nota probable guilt. Cease mour thirst for the len cent pumphlet. | Send 25 cents for copy, not blood of your political adversaries, cease first order, amounting to not less than $1, the your avarice and be more conscientious price of Catalogue, 25c., will be retunded in Governor Vance, through Senator for the short time it will be permitted you seeds. New customers placed on the same footed his resignation to the General Assembly of your S. apherda who are offered, make it to the advantage of all to puras Senator elect to the Congress of the of young Stepherds who are low hounding down honest men. We refer to Ru- nary indocements. ben Shepherd, Adolphus Shepherd, and You will miss it if you do not see our Cata-

The Legislature will elect a Senator to themselves to be provoked into violations ornament; cannot be distinguished from an oil hazards, the character they now sustain ditions specified in catalogue. Much has been said of the probable of being a law-abiding people. And any Address, BRIGGS & BROTHER, son county enjoy her wonted peace. In Reflected in the Last Judgment!

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

Annapolis, Jan. 24.—Mrs. Wharton has been

Nashville, Jan. 21.—General R. S. Ewell is seriously sick with pneumonia, his wife died on vesterday, with the same di-case.

Havanna, Jan. 21.-Trouble is brewing between Spain and France over several persons, including slaves, held by the French steamer, Closing of Cuban ports against French ves-

The Cubans captured and burned Guica, killing several volunteers and regulars.

New York, Jan. 24,-Flour dull and heavy The House adopted the Senate resolu- Wheat dull and declining. Corn dull and heavy.

Uplands 10g; Orleans 104, In the Scuate yesterday, the bill to Later .- Cotton dull; sales 15,000; speculation and export, 6,000. Uplands 101 Orleans

> TRIBUTE OF RESPECT. Resolutions of respect to the memory of Joatira Church, Dec. 31st, 1871.

WHEREAS, it pleased Almighty God to remove by death, on the 2sth day of December, 1871 Mr. Joseph Henderson, one of the Elders Church, passed the following Resolutions :

Resolved, 1st. That whilst we deeply lament transmitted to the widow of the deceased, and bring to their attention his extended tashines be published in the Salisbury papers, and be spread on the Minutes of our Session book.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

THE undersigned having associated them- R. W. PRICE

selves in business under the firm name of A. M. SULLIVAN, CO.,

HAVE opened in R J. Holmes' new build-ling, next door to the Hardware Store, new friends. They have a magnificent room-A Large & Splendid TOMPRISING a general assortment, Hard-Ware excepted, and will guarrantee as good bargains as can be sold by any House in lasses, &c., together with a large and varied the South. They will deal heavily in Groceries stock of household and table necessitiesand country Produce, buying and selling, and Bring your country produce to we hope the Legislature will do it invite all who wish either to buy or sell to call on them. A. M. SULLIVAN & Co.

OF GOODS

SALISBURY

CALEM ALMANACS

UTHERAN Books of Wurchip. SCHOOL BOOKS, large variety.

IN fact any thing in the way of Books and Stationery, can be had at short notice and CPECIAL orders will receive prompt atten-D tion Send in your orders.

VAUABLE

Stock Horse For Sale.

The under-igned will sell his valuable young ORANGE BOY, for $325.

This horse is now in his prime. He has served several seasons, and his colis are decidedly fine. The undersigned finds it inconvenient to keep him, and hence offers him for sale. His merits beyond question l'ersons wishing to see him-15 miles west of Saltsbury.

M. W. GOODMAN NOW OUT!! SEE IT!!!

BRIGGS & BROTHER'S

FLOWER AND VEGETABLE SEEDS SUMMER FLOWERING BULBS.

FOR 1872. Consisting of over 130 pages, on cuts, and Six Beautitul Colored Plates! Also representative Engravings of our superb

But withal, our people must not allow ever issued in this country. A superb parlor post-paid, on receipt of 75c; also free, on con-

Rochester, New York. [Established 1845]

A new work! An awakening investigation? times. It unrave a the Board havenen from its origin to the present; expens its baseless pretenses, its frauds, its oppositions to our public schools, and religious and civil liberties, its fi-This work is an elegant octave volume, containing 755 juges, 100 materiass engravings. Bound in sheep, price $7, in cloth $5.

Address each orders to H. B. LEWIS, Agt. for the U.S. Abrigdon, Va.

AUCTION

Commission Merchants.

P At the Sign of the Red Flag, MERONEY'S OLD STAND, - MAIN STREET-

SALISBURY, N. C.

Orders and consignments respectfully solicted. Bor Auction sales every baturday and

Oh! Yes-Oh! Yes-Oh! Yes!

The school bill is the special order for seph Henderson, passed by the Sossion of Thy- been reinforced by forming a copartnership with Having fallen back to a better position and JNO. M. COFFIN, who has been long and favorably known in the Mercantile community, would respectfully return my thanks to the public generally, and solicit a continuance of of our Church-we, the ruling Elders of said surance that we will do all we can to satisfy all their patronage to the new hirm; with the sewho may have anything to sell or buy.

J. K. DURKE N. B. I will continue to attend to the selling of any kind of property in the country, for Administrators and others when notified in time. J. K. BURKE, Auctioneer.

JOHN H. BUIS

TENDERS his compliments to his friends and the public, and in this method would for meeting demands in his line of business -He is now prepared to furnish all kinds of Grave Stones, from the cheapest Head Stones to the rostliest monuments. Those preferred styles and very costly works not on hand, only be accommodated on short time, strictly in accordance with specifications, drafts, and the terms of the contract. Satisfaction grants teed. He will not be undersold, North of South. Orders solicted. Address.

> T. J. PEG PRICE & BRO.

JOHN H. BUIS. Saliebull

Have Removed THEIR

FAMILY GROCERY STORE

TO JENKIN'S CORNER.

Where they will continue to Sell Floor Meal, Fresh Meats, Bacon, Lard, Butter Eggs, Coffee, Teas Sugar, Salt, Pickles, Me

PRICE & BRO.