

The centralist, Messrs. Sankey and Moody, have closed their meetings in Liverpool. Their expenses exceeded the contributions $8,000.

It is reported that Marquis de Carné and his wife (the Princess Louise) intend making a tour of the United States.

A Newark girl basted the departure of a lingering gentleman earlier the other evening by remarking as she looked out of the window, "I think we shall have a beautiful sunrise."

When the Constitutional Convention meets next Fall it ought to provide in the Constitution that no member of the General Assembly during his term of election as a member, shall be eligible to an election or appointment to any office, or place, or Commission, by the General Assembly, or by the President of either House, or by the Governor. When that is done, unnecessary expenses will be greatly decreased, and there will be less "log-rolling" by members to have themselves put on Commissions or elected to offices or places of profit or trust.

Judge Watts Gave Fully into Politics. A dispatch in our columns a few days since from Halifax stated that Judge Watts left a jury in session upon a murder case, in order to attend a political meeting at Nashville, the jury thereby being kept waiting nearly three days.

One of the Issues. The abominable Civil Rights bill passed by the Radical Congress at its last session is one of the live issues in our convention campaign, and must not be lost sight of by our speakers.

Overhauling Potatoes.—Mr. S. D. Harrison brought to the News Office yesterday a specimen of Irish Potatoes, the third crop from one planting.

WHAT IS GUM ARABIC?—After the rainy season in Morocco, a gummy juice exudes spontaneously from the trunk and branches of the acacia.

"Is Fanny How They do it." The vivacity of the reconstruction keeps on cropping. In his letter to the New York Herald Mr. Nordhoff details how the Radical politicians in Alabama last year organized and trained negro bands of ruffians; how they held secret sham elections; how black voters were taught how to vote early and often; and how, while this was going on, United States troops were used to intimidate Democratic voters in the country districts by threats of arrest on blank warrants, and bribes given by Congress to help those farmers who have suffered by an overflow of the Alabama river was used by Republican politicians as a means to gain voters for their party and themselves.

THE PRINTER'S TOIL. Blow, ye stormy winds of winter, Drive the chilly drifting snow, Closely hoisted, the busy printer, Needs not how the winds may blow. Click, click, his type is dripping, Here and there upon his case, As he stands for hour popping Every letter in its place. Heaven send the useful printer Every comfort mortal needs, For our rights were dull in winter Had we not the news to read. Sad would be the world's condition If no printer boys were found; Ignorance and superstition, Sin and suffering would abound. Yes, it is the busy printer Holds the card of knowledge on, And a gloomy mental winter Soon would reign if he were gone. Money's useful, yet the winters Will not half so high a place As the busy, toiling printer, Fingering type before the case. Yet while the type they're busy setting, Oh! some thanksless poping, Leaves the country, kindly letting Printers whistle for their pay. Oh! ingratitude ungracious! Are there on enlightened soil— Men with minds so inconspicuous As to slight the printer's toil? See him! how extremely busy, Fingering type before the case, Toiling, till he's almost dizzy, To exalt the human race.

A WATER FINDER. A New Hampshire correspondent says that Captain John S. Godfrey, of New Hampshire Falls, who has gone to California to locate wells, never fails in his "manifestations" as to where water can be found. He works thus: With nothing in his hands he walks over the ground until the water, if any exist, is approachable, when he is affected with a nervous twitching in the limbs, which increases as the water is reached, he all the time acting very much like a person with the bars of a magnetic battery in his hands, and following the course of the spring or stream, whichever way it may lead, regardless of walls, fences or other obstacles, and seen to be controlled and directed by some power which he is unable to resist.

CONDUCT OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY WHEN IN POWER. ENORMOUS INCREASE OF THE DEBT OF THE STATE. Ruinous Taxation Authorized by the Republican Party. The people of North Carolina should never forget the conduct of the Republican party when they had the power in the State. In 1868 they had the Convention by a two-third vote. In 1868-'69 they had the General Assembly by a like majority in both branches.
